LOCAL BRIEFS

Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Johnson are the proud parents of a bouncing baby girl born Oct 14th.

Mrs. H. Look, of 5028 97th St., left the last of the week for The Dalles, where she will spend some time with relatives and friends.

Miss Terrell, pastor of the Lents Friends Church, is making an extended visit to Seattle and vicinity, where she is assisting in Evangelistic services.

Mrs. J. L. Campbell Sr., and daughter, Miss Marjorie, of Clatskanie, Ore., were guests on Sunday of Mrs. Minnie Hyde and daughter, Miss Elizabeth, of 94th St.

Marion Huxley, of Co. B, Third Oregon Inf., visited relatives and friends in Lents, over Sunday. He expects to leave with his company for North Carolina the last of the week.

Edwin Norene, of Co. C, 3rd Oregon Inf. spent Sunday with the home folks, calling upon several of his friends as well. This will be his last visit to Lents before leaving for the South.

Eureka Rebekah lodge of Lents held a very special session on Friday evening of last week. There was a large attendance. A class of candidates were instructed in the Rebekah degree.

The Lents Grange degree staff are making big preparations to attend the Orient chapter on Saturday of this week where they will put on the work in the initiation of a class of candidates.

Mrs. F. M. Jasper, Mrs. J. C. McGrew, Mrs. W. S. Richardson, and Mrs. Minnie Hyde attended the annual meeting of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society for the Portland District, Methodist Church, held at the Sellwood church on Friday last.

The Mt. Scott Drug Co. have installed a new and up-to-date peanut and popcorn roaster and are now prepared to cater to the public, giving them something hot now that the weather has become too cool to make ice cream a popular refreshment.

Donald Updyke, of Gilbert Road, well known to residents of the Mt. Scott district as one of the youngest violinists of the community, is showing his patriotism by purchasing a Liberty Bond with his savings from a paper route. This is a splendid thing for a boy to do.

A splendid musical benefit program is being arranged for the benefit of Reuben Wilson Post G. A. R., to be given in Odd Fellows hall, Lents, on Saturday of next week, Nov. 3rd. A camp fire will also be held in connection with this entertainment. A more extended notice will appear next week.

Rev. W. R. F. Brown, formerly pastor of the Lents Methodist church, who has been confined to the house for the past year, following a stroke of paralysis at the annual conference a year ago, has been critically ill at his home on 82nd St. the past week. He is reported as somewhat better at present.

Rev. and Mrs. Geo. V. McClure, of Rex, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Mendenhall, of Lents, for several days last week, also visiting and calling upon their many friends in this vicinity. Mr. McClure gave his lecture on "Today and Yesterday" in the Friends Churches at Sunnyside and Piedmont while in the city.

The Lents Parent-Teacher Association will meet in the school assembly hall Friday afternoon of this week at 2:45. Attorney Jerry Boonahugh will speak on Food Conservation. A program will be rendered from the primary grades. Several interesting features have been arranged for this meeting and a large attendance is desired.

One of the Soldier boys of Lents who has enjoyed a recent visit with the home folks is G. Warren Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Clark. He is 18 years old and was formerly a student at the Benson Polytechnic school. He enlisted in the navy a year ago and was graduated from the electrical course at Mare Island as a second class electrician in May of this year.

Watson's Station.
Mrs. Richard Smith has just returned from a week end visit with her husband, Construction Superintendent at American Lake. This is Mrs. Smith's third week end visit since Mr. Smith went to the cantonment. He has his auto there and they enjoyed many rides through the surrounding country.

Mrs. J. M. Erb has recently returned from a visit at Big Springs, Union County, S. Dakota. She was absent several weeks. When she left Dakota there was about six inches of snow on the ground. Her sister, Mrs. A. L. Cummings returned with her and will spend some time in Oregon with Mrs. Erb before returning to her home in Big Springs.

Mrs. Headrick, of 71st Ave. is preparing for an extended visit with her parents and also with Mr. Headrick's family at St. Claire, Hawkins County, Tenn. Little Miss Mary Margaret, now past six months of age, will give her two grandmothers a surprise, as they will not be looking for them.

Mrs. F. H. Blauvet and baby son, Ralph, of 73rd Ave. S. E., spent the day with Mrs. Regan, at Ramapo Station, Tuesday.

HALLOWEEN SOCIAL WEDNESDAY, THE 31ST
Remember the delightful Halloween Entertainment and Social to be given under the auspices of the Parent Teacher Association of District No. 45, in the school assembly hall at Gilbert on Wednesday evening of next week. In the first announcement of this entertainment the date was announced as Tuesday which was a mistake and we cheerfully make this correction. It will be a regular Halloween affair, date and all—Wednesday evening the 31st inst. Everybody invited to attend and have a good time.

Mrs. French Passes Away.
Abbie C. French, of Bellrose Station, died at her home on Saturday evening last, aged 86 years. Her husband, Henry A. French, and one son, L. H. French, are left to mourn.
Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at the Finley Undertaking parlors. Incineration at Mt. Scott Park Crematorium.
The sympathies of the entire community are extended to the bereaved husband and son. Mrs. French was held in high esteem by all.

You can sell your Liberty Bond at a moment's notice. You can borrow on it at any bank. It is the very finest of security.
