

Church Notes

Methodist Church.

The topic for Sunday morning next will be "Tongues of Sorrow or Service." The evening topic will be "The Charity of Jesus." There will be special music.

There were large audiences at both services on Sunday last. At the morning service Edwin Norene, one of our soldier boys who has been doing guard duty all Summer, was present and contributed a solo to the music of the service. In the evening he gave a short address which was greatly appreciated by his many friends who came out to hear him.

On Monday evening the Adult Bible class of the Sunday school gave a surprise in honor of Mrs. Annie Dawson, of 92nd St., who has been the faithful and efficient teacher of the class for several years. Mrs. Dawson is about to leave Lents. She was given a handkerchief shower. A pleasant evening was spent and refreshments served.

On Tuesday evening a most delightful evening was spent at the parsonage under the auspices of the Music Committee. Prof. Walsh, of the music department of Franklin High School was present, delighting the audience with several solos. He also gave an interesting talk on the value and importance of music. Miss Ruth Turner gave several violin solos. This meeting was arranged for the purpose of perfecting plans for the music of the church during the coming year, organizing the choir and discussing the advisability of securing a choir director.

On Friday evening of last week a Sunday School luncheon was served in the basement of the church which was attended by all the workers of this department of the church. A Normal Teacher Training class was partially organized. A meeting will be held at the church tomorrow (Friday) evening to complete the organization. Mr. Jasper will be the teacher.

The Epworth League will have a Halloween Social Saturday evening. It will be held out of doors if the weather is nice; otherwise in the church. The young people are expected to come in disguise. A good time is anticipated. On Tuesday evening of next week the League will go to Gresham to attend a Halloween Party given by the League of the Gresham Methodist Church. The trip will be made by automobile.

Is This Right.

"The man who gives in when he is wrong," said the street orator, "is a wise man, but he who gives in when he is right is—"

"Married," said a meek voice in the crowd.

Bellrose-Gilbert.

The "Unexpected" Club, of Gilbert, resumed their Winter activities by effecting a neat little surprise on Saturday evening last at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Field, of Wilson Station, breaking in upon the household about twenty strong. While the resourceful people comprising the membership of the "Unexpected" Club can manufacture an "occasion" for these community good times whenever the spirit moves them to have one, it was not necessary for them to exert their energies in that direction at this time since an occasion was afforded by the date chosen being the sixteenth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Fields. A jolly evening was spent. Mr. Henderson, the very popular chairman of the Club, presided over the program, which as usual, was very largely impromptu, and also, as usual, provocative of much mirth and greatly enjoyed. A bountiful luncheon was served at 10:30, consisting of pressed chicken, sandwiches, coffee, cake, jelly and fruit. An attractive center-piece consisted of a fruit basket in the form of a large pumpkin, filled with grapes and nuts. The dinner was enlivened by the recounting of many anecdotes and humorous stories all suggestive of the discords and harmonies of married life. Mr. Johnson, the poet of the Club, concluding this feature with an original poem entitled "Field Day," which was a personal tribute to the host and hostess. Space prevents its reproduction at this time. The guests departed at a late hour wishing Mr. and Mrs. Field many happy returns of the day.

The presence of Mr. and Mrs. Anderson, formerly of Gilbert, but at present residing at Creston, was much appreciated as they have been greatly missed from the social circle since their departure in the Spring.

Pleasant Valley Grange are to have a very special day on Saturday of this week. Their "Harvest Home" festival upon which they have been working so persistently for the past few weeks will occur at this time. The morning session of the Grange will be devoted to degree work. There will be an open session in the afternoon with an interesting program. The big harvest home dinner and other features will occupy the evening. Big things have been planned. All grangers are invited to the entire day's proceedings and the public is invited to the afternoon and evening sessions.
