LOCAL BRIEFS

The street car company wants the people to be its 6-cent "partners."—Sunnyside Gazette.

Prof. Dixon, of the Woodmere school, was called to Illinois last week by the death of his father.

Mrs. Norman, of Troutdale, spent the week end with her daughter, Mrs. H. A. Burgett, of 86th St. S. E.

C. E. Kennedy who left about a month ago for Olex, Ore., is circulating among his friends in Lents this week.

Mrs. Nellie Woodworth, of 85th St. and Mrs. Ott, of 86th St., returned home from the hop fields the first of the week.

Gilbert school was awarded a blue ribbon at the Gresham Fair in the class of schools having more than two rooms.

Mrs. J. T. Berry, of 94th street, returned on Tuesday from a week's visit with her daughter, Mrs. E. W. Payne, of Canby, Ore.

Funeral services for Mrs. Roel, of 1205 59th Ave. were conducted at the Kenworthy parlors this afternoon, Rev. F. M. Jasper officiating.

Dr. O'Donnell has been incapacitated for work all the week owing to an "attack" of poison oak. He is improving and hopes to be able to attend to his appointments by the end of the week.

Mrs. J. H. Baird, of Clatskanie, Columbia County, accompanied by her two sons, Phillip and Fred, visited friends in Portland and Lents last week. Mrs. Baird was a guest on Saturday of Mrs. Hyde, of the "Herald."

Visitors from this district to the State Fair at Salem will find the "Mt. Scott Herald" in the racks with other State papers in the Oregon Booth, Journalism Room. This is made possible through the Extension Division of the U. of O.

Mr. Gray, of 83rd St. near Foster Road died this morning after a lingering illness. Funeral services will be conducted from the Kenworthy parlors Saturday morning at 10:00, Rev. F. M. Jasper, of the Lents Methodist Church officiating.

John Walrod, of Foster Road, returned from his Eastern trip the first of the week. He reports a fine time; attended the Minnesota State Fair where he witnessed some record-breaking horse races, as well as one of the finest exhibits which a State can produce.

Post cards received from Miss Edna Burns, of 87th St., who with her parents and sisters is touring Southern Oregon, indicate that they are having a fine time, with all kinds of good things to eat—watermelons, cantalopes, pears, peaches, tomatoes, as well as venison—looks as if the h. c. of l. wasn't troubling them much.

W. W. Wakefield has charge of Chester's barber shop this week, while that worthy gentleman is "honeymooning" somewhere in the United States. Dr. Stockdale, Naturopath, who merely comes to help out his friend, is assisting in the work of the shop on Saturdays during the rush. Mr. Wakefield is assisted by A. E. Forces.

The grocery business at Myrtle Park formerly operated by Waiter & Muenster was bought out recently by Mr. Thomas. During the past week Mr. Muenster, a former partner, has purchased the stock and will conduct business at the old stand. Mr. Walter, the other member of the old firm, is preparing to go into the real estate business.

"Grandma" Forsythe, of 90th street, is happy over the arrival of her little 14-year old granddaughter, Elsie Oliver, who comes from California to spend the Winter and attend school. Mrs. Oliver will arrive later and will also remain for the Winter. Miss Elsie has spent some time with her grandmother on previous occasions. She made the trip alone by boat.

Miss Menzies, of Creston, teacher in the Lents school, accompanied by her mother, motored to Cle Ellen, Wash., on Saturday, the 8th inst., returning on Sunday accompanied by Mrs. Lanegan, of Cle Ellen, and Mrs. Mazanbi, of Roslyn, their guests remaining throughout the week. On Saturday last a delightful trip was taken up the Columbia Highway.

An alarm of fire on Tuesday proved to be a small blaze in the roof of a house on 84th St. between 63rd and 64th Avenues, caused by a chimney fire. Small damage was done; the bucket brigade and garden hose, manipulated by the family and neighbors, had nearly extinguished the flames by the time the fire department arrived. Lents and Gray's Crossing volunteer companies responded to the alarm.

