LOCAL BRIEFS

Mrs. Arnold Eggman and baby daughter visited at Camas, Wash. the first of the week.

Miss Faye Foster, who has been quite ill at her home on 92nd street, is somewhat improved.

Mrs. M. J. Smith, formerly of Arieta, has come to Lents to spend the Winter with her sister, Mrs. D. C. Johnson.

Mrs. G. L. Mendenhall, of 6415 90th St. S. E., returned the last of the week from a week's visit with friends and relatives in Washington.

Mrs. I. W. Hummel who underwent an operation at the Good Samaritan hospital Saturday, is now at her home, and getting along nicely.

We wish to correct an error which appeared in our issue of last week. S. J. Allen, of 53rd Ave., who has been ill for some time instead of I. E. Allen as was reported.

Miss Myrtle McNeil, of Foster Road, is in Eugene this week attending the Mothers' Congress as a delegate from the Parent-Teacher Association of District No. 45.

The Royal Neighbors Club met at the home of Mrs. Clark, at Kendall Station on Tuesday of this week. A delicious luncheon was served at noon time and a social time enjoyed.

John D., "your grocer," is doing extensive improvement work in his store at 92nd and Woodstock Ave. Putting in new racks and shelves and otherwise increasing his facilities for serving the public.

Edwin Norene, of Co. C. 3rd Oregon Infantry, made a short visit at his home, 6440 Court St., Lents, Wednesday morning. He has been doing guard duty down in the Siskiyou for over a month past, but has just been ordered to report to Clackamas. He enjoys getting back among friends again.

The Grange Drill team are doing a lot of practicing these days. Always considered a "crack" team, they are endeavoring to improve their efficiency in a manner to reflect credit upon their lodge in a contemplated trip to Orient Grange, where they will put on the work in initiating a large class of candidates.

Mr. Harry Levy, of Lane County, was the guest of Miss Myrtle McNeil on Friday of last week. He also attended the meeting of the Grange on Saturday. Mr. Levy is a graduate of the O. A. C. and is at present managing the selling of stock for the grangers co-operative business in Lane County, which brought him to the city at this time.

Hot soup is now being served the pupils of Lents school for the sum of 5 cts. The children are expected to bring their sandwiches from home and a different kind of soup will be served each day of the week. Should the number of pupils patronizing the kitchen number 100 this will be continued, otherwise it cannot be made to pay.

We shall be glad to print extracts from soldiers' letters from time to time, but our friends who send them will understand that a letter which has passed the censor is not passed for publication. Its publication may be quite harmless, but every such letter must be carefully scrutinized to see if it contains material which ought to be withheld from those who might use it to the advantage of our enemies.

Miss Lillian Amunds, of Foster Road, daughter of Mrs. Anna Amunds, was married on Wednesday afternoon, the fortunate young man being Wm. Sorenson, of the Base Line Road, about three miles out of the city. They were married in Portland. A reception was given them in the evening at the Sorenson hall which was attended by a number of people from Lents. Music was furnished by an orchestra and delicious refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Thomas, of Woodmere, went out in the country in their roadster on Sunday. While attempting to negotiate a bad stretch of road they struck an obstruction which threw their car from the road. They declared it ran on two wheels some distance, over the underbrush along the side of the road, finally bringing up with a short stop against the bank. Mrs. Thomas was thrown from the car, but Mr. Thomas gripped the wheel and managed to stay in the car. No injuries were sustained. A passing car rendered them assistance back to the road and they resumed the even tenor of their ways, none the worse for their shaking up.

Send Him the Home Paper.
What shall you send him when he's in training camp or over there? A letter? By all means, that foremost and oftenest. And after that, what? Some foolish little knick-knack which is neither quite ornamental nor entirely serviceable? Or when in doubt, will you take a lesson from what Richard Henry Dana wrote in "Two Years Before the Mast?"

