LADIES OF G. A. R. PRESENT PROGRAM

Music, Readings, Patriotic Addresses and Bountiful Lunch Make Pleasant Evening.

Just a nice, old-fashioned, homey time" was the verdict of those who had the privilege of attending the Campfire Entertainment given in honor of the old soldiers by the ladies of the Circle, G. A. R. Saturday night in the Odd-fellows' Hall.

Considerably over 100 sat down to the 10th supper which concluded the evening's festivities, while many more were present at the program in the hall but were unable to stay. $32.00 was realized by the venture, and the ladies are to be congratulated on the success of their efforts.

The opening address was given by Rev. F. M. Jasper, Pastor of the Lents M. E. Church, and was most appropriate and much appreciated. The speaker of the evening was Judge Morrow, and the program of musical and reading numbers was so popular that almost every performer was compelled to respond to an encore.

Judge Morrow confined most of his remarks to extracts from a speech written by him in 1896, which however proved to be perfectly appropriate to present day conditions. Referring to the surrender of 200,000 Italians Mr. Morrow declared that the day would never be seen when Americans would be found surrendering in large bodies, they would always be ready to fight to the last ditch, preferring death to surrender. He declared that the principle at stake in the present conflict, one that must be fought out and settled now, once and for all, is whether the people or the ruling class are the government. His address was received with hearty applause.

Of the entertaining features it would be difficult to point out the star of the evening. Perhaps popular vote would give the honors to little Jack Robinson with his capital little piece about the Weather Man, but the two sturdy boys from the Woodmere school who "Canned the Kaiser" with such gusto, such perfect rhythm, and so much apparent enjoyment got perhaps as hearty a reception as any. Mrs. Robinson's Irish readings were just fine for folks who want to get fat, and Miss Alice Wilson of the Gillespie School of Expression gave an earnest warning to young ladies who have little sisters. Rex Tamalane and C. C. Baynard gave several numbers on their guitars, and their whimsical faces coupled with the soft melodies made quite a hit. Mr. Tamalane plays a Hawaiian guitar while his friend accompanies on one of the common or garden varieties. The violin added its full share to the enjoyment being enjoyed into melody by Donald Uplike, Milton Katsby and Fennimore Walrod, the two latter accompanied by their sisters, Gertrude and Eva, while Mrs. Uplike assisted her son Donald. The musical program was opened by a chorus of girls from the Woodmere school which showed much care and painstaking efforts in preparation. The singing of Mrs. Jasper was a delightful surprise to many, and her song of "Oregon" was well chosen, but perhaps the most unusual musical treat was the singing of Mrs. Jennie Pollock, who appears to just naturally burst into song without any preparation, accompaniment or instrument. Her two numbers were "The Little Bronze Button" (who can guess to what tune it was sung?) and "God bless the boys of the U. S. A."

An interesting relic on display was a tent and bayonet captured in 1863. The Committee in charge of the evening were Mrs. Thomas of 60th Ave. and Mr. Peterson of 82nd St. They wish to express their thanks to all those who participated for their assistance in making the evening a success.

Arleta Library Site Secured.

A misunderstanding has arisen regarding the proposed site of the new Carnegie Library at Arleta, some claiming that it will be located at 64th St. and 45th Ave., while others maintain that it will stand at 64th Ave. and Foster Road. Practically both statements are correct. The site chosen is at 64th St. and 45th Ave., just a few feet from the intersection of Foster Road. This site has been definitely secured, in fact, Mr. Strong, President of the Portland Library Association, who also has charge of the Carnegie funds for Portland, has said that he would consider no other site. The new library will soon be a reality.

The Committee have raised $660 to date, thus the success of the enterprise is practically assured.

LENTS STUDENTS ACTIVE IN RED CROSS

The pupils of the 8th grade in Lents school, Miss C. Hunt, teacher, are very active and much interested in Red Cross work. Ten of the boys have joined the knitting class and are knitting squares for the Serbian relief. The entire room are working upon Christmas packages for the soldiers. They are knitting a pair of wristlets for each package; they are also making joke books. In addition to these articles the packages will contain candy and gum and such other articles as they may be able to prepare in the time left before the boxes must be sent.

The February graduation class, under the direction of their teacher, Miss George, are equally patriotic and are industriously preparing for their entertainment which will be given either late in November or early in December, the proceeds to be devoted to the purchasing of Christmas presents for the soldier boys of the Lents alumni.

