The lawn social, given in honor of the boys of the community who have volunteered in their country's service, by Mr. and Mrs. T. P. The spacious lawn was lighted with vari-colored Japanese lanterns; seats were conveniently arranged for the convenience of the guests. A large and representative company were in attendance.

An interesting program was rendered in the spacious living room. Miss Roberta Downing, of Portland, gave two patriotic readings that were greatly appreciated. Miss Nina Joy delighted her hearers with two beautiful solos. Miss Henrietta Troge, Miss Florence Richey and Miss Roberta Downing also rendered several numbers, both vocal and instrumental. "The Star Spangled Banner," "Old Glory" and "America" were sung by the audience. A social hour followed during which ice cream, cake and punch were served, thus ending a delightful evening.

Lots of sheep are running contrary to law and it seems the forest rangers up there must be remiss in duty.

Mr. Hoover, the Food Dictator, says we must eat war bread. All right, Mr. Hoover, we are eating it here, as "Dad" Miller at the store sells it at half the price asked for other flour, and very good bread it makes too. By the way, Mr. Hoover, why don't you get after the Japs in Portland who have cornered the tomato crop? There's a "conspiracy in restraint of trade."