"After all, there is nothing in a strange land like a news paper from home. Even a letter, in many respects, is nothing in comparison with it. It carries you back to the spot better than anything else."

There is more in this to-day than DANA ever put there.—Colliers.

Rural Items

Happy Valley.
The splendid weather of the last few weeks has certainly been enjoyed by every one.

Mrs. George Hartung, of Everett, Wash., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Ulrich, is at the St. Vincent's hospital where she had a serious operation performed last Monday. She is doing as well as can be expected at present.

J. D. Hutchinson threshed 40 sacks of beans last week which he expects to sell at 11 cts a pound, at which price they will bring him $15.00 a sack of 140 lbs. or more.

Mr. Meng, of the Rock Home Dairy, of Kendall station, expects to move on to his farm in Happy Valley in a few weeks.

Joseph Becker left Monday evening for Lake County, Ore., where he has a homestead of 640 acres. We wish him success in his venture, but will miss his presence from our midst.

The farmers are busy digging potatoes this week. They are turning out better than expected and from all reports may be cheap enough so a poor man can afford to eat them.

Bellrose-Gilbert.

Mr. Wright-Davis is having his house remodeled. Present indications would make it appear that it will be a splendid improvement when complete.

Mrs. A. Rindie received the news that her niece, Mrs. Fannie Noah, of Colville, Wash., died on the 7th inst. A telegram sent her on the 8th was not delivered until the evening of the 9th, which made it impossible for her to attend the funeral on the following day which she so earnestly wished to do. She has the sympathy of her many friends in this vicinity.

Here's another verse to the poem in your issue of Oct. 4th.
Give us your hand stranger
And say "put it there,"
A song in the heart
Is worth two in the air.

Quite a number of people in this vicinity attended the reception given to Rev. and Mrs. F. M. Jasper at the Lents Methodist church on Friday evening of last week.

Mr. Deardorff met with an accident on Monday evening as he was going South over the hill on the Deardorff road. In his endeavor to avoid an injury to Mr. Monash, of the Foster Road, in the dusk of the evening he ran his machine into the side of the road and upset it, the car rolling over twice. The old gentleman was injured, although not seriously. The other occupants of the car escaped unharmed. Mr. Deardorff was taken to his home where he is being cared for. The best wishes of the entire community for his speedy recovery are extended.

Mr. Hunt who has purchased a garden spot on Lenox Ave. near Foster Road was out to see it one day recently, coming in a brand new Ford.

Last night, (Tuesday) was the first frost of the season and we all had "I scream" for breakfast.

Watson's Station.

At the last eugenic examination held in Portland little Mary Margaret, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Headrick, of 8088 71st St., scored 99 1/2 per cent, and is just six months old. Master Roy S. Farris, two years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Farris, scored 98 1/2, at the same place.

Mr. James G. McVey, of 71st Ave., well known concrete contractor, has been for several weeks past in Washington, working for the O. W. R. & N. on an extensive concrete bridge contract. He writes home that every one seems to be prosperous in that little burgh.

Mrs. Sarah McVey, mother of James S. McVey, has gone to Cerrillos, Mexico, where she owns some copper and turquoise mines. She expects to remain there for some time looking after business interests.

Mrs. Charles Farris has gone to Condon, Oregon, where she will spend several weeks in visiting Mr. Farris' sister, formerly known as Mrs. Hattie Taylor. She will visit her sister, Mrs. Byron Caldwell, at Dayton, Wash., before returning home.

Jack Frost made a short visit, but long in results, to this community during the week.

Mr. Cummings, who has resided in Mr. Taft's home for the past two years, has moved into apartments near the broom factory, where he is foreman. He and Mr. Taft are "baching" together. Mrs. Cummings is still visiting with her parents in the East and has her two little sons with her.

Mr. Janac and wife, of this district, has moved into a house near the broom factory where he works.