FATAL ACCIDENT ON ESTACADA LINE

Thomas C. Fletcher, 76, night watchman at the Columbia plant, was walking south along the tracks of the Portland Railway, Light & Power company's tracks on his way home about 9 o'clock on Saturday when he was struck by a Gresham train in charge of Motorman M. O. Lamb. It is thought by Mr. Lamb that the man failed to hear the approaching train. The motorman made an effort to bring the train to a stop, but was not successful until the man had been ground beneath the wheels. He lived at 4824 92nd St. S. E. Funeral services were held in the Kenworthy parlors Tuesday afternoon, Rev. Atkinson, of Bridal Veil, officiating. Interment in Mt. Scott Cemetery.

HONOR ROLL OF WOODMERE SCHOOL

Following is the list of soldier graduates of the Woodmere school: Edwin Chamberlin, Infantry, Camp Mills, N. Y. Phillip Drake, Infantry, Camp Mills, N. Y. Harold Paul, Infantry, Camp Green, N. C. (did not graduate.) Nicholas Munhoven, Field Artillery, Camp Mills, N. Y. Frank Wright, Aviation Corps, London. Warren Clark, Wireless, (Navy) S. S. Arkansas. Thaxter Daniels, Navy, Bremerton. Megre Kirishian, Engineers, France. J. Shanks, Aviation Corps, Toronto, Canada, (Manual Training Teacher.) Richard Stoner, Navy. William Johnson, Co. F. Inf., Camp Mills, N. Y. Ninville Justus, Co. C. Inf., Camp Mills, N. Y. Walter Strader, Regular Army.

Miss Spooner, of the school faculty, is in charge of the honor roll of the school, and is endeavoring to keep in touch with these boys. Letters have been received from most of them. A neat frame upon the wall of the school room contains the pictures of the most of the boys and a request has been sent to the homes for the pictures of the others.

Woodmere school is enjoying a very successful term thus far. The registration to date is 500 and is increasing from week to week. Prof. Dixon and his corps of teachers have improved somewhat on an already efficient group system which has been gradually perfecting itself during the two or three years since its first institution. According to present arrangements six single groups and three double groups are constantly in session throughout the school day. The various classes in manual training, cooking, domestic science, etc., are drawn from the minor groups in such a manner as to make possible the required period of each subject. A special improvement this year is the obtaining of a special teacher in sewing, cooking and manual art, who devotes her entire time to this school. One of the regular teachers was dispensed with in order to make this possible and the plan has been found to work very successfully.

Lawyer Keeps His Word.

"I haven't any case," continued the client, "but I have money." "How much?" "Sixty Thousand Dollars." "Pshaw! You have the best case I ever handled," said the lawyer. "I'll see that you never go to prison with that sum." And the client didn't—he went there broke.

OREGON BOYS FARE WELL IN SUNNY SOUTH

FRED AND ROY PETERSON

Camp Greene, Charlotte, N. C. October 25, 1917.

Dear Folks:—It has been a long time since you heard from me but I have not gone to France yet and do not know as we will soon, but still we do not know any more than you do out in the West. We are settled down here and would not be a bit surprised if we would not get to leave here for a long time, although it has been rumored that we will leave soon, but we put no stock in that as any one can start a rumor without any trying and that is probably what has started it. If we do go however we will more than likely go to Camp Mill, Miniola, New York which is just outside of New York City. And of course the boys are praying, if such a thing is here, that we go there and are not quarantined as some others were while they were there.

Mrs. Marcellus is here now as well as is the Major's mother and also Mrs. Stewart and it sure seems great to see a face that one knows is from Oregon and that you knew when you were there. The people out there are so different they are not so badly stuck on themselves, although we have no kick on the way we are treated here. The people here say that the Oregon boys are the best that there is in the camp and also that they never met as nice a lot of men as the ones from Oregon and they sure do break there necks to do something for the Oregon bunch too. They ask you where you are from and if you say Oregon they say, "well will you come out to dinner?" and say! they put up some good dinner too. It does sure do them credit. They believe in eating if they do not believe in anything else. I was out to a house the other evening and had a twelve course dinner and say it was some feed too and last Sunday I had a seven course chicken dinner. They either have chicken or possum and I do not think very much of this possum as it does not appeal to me. It may taste good after you get used to it, but I am not anxious to get used to it. Once is enough for me. They look like rats and taste like a squirrel only the meat is a little stronger than that of a squirrel.

Tell Herb that his girl can make a sweater for me and I will write her a letter from France when I get there, which will be some time before many more months as the papers seem to think that all the troops will be there before spring and this Division is not going to be the last to go over either, as it is one of the best in the Army. We ranked second in the whole Army for Liberty bonds sales and that is going some but it is as the Commanding General Jervey says, "the West never fell down and it will not this time," and we did not. I took $150.00 dollars worth and I think that it was a good investment it will be sent home as soon as it is paid for. They take it out of our pay at the rate of 10 per cent per month and then in ten months it will be paid for and we will draw interest on it from the 15th of November this year and that is not half as bad as spending every cent that you get.

