Paving Foster

On another page of this issue will be found interviews with prominent people as to their attitude toward the paving of Foster Road. This editorial will of course be nothing more than an interview with ourselves, our opinion, and will be worth just as much or as little as the reader pleases. It is based largely on the opinions of others, and attempts to be a summary of the conditions as we find them.

We do not believe that it is feasible or possible to pave Foster Road for its entire length at this time, for a variety of reasons. Firstly, the matter of bringing it down to city grade is as big an undertaking as the paving itself. Secondly the entering in of the street car tracks as a factor in the district from 72nd to 52nd streets, makes that stretch a complex problem. Thirdly the presence of city improvements on the side streets, in the same district brings in a drainage problem which is a difficult matter. Roughly speaking the project divides itself naturally into the two districts, from 102nd St. to 72nd Street, and from 72nd Street to 52nd St.

We do believe it is feasible, now, at this forthcoming county budget to make arrangements for the prompt paving of the eastern end of Foster Road, namely up to 72nd Street, and we believe that our attention should be focussed on this at the present time trusting that it will not be long until the full link is completed.

As a community, the paving of Foster Road and the coupling up with some other paved street such as Division, as outlined in Mr. Yeon's plans would be the signal for a forward move of inestimable benefit. Other improvements will follow in rapid succession. Our empty homes will be filled up and new ones will be built. In brief, we will commence to "come in to our own." Let's pave Foster.

Undoubtedly our readers will pardon us for omitting any items of news which, in accordance with our usual practice would have appeared in this week's paper. It will be self-evident by a glance at our columns that the special matter with reference to the paving of Foster Road have crowded many otherwise meritorious items out. They will appear as fully as possible next week.

A Liberty Bond pays four per cent interest. It is the best investment in America. It is free from all local and state taxation, and free from national taxation up to $5,000.

One dollar down buys a $50.00 Liberty Bond. The balance in easy payments. Your banker knows all about it. Ask him.

W. T. U. NOTES

The W. C. T. U. met on Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Gessell. There was a large attendance and much interest. Plans of work for the coming year were discussed. The annual calendar will be gotten out in the near future.

One feature of the meetings for the coming year will be to make one meeting each month largely business and the alternating meeting social in character.

The president, Mrs. Sommerfeldt, presented the names of a number of candidates for membership. Mrs. Sweet was received as a member at this meeting. She was formerly an active member of the Duluth, Minn. union.

It was voted to purchase a number of small flags to be used in saluting new members and also in all the salutes of the union instead of the handkerchief as has been the custom.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Gessell the second Tuesday in November.

Laurelwood Congregational Church.

Mrs. L. W. Owen, President of the National Father's Day Association, will speak at the Vesper service on Sunday evening next. The topic of the address will be "Pictures From Life." Mrs. Owen will also sing some plantation melodies. She is becoming familiar with Portland audiences and never fails to grip the hearts of her hearers. A long life spent in loving service for others has given her a rich fund of human-interest stories from which to draw and a beautiful, sympathetic personality instantly attracts people to her. This service will be held at 5:00 o'clock.

The pastor, Mrs. Hansaker, will speak at the morning service at 11:00 o'clock. The general public is invited to these services.

St. Paul's Episcopal Church.

The Tea planned for St. Paul's Episcopal Church, October 31st, at the residence of Mrs. Arthur Geisler, has been postponed until Wednesday, November 14th. Mrs. A. Geisler, Mrs. S. J. Allen, Mrs. F. P. Geisler are the hostesses. Further notice later.

Millard Ave. Presbyterian Church.

The Y. P. S. C. E. of Millard Ave. Church will give a Halloween social tomorrow, (Friday) evening the 26th inst. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Usher, 7626 77th St. and 62nd Ave. All who attend are requested to come in costume and bring a pumpkin pie. A fine program of music and readings has been arranged. All kinds of funny Halloween attractions will be enjoyed.

The anthem rendered by the choir on Sunday evening was most beautiful and was thoroughly appreciated.