One of the jokes played on Portland by the fish trust is to charge five prices for all kinds of fish. With salmon blocking up the entrance to the streams the people of Portland are paying 20 cents a pound for salmon. The food director of the United States got the trust to agree to offer fish for 15 cents, but even that cut is too much for the trust to stand, so it only pretended to sell fish at that price, and shoved off a really inferior article of fish for 20 cents. If the men who do the work of catching fish could get $80 a ton for them they would consider prosperity had made them millionaires. If the trust was satisfied with 25 per cent profit they could sell 10 lbs of fresh salmon for 50 cents. Then we wonder why more fish is not eaten.

Happy Valley.

School opened Monday morning with Miss Pike as teacher and a full attendance of scholars.

Threshing in this neighborhood is about finished. Winter wheat has yielded about 35 bushels to the acre and oats 40 bushels to the acre.

Ernest E. Ulrich and family, of 6427 80th Ave. S. E., are spending a few days with Mr. Ulrich's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Ulrich.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Zinzer returned last Friday from Twin Rocks, Tillamook. They report having a splendid time of four weeks' duration.

John Deardorf and family have moved to Portland for the Winter, where he has found work hauling wood and coal with his auto truck.

Kendall.

Mr. and Mrs. Billings, of Kansas City, who have been visiting with their cousin Mrs. Miles, of Kendall, have returned to their home.

Miss Bertha Ham has returned home from an extended visit to Seattle, the former home of her parents.

School has started again with Prof. Keelan again in charge, he having given excellent satisfaction in the past. Miss Olive Dawson has been engaged as assistant and the indications are that she will be very popular with the children.

Mr. and Mrs. Hacker have moved to apartments at the rear of their store at 6th Ave., so as to be nearer their business which is developing into a nice trade.

Watson's Station.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney C. Hayes, of this district, gave a very enjoyable dance and social last Saturday night at the Grange hall in Lents. Excellent music was furnished, which could not have been bettered, either in "pep" or time, the combination rendering it impossible for even the most sedate to keep their feet quiet, saying nothing of those who were strictly up in the latest steps decreed by conventions of professional dancing masters. The beautiful appearance of the hall added much to the enjoyment of the evening, furnishing fine ventilation from the thirteen large windows and plenty yuletide light. Miss Vina Hayes had charge of the check room. Programs were furnished to all dancers.

Mr. Walter Headrick and bride have taken housekeeping apartments at 87 E. 12th St. N., where they will be pleased to have their numerous friends call upon them.

Mr. Charles Turner has returned after over a year's absence in the East, whither he went on important business which required more time than he had anticipated.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fisk Gibbons are still residing at No. 90 E. 29th St., near East Washington, where they expect to remain for some time, as they are quite well suited with their surroundings, contrary to a persistent rumor that they have moved several times since leaving Lents. Their friends will find them at the above address until further notice.

Free salmon in these times of high prices is the friend of every one. 71st avenue, has, we believe, the champion of salmon fishermen in Mr. Clarence Farris and Mr. James McVey. The former took his Maxwell machine and, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. McVey and Miss Lily Farris, enjoyed an auto trip up the Sandy River, coming back practically loaded with salmon, enough to keep both families supplied with this delicacy all Winter and also to divide with their neighbors.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Anderson and two little sons visited Mr. and Mrs. James McVey for several days during the past week. Their home is in St. Johns. They lost their infant son a few weeks ago.

Your Flag and My Flag

Your flag and my flag!
And how it flies today
In your land and my land
And half the world away!
Rose red and blood red
The stripes forever gleam;
Snow white and soul white,
The good forefathers' dream;
Sky blue and true blue, with stars to gleam bright—
The gloried gullion of the day, a shelter through the night!

Your flag and my flag!
And, oh, how much it holds—
Your land and my land—
Secure within its folds!
Your heart and my heart
Beat quicker at the sight;
Sun kissed and wind tossed,
Red and blue and white,
The one flag, the great flag, the flag for me and you,
Glorifies all else beside, the red and white and blue!

—Wilbur D. Nesbit.

THE DRONE IN SCHOOL

It isn't every time that he PREFERS to be a drone.

Frequently it's his eyes. They are weak, or have been strained, or he is troubled with myopia.

In most cases the RIGHT glasses, correctly fitted, will completely remove the trouble.

If glasses can help your child's eyes, we have them and want to supply them. If glasses will not reach and remedy the trouble, we'll frankly tell you so.