Well I must close now and go to dinner as it is time to do so. Will write more later.

Give my regards to all in Lents and all the others I know around that part of the world.

Your Son,
FRED L. PETERSON.

EVENING STAR HAS ALL-DAY SESSION

Evening Star grange held an all-day session on Saturday last, a short session being held in the evening. A class of eight candidates was given degrees at the morning session, and other business was transacted. J. J. Johnson, master of the grange, presided at the morning session.

The open lecture hour was conducted in the afternoon by A. L. Keenan, lecturer. A splendid program was rendered including the following items: Address by Dr. A. H. Stockdale on "What We Should Eat." Mrs. Jennie M. Kemp, vice-president of the Oregon Women's Council for National Defense, spoke on "The Need of Conservation of Food." Miss Irene Elliott gave a vocal selection and Mrs. Edith T. Weathered gave a humorous reading. Rev. H. P. Blake, of Tualatin also spoke. Dr. Stockdale urged that more fruits and vegetables and less white flour and sugar be eaten. Mrs. Kemp's talk on food conservation was well received and a rising vote of thanks was given her for her plea for duty and patriotism.

MRS. M. K. HEDGE SURPRISED BY FRIENDS

Mrs. Marvin K. Hedge, of 5707, 94th St. S. E., was very agreeably surprised on Saturday evening of last week, the occasion being her birthday. She had expected to attend a lodge meeting in the city and a friend detained her until the crowd arrived. The evening was spent at 500. The ladies' prizes were won by Mrs. Frank H. Barstow and Mrs. Oran A. Hess and the gentlemen's prizes by Messrs. Otto Katzky and C. P. McGrew. The ladies attending furnished the refreshments which consisted of sandwiches, cake and punch. The party did not break up until a late hour, those present declaring it to have been one of the pleasantest of the season. Mrs. Hedge was the recipient of several beautiful presents. A few of those who had expected to attend were detained and were unable to be there. Those present were, Dr. and Mrs. Oran A. Hess, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Katzky, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Katzky, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Katzky, Mr. and Mrs. Finley O. McGrew, Mr. and Mrs. Chester P. McGrew, Mr. and Mrs. Benj. F. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. ## WRITE HIM A LETTER AND SEND HIM THE HERALD

There are two things the soldier boy wants more than anything else in the world—a letter from home and a copy of his old home newspaper. The first brings him the love he craves, the other the news he longs for. Sunday, Nov. 11, has been set aside as a day when everyone is asked to write a letter to a soldier boy and to send him a copy of the home paper.

The home tie is the strongest that the soldier knows. Keep it intact. Help the Army and Navy Y. M. C. A. in this respect. It is established in every camp, at every cantonment and follows or greets the soldier wherever he goes. It is the nearest thing to home he knows. A great national drive for $35,000,000 to secure funds to continue and extend this work will be made between November 11 and 19. Let the soldier know that you are helping in this for it means a great deal to him.

Aged Resident Passes Away

Mrs. Martha Ann Cooledge died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Hattie Yott, of Lents, on Tuesday of this week, at the age of 82 years.

Funeral Services were conducted this afternoon (Thursday) from the Kenworthy parlors, Rev. Blodsee, of the city, officiating. Before coming to Lents to reside Mrs. Cooledge lived at Rickreall, Polk County, whither the remains will be taken in the morning for interment. Three daughters are left to mourn her loss.

The mischief of it is that when they swell they do not swell enough to burst."

It might not be amiss to inform the president that the swelling he mentions is not confined to Washington. It is found occasionally, too, outside the realm of politics.—Moscow, Idaho, Star Mirror.

A general good time was enjoyed until 10:00 o'clock, playing games, etc.

Incidentally the noble bird evidently concluded that everything was in readiness, and having a fine boy to dispose of, left it at the Anderson home about 4:30 this morning. Mother and baby are doing fine, but Wm. Sr. is having to hunt for a new hat today.

MR. BREWSTER WILL BOOST FOR LIBRARY

In the interests of the Carnegie Library campaign now on in the Arleta district Mr. Brewster, of the Portland Library Association, has been secured as the speaker at the 5:00 o'clock Vesper service at the Laurelwood Congregational Church on Sunday next. Mr. Brewster will take for his subject, "The Future of Portland's Library." A general invitation is extended to all interested friends to attend.

"Mother, do come out and speak to Freddy," Gertrude said. "He's treadin' on all the ants in the garden."

"How very unkind," said Mother. "Yes, that's what I've told him," said Gertrude, "but he won't let me tread on a single one."
