The Gospel of The Clean Plate.
 Sunday, July 1st, has been designated as "Food Saving Sunday." Herbert Hoover has appealed to the ministers of the country to preach upon the subject, advocating the elimination of waste from every home in the land. Our allies in Europe are fast approaching a condition of famine. If we have any patriotism we cannot do less than take no more on our plates than we can eat. The saving of one slice of bread in each home per day would be the equivalent of the wheat grown from 400,000 acres. In view of the world crisis and the people on the other side of the sea soon to be in want, let loyal Americans eat less meat, provide fewer expensive Sunday dinners, dispense with extravagant evening parties, and thus help win the war for the democracy of the world.

We hope every church, civil, fraternal, and patriotic society in the Mt. Scott District will help to spread the "gospel of the clean plate." Many men can not carry arms. Women and children are not expected to. But all can do their part in helping to cut off the general wastage of the country which Secretary of Commerce Redfield says would, in one year, pay off the $7,000,000,000 war loan.

The Government expects every person to do his duty.—J. A. D.

Cities Are Judged By Homes.
 It's the homes in a city which index its progressiveness. The business district soon loses its freshness and attractiveness in the discriminating mass of brick and mortar, glaring signs and noisy automobiles, a sight tiresome to the eyes and wearisome to the nerves.

But, in the residence section is where one forms the opinion whether they would like to live in this city or not. Modern homes portray character and individuality, radiating cheerfulness and contentment—a standing invitation to become a member of that community or city; an assurance of neighborly neighbors, for who would like to live in a city where they would not have good neighbors?

Cities with modern homes are cities with high standards of morals, so modern homes better a city morally.

Land Monopoly.
 Collect up a herd of 1,000 of the most stupid donkeys in Mexico. The four-legged kind, I mean.

Place them in a pasture sufficient to comfortably provide feed for 40,000.

Would they starve?
 Would there be a shortage of provender?

Not unless these donkeys were fools enough to allow four or five of their number to keep them off 95 per cent of the grass area and drive them to the scanty and rocky hills.

There is plenty of land, and plenty of labor in this country. Who and what keeps them apart?

The socialist machine in the United States and in every state in the Union is so absorbed in revolving its own machinery that it only rattles around when there is anything to be done. That is why the socialists get nowhere. Their machine is more likely to fight fundamental reforms, as a machine, than to help pull anything along the road of progress.

Most of what we blame Providence for is human ignorance.

If the non-partisan movement is to succeed in accomplishing any permanent good it must use the initiative. This weapon is what they sought and still seek in North Dakota. In Oregon we can, if we will, do all that the non-partisan movement in North Dakota has tried to do and so far ---failed.

The United States spend hundreds of millions on its water ways and allows the transportation trust to keep them from being used. As part of a National-ly owned and operated transportation system the rivers would be utilized to relieve congestion. So would the ocean.

There are more traitors in Congress needing to be sent to military prisons than in any other aggregation in the United States. They talk while the people are plundered, and they know why they talk and for how much.

The food speculator who charges one-third for his risk and trouble may be a pirate, but what of the big land speculator, who does nothing and raises prices as his community labors and plans to increase production?

The state administration is taking no steps to dispose of the state farm loan bonds. They are a good investment, but the local banking ring in Oregon says NO.

We are to pay for a complete set of new roads for the transportation trust in this country and give that trust the entire system for nothing.

Wake Up America.
 Fault finding and railing at Congress is not a pleasure to any editor. It is a nuisance—it leaves a nasty taste in the mouth. But there are times when railing is not only a virtue, but an absolute necessity if the people are to be protected from petty thieves and highway robber barons.

The retail price of potatoes is a fair illustration of the results of congressional slacking.

Up in the potatoe districts of Wisconsin farmers are reported to be receiving a dollar a bushel for their output. In Chicago, only a comparatively few miles distant, the consumer is paying four dollars a bushel.

Who gets the three dollars?
 If there was ever a time in the history of our country when the American people should rise up in their might and demand congressional action that time is RIGHT NOW.

Robber food barons will suck the blood of the consumer just as long as congress dallies and slacks and does nothing, and with a few notable exceptions the national law makers will do absolutely nothing until they are literally kicked to the point of performing their sworn duty.

Speed up the kicker!

Kern Park Christian Church.
 The Pastor, Rev. G. K. Berry, will preach a patriotic sermon on Sunday morning. In the evening at 8 o'clock he will give a lecture on "The Religion of South America." This subject will also be discussed in the Christian Endeavor service at 7 o'clock.