Mr. and Mrs. Amberson, of Newberg visited this section last Monday, coming on business and pleasure combined, visiting their daughter, Mrs. Sidney C. Hayes.

Little Economies.

To prevent runs in stockings put a row of machine stitching around each stocking from three to four inches from the top.

America Speaks.

By William T. Perkins of Portland, Oregon.
Ye sons of Freedom, bring to me
With flaming hearts and bended knee
Your offering to Liberty!

Ye are my sons; my bounteous breast
Hath nourished you, and on you prest
Its richest gifts; nor sought I rest.

Gaze now upon thy golden fields:
Mark how the earth its fruitage yields
Beneath the star-strewn flag that shields.
Behold thy cities, proud and strong;
Behold thy homes, where evensong
Ascends to Heaven, free from wrong.
My noble sons! awake! arise!
Behold sad Europe's smoking skies:
Gird ye my limbs ere Freedom dies.
Think now of Belgium's fields of red;
Behold where stricken France hath bled;
Remember Lusitania's dead.

My sons! my sons! your hearts I know;
Bring, then, thy gifts and let me go
With blazing sword, to meet the foe.

The foregoing poem has been adopted by the OREGON HEADQUARTERS for the LIBERTY LOAN CAMPAIGN in Oregon. It is to be recited at patriotic rallies and on public occasions during the campaign. County and local chairmen are requested to provide each committee and community with one copy for local use. When read by a young woman experienced in public reading, this verse is deeply impressive. Its first public use in Portland will be in the AUDITORIUM, Thursday, October 18.

Get in School of Thrift.

"A Liberty Bond is a diploma in the school of thrift" declared S. W. Straus, President of the American Society for Thrift, in a statement to the members of that organization today. "A subscription to this issue is the best way to begin a thrifty life." Secretary McAduo is asking for subscriptions from 10,000,000 Americans. If he is successful in this feature of the loan it will mean that thousands of our citizens have for the first time in their lives begun the accumulation of something for old age or the rainy day.

"Let me appeal especially to the man or woman who has gone along thus far in life with absolutely nothing laid by. Not only does your country need your help in this matter but you need it even more. This Liberty Loan is going to be a success, for America knows not how to fail, but you will keep on being an individual failure unless you arise to this opportunity. A Liberty bond or two tucked away in a safety deposit vault will bring you more pleasure than the same amount invested in any other way. Once a saver always a saver. The person who hasn't enough moral stamina to save money for such a cause as this is pretty apt to be a failure in life. Prove your worth and give your own future a chance by subscribing for this loan. You need it as much as it needs you."

How the War Has Changed Newport.

"Like thousands of other places, Newport has been made over by the war. The very streets look different; the spirit of its people has undergone a sweeping transformation. Although this is true of every other city, yet I think it is most evident in Newport—for in the past the spirit of Newport has been social, and in many ways it has been a social model for the rest of America."

Mrs. French Vanderbolt is the authority for this statement. She has written for the October issue of Harper's Bazaar an article on the Red Cross and other war relief work in Newport.

Naturally, with such serious work on all sides, the character of Newport has changed completely. And the cause for this change was the visit of the "U-53." The people of Newport had to house and care for the victims of this merciless raider of the seas. They were, however, not prepared for this sort of thing, and on realizing it they built up, without any loss of time, a very efficient Red Cross organization, and now everyone is engaged in some kind of war relief work.

Suggestive Habits.

"For ten years," said the new boarder, "my habits were as regular as clockwork. I rose on the stroke of six, and half an hour later was at breakfast; at seven I was at work, dined at one, had supper at six, and was in bed at half past nine. Ate only plain food, and hadn't a day's illness all the time."

"Dear me!" said a hearer, in sympathetic tones, "and what were you in for?" Exchange.

Maybe He'll Slip Too.

Nick and Bill went up the hill
To get a pail of water.
Nick fell down and broke his crown,
And Bill (well, Bill, he's feeling his way down might careful like.)
