Lewis Robinson, of 5212 87th St. S. E. Company's plant the first of the week.

H. A. Burgett, of 86th St. S. E., accompanied by his young son, Archie, sider Lents property. Inquire at 8911 returned last week from a three weeks' 39 pd trip back to his old home in Kansas.

Dr. P. J. O'Donnell has received his commission as First Lieutenant in the Dental section of the Officers Reserve $750. Mortgage for $500 at 8 per cent Corps. He is subject to active duty at any time.

Ray Gaston and May Ahrsman, two popular young people of Lents, were married on Wednesday of this week. They have a home prepared for their occupancy on 88th St. near 67th Ave.

Mr. C. Bruce, of Gilbert, has sold his poultry business to Mr. Malone and is moving his family into Lents the last of this week. He has been very extensively engaged in poultry raising for some

Rev. B. C. Dewey, of 100th St., returned on Tuesday from an extended evangelistic trip of several weeks' duration, having conducted a series of meetngs in several points in Washington and Idaho.

Mr. and Mrs. William Anderson, of 90th St., returned the first of the week after visiting at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bischoff, of Happy Valley. They also enjoyed a camping trip during their absence.

There are 400,000,000 acres of unused agricultural land in the United States. Figure out for yourself whether it is the housewife who peels her potatoes raw or the land speculator who causes a food shortage.

Mrs. C. J. Norene, of 6440 84th St. S. E., is celebrating her birthday today. She baked herself a delicious cake and celebrated by sending the lion's share of it to her soldier boy who is guarding bridges up in the Siskyious, which is s way that mothers have.

Mr. Bloyd, of the Multnomah State Bank, Lents, reports that deposits for the month of August exceeded those of a year ago by 50 per cent and that business conditions generally appear to be good, with a tendency to improve rather than to decrease in volume.

Mrs. Welch, of The Dalies, has been visiting her cousin, Mrs. Coy C. Organ, of 70th St. S. E., for the past two weeks. Mrs. Organ entertained the Arleta Rebekah Club at her home this afternoon, Mrs. Morgan and Mrs. Fishburn assisting her in her duties as hostess.

William A. Forbes and Harry Gale, of the Mt. Scott District, were among the soldier laddies to leave for American Lake Sunday morning with the Ambulance Corps, No. 19. Dick Markle, of Lents, is with the Rainbow division in California. Undoubtedly these boys will soon be on their way to France.

E. Mills of 92nd St., has retired from the express and hauling business and has transformed his Reo into a wood saw, effecting the change on Saturday last, and now he is as busy as a one-arm paper hanger with the hives, just saying nothing, but "sawing wood." His phone number is Tabor 2284. Give him

Jack Gribble, is very busy these days, having contracted to manufacture two socker wedding cakes for use during the coming week. Wonder who the guilty parties are? There are a few people around Lents who think they have a hunch, but if Cupid has let them in on the deal they are sitting tight and looking wise.

Miss Lois Hershner, of 80th St. S. E. ecently successfully passed the Federal Civil Service examination and has accepted a position as stenographer in the U. S. Geological Survey office at Helena, Mont. Miss Lois is the daughter of Prof. Hershner, of the Lents school, and has many friends in this district who congratulate her upon her success.

Mrs. Mary Lee, of 82nd St. S. E., returned last week from a month's visit at the home of her daughter, Mrs. L. A. Burk, of Tillmook. Her little daughter, Minnie, who had spent the Summer at the coast, accompanied her home. Mrs. Lee boasts of a brand new little granddaughter who arrived at the home of her daughter during the month. The 5919 924 Street little lady claims the distinction of being the first grandchild on both sides of the house and will be duly spoiled accord-

By buying soap in quantities there is double economy-quantity price and longer lasting soap - because much of the soap you buy is fresh from the factory and has not had time to harden. Soap should be unwrapped and piled up to harden, thus it will last much longer.

A little melted paraffine wax stirred in starch will keep irons from sticking.

THE DRONE IN SGHOOL

It isn't every time that he PREFERS to be a drone.

Frequently it's his eyes. They are weak, or have been strained, or he is troubled with myopia.

In most cases the RIGHT glasses, correctly fitted, will completely remove

If glasses can help your child's eyes, we have them and want to supply them. If glasses will not reach and remedy the trouble, we'll frankly tell you so.