The last eight chapters of 2nd Sam. will be studied in prayer meeting on Thursday evening.

A very special C. W. B. M. meeting is to be held at the church Thursday afternoon from 2 to 4 o'clock. The special music was greatly enjoyed at last Sunday's services.

The Christian Endeavor rally will be held at the Sellwood Christian Church on July 18th. Prizes will be given to the society having the largest attendance on that occasion.

Methodist Church.
 On Sunday morning next Mr. Jasper will preach a patriotic sermon. The evening service has been taken up, the congregation will participate in the union service to be held in the Baptist Church in connection with the Sunday School Institute, which will begin at 3:30.

There will be a lot of splendid articles on sale, including aprons, rugs, fancy articles, etc. Light lunches will be served during the afternoon and a substantial dinner at six o'clock. Take the afternoon off and take the family down to the church for dinner at six o'clock. There will be a program in the evening.

Troop 2, of the Boy Scouts, accompanied by Mr. Jasper, took a hike up to Mt. Scott Tuesday evening, where they enjoyed a camp fire council and a lunch.

The Epworth League have arranged a "hay rack" ride for the Fourth. They will leave about 8:30 in the morning of that day for Clear Creek, Clackamas County, where they will spend the day in a royal good time. There will be plenty of "eats," including a weiner roast around a camp fire in the early evening before returning home. The plans for the day's pleasure are being perfected by the Fourth Department under the leadership of Mrs. Maud Bleything, Fourth Vice-President.

Millard Ave. Presbyterian Church.
 The Christian Endeavor society held their monthly social on Friday evening at the home of J. Reed, 78th St. and 67th Ave. S. E. The lawn was lighted by Japanese lanterns. Many old-fashioned games were played during the social hour which concluded with a most liberal feast of ice cream and cake. About thirty-five were present.

A patriotic service will be held at the church on Sunday evening, July 1st, beginning at 7:00. The program for the entire evening will be in charge of the Christian Endeavor society. Outside speakers have been invited and an unusually interesting meeting is promised. Everyone is invited to attend.

The double quartette of the Amphion Male Chorus will be present at the Sunday evening service and render several selections appropriate to the patriotic program of the evening's service. Come and hear them.

St. Paul's Episcopal Church.
 The officers of the Vestry of St. Paul's Episcopal Church for the coming year are as follows: Senior warden, Peyton Taylor; junior warden, K. B. Wood; clerk, P. R. Dunbar; board of directors, Samuel J. Allen, Ray Sheppard, Robt. D. Wal, C. L. Geseil, R. Smith, Fredric Geseil and P. T. Harris. St. Paul's Guild: President, Bertha Boatright; vice president, Ellen Forey; secretary-treasurer, J. E. Glover.

The church closes a most successful year in spite of prevailing hard times. The present rector, Rev. O. N. Taylor, is a most able orator and much beloved by his people.

Rev. Taylor officiated at the recent wedding of Miss Ruth L. Geseil and H. B. Wagstaff. St. Paul's congregation wish them a long and happy life. They will reside at Woodmere.

St. Paul's was well represented at the Episcopal Church picnic at Peninsula Park Tuesday.

St. Peters Church.
 Food Saving Sunday will be observed and a sermon on the subject will be preached by the priest, Rev. Bentgen, a synopsis of which follows: The world war is the greatest tragedy in history. The christian world is praying for peace but the men who are in the lead at the seat of government think the end may not come inside of five years.

The President, dearer than ever to the people, is endeavoring to prevent the exploitation of the resources of the country for the enrichment of the few and is exhorting each of us to "do our bit to help win the war."

Each American family is wasting $50 a year in food alone.

Let us save the ounces, the extra slices of bread, and cut off all self-indulgence. Let us use our parent's methods of frugality and thrift by storing supplies from the garden and orchard for winter and serve the remnants of our meal in another form at the next. We owe it to the world to be its good Samaritan and practice the greatest christian grace—charity—every day in the year.

There is one Cross we should all cheerfully shoulder. That's the Red Cross.

See Me About Tubes!

If your casings give way before their time, perhaps your tubes are at fault. Don't blame the casings until after you talk to me.

Perhaps your tubes leak air slowly so that you run on low pressure a good part of the time.

If this is true you ought to replace your tubes at once with Goodyears, for these tubes are constructed in the right way to hold air properly and to last along time, giving your casings a chance to deliver all the mileage that has been built into them.

I especially recommend Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes.

These tubes are typical of the high standard maintained in every product sold by us.