Rev. Wm. A. Amos had the pleasure of having one of his dear friends preach for him, Rev. Enoch Benson. The congregation enjoyed his sermon very much.

Friends Church.

Word has come from the pastor, Miss Terrell, from Seattle, where she has been holding revival services for some few weeks, that she expects to be home in time for the services next Sunday. She reports success in her meeting and that souls are being saved and sanctified.

A letter from Miss Olive Pearson, a member of this church, who is now living at Parma, Idaho, reports much opportunity for service at that point with recent chances for giving a message along the line of God's financial plan with encouraging success. They are planning to build a church there.

Those who represented the Christian Endeavor Society in taking charge of the Mission at Vancouver Monday last, were, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Brumwell and family, the Misses Edna and Myrtle Burns and Doris Mann, and Messrs. Emel Swanson and J. Sanger Fox. The message was given by Ben Churchill, a former member of the society. His young wife accompanied him. A good service is reported.

The Wednesday evening Bible class and supper was well attended, about 20 being present. Interest is growing in this class. It was followed by a practice hour for the choir, getting ready for Christmas.

Laurelwood Methodist Church

One of the most delightful social events of the year was the reception for the new pastor and wife, Rev. and Mrs. Brackenbury, who come to this church from Gresham, where they served the church there for two years past. The Reception was held in the commodious basement of the church which was beautifully decorated for the occasion with Autumn leaves. The reception was in the form of a banquet, which was served at 7:00 o'clock, several guests of honor, representing the various churches and organizations of the community having been invited to share with the congregation in extending a welcome to the pastor and wife. Dr. W. W. Youngson, District Superintendent, acted as toastmaster during the early part of the program, but another engagement calling him away he placed the further program of the evening over to Rev. Lockhart, the new pastor of Clinton-Kelly church, who was one of the guests of the evening. Other speakers were Miss DeWitt and Miss Posson, of the Industrial Center; Mrs. Frances M. Swope, State President, of the W. C. T. U., also, of the Arleta district; Mrs. Hansaker, pastor of Laurelwood Congregational church; Rev. F. M. Jasper, pastor of Lents Methodist church; Dr. Kerr, an honored and much-loved retired minister of the city, and Mr. Heath, who spoke in behalf of the local church. Mr. Brackenbury responded to these kindly messages, thus bringing to a close the program for the evening.

The President has appointed Sunday next, the 28th inst. as a national day of prayer for the success of the American Army and the cause in which we are enlisted.

A state market and commission house would not be a bad thing.

LENTS SCHOOL BUYS LIBERTY BONDS

Thirty Graduates of School Are in The Service. Mrs. French Explains Loan to Students.

Over $2,500 have been subscribed to the Liberty Loan by teachers and pupils of the Lents school. Also, the school is assembling a Roll of Honor of students who have graduated and are now with the colors. A patriotic assembly was had on Wednesday morning which was addressed by Mrs. Clara B. French, of the County Assessor's office, speaking in the interests of the Liberty Loan. Mrs. French outlined a plan whereby any one who wished to do so could purchase a Liberty Bond by paying $1.00 down and $1.00 a week until the entire amount had been paid. Those who wish to purchase in this way should apply at the office of Ben Selling. "Soldiers win battles," said Mrs. French, "but money will win the war."

An entertainment is being planned to be held later in the season, the proceeds to be used for the benefit of the Lents School Honor Roll. Because of this, as well as for other reasons it is desired to complete the list and obtain correct addresses to all these boys. The list follows, together with such information as is at present available:

Liberty Bonds are Better than Gold

They are a first mortgage on the United States.

They pay you 4 per cent interest.

In buying them you are not only doing your patriotic duty but are making the best possible investment of your money.

The officers of your bank recognize that at the present time it is their duty to do everything in their power to help the government rather than to make profits for our stockholders. Won't you let us send in a subscription in your name? The larger the amount the better. Every check you write for a Liberty Bond cuts our deposits down just that much but we are game if you are. Saturday is the last day.
