DR. PRATT'S Optical Primer

E is for Eyes, Examination, Exercise

Often after a careful examination we find that glasses are not needed at all, but that by a system of scientific exercises the normal tone and vigor may be restored.

We have demonstrated this in hundreds of cases.

Why wear glasses when glasses are not needed. Our thorough examination will reveal your trouble and we can tell you what to do.

Your eyes are safe in our care.

Ataboy!
The Kaiser aims the world to own, He'd like to boss it all alone, And rule the waves from zone to zone— But can the Kaiser? He'd like to stamp Democracy Forevermore from land and sea, And make earth's motto "Gott und me." But can the Kaiser? Not much! Your Uncle Sam's the man To knock the tar from such a plan, And so, in plain American It's CAN the Kaiser!

Rural Items

Special attention of our correspondents is called to the fact that all matter intended for publication should reach this office not later than the afternoon mail on Wednesday. We are especially anxious to obtain this class of news as it is of great interest to a large proportion of our readers, but we cannot use it when it reaches this office later than Wednesday afternoon of each week. Should there be something of local importance occurring in the neighborhood too late to reach us by mail at this time, phone it in Thursday morning or send it separate from the regular news items, trusting to the possibility of its reaching us in time for publication.

Kendall.

(Received too late for last issue.)

The Ladies' Aid met on Wednesday of last week at the home of Mrs. Mills. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Adamson on Wednesday evening of next week, at which time a picnic social will be held.

Mr. S. R. Spooner was quite ill last week with a threatened attack of pneumonia, but is somewhat improved at this time.

Mr. Durham, formerly in business in Portland, but now of Grants Pass, was visiting at the McMyer home this week. Mrs. McMyer has been quite ill with pneumonia.

Mr. Johnson, our erstwhile painter, is home once more after an all-Summer stay at Astoria, where he has been engaged in the fish business. He says the fishermen have made quite a stake this season, getting over $200 for a catch that used to bring them between $50 and $75. He contemplates going into business in Portland for the Winter at least.

Mr. Olson is home from Eastern Oregon, where he has been drilling deep wells. He is contemplating going into the same business here. There are many wells in this vicinity that need to be made deeper as they have gone dry this Summer.

Mr. Nelson, our wood sawyer, is busy and will be for some time to come in the Sellwood district. Consequently Mr. Chapman, of Watson Station, is sawing the wood in this district.

Mr. Meng has turned his dairy business over to Mr. Brugger, and has moved his family onto his ranch in the Happy Valley neighborhood. He is still in the Lents mail district.

Mr. Hickey has turned his milk business over to other parties, although they are still residing here. Mrs. Hickey, with the assistance of Miss Davis, has ably conducted the business for some time as Mr. Hickey has not been able to attend to it, but the work is a little too strenuous for her to continue longer.

Belrose-Gilbert.

Mrs. C. H. Bateman, of Gilbert, who has spent the Summer with relatives in Michigan, is now on her way home. Her sister, Mrs. Thos. Bateman, of Mason, Mich., is accompanying her. Mr. Bateman is expected to follow later. The ladies will make several stops en route, visiting friends on the way. The many friends of Mrs. C. H. Bateman will be glad to welcome her home.

Mrs. Peters is keeping house for Mrs. Bunce, while that lady is engaged in business in the city.

Mr. Mahoney, residing on the Bunce place, is the owner of two new Darco Jersey pigs.

L. Sloper was very ill with pneumonia last week, but is somewhat improved at this time.

Watson's Station.

Mr. Jesse Everson, son of Mrs. I. Fletcher, and brother of Mrs. S. C. Hayes and Mr. C. Everson, has recently returned from a three years' stay in North Dakota. He contemplates spending the Winter visiting among his many relatives.

Mr. Jesse Hays, recently from Salt Lake City, walked into the home of Sidney C. Hays, of 71st Ave. S. E. very unexpectedly one day recently. He has now gone to visit his mother, Mrs. Amberson, of Newberg. He is accompanied on his trip by a friend, Mr. Johnson. He has not decided just how long he will remain in Oregon. He is as musical as ever and delighted his relatives and friends during his visit with an interesting and varied program, including the latest war time melodies.

Mrs. James G. McVey, of 71st Ave. S. E., and three children have been quarantined on account of her little son having the scarlet fever. He is now able to be up and dressed. Mr. McVey is still in Washington.

Mrs. Philip Baker and Mrs. Oakley Glenn, of Sellwood, visited Mrs. Lillie Farris, of 71st Ave., on Wednesday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Farris attended the banquet given by the mechanical employees of the P. R. L. & P. Co., given in their hall recently. A delightful musical and varied program was given, after which dancing was indulged in until the "wee sma" hours of morn. All report a very enjoyable time.

The Bumble Bee club is still buzzing as lively as ever and seems to be attracting quite a number of bees from near and far so that one can expect a lively time whenever they alight in Seward's hall at 94th and Foster Road.

Mrs. Clarence Farris, of 71st Ave., has returned from a visit to relatives at Condon, Ore. Before returning she had the pleasure of naming a new little niece, June Farris Hurt.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fisk Gibbins, of 90 E. 29th St., visited her mother, Mrs. Ada L. MacFarlain, on Sunday.

Considerable complaint is being made over the recent request from postmaster F. S. Myers that the rural mail boxes be placed on the right hand side of the road, as the rural carrier now comes in from the East off 92nd St., instead of from the West from 86th St. as was formerly the case. There are five families affected by the change as against two families whose boxes are already on the right side of the street. It is claimed that this will work a hardship in more ways than one. The posts are set three feet in the ground and would be difficult to change, in addition to which would be the inconvenience of wading through the mud each day after the mail. A remonstrance will be sent in in the hope of avoiding the annoyance which the change would cause.

Mrs. Ike Fletcher and son, Quinton, have returned from Hood River, where they enjoyed picking and packing those beautiful Oregon red-cheeked apples.

TOWN TALKS

Santa Claus has dropped a preliminary bundle of Christmas toys and presents at Katsky's. More are promised.

Drake & Manek were around placing "We've done our bit" cards in local store windows during the week. They only leave a card where they have extracted $1.00. The money is used to send Christmas presents to the boys in the trenches, under the auspices of the Red Cross.

Sauer Krant and mince meat—new shipments just arrived at Lents Mercantile. New walnuts coming.

Katsky's have just received a new line of aquapelle coats. They say they're just fine to shed the rain. They look as stiff and awkward as a printer's towel. If you don't know what that looks like, ask some one.

A Jenner, of Royal Bakery, was a visitor at Mrs. Maier's today.

Mr. Maier thinks it is hard to say what will happen when the new rules, regulations and licenses are out. Flour men think it will help the small baker when big bakers only make one delivery a day and when profits by grocers handling bread are cut down.

No more doughnuts after awhile—grease too high—Maier.

Frosting on cakes will soon go. Plain cake is better any how.

N. N. Nygaard finds the price of "tags" has raised, in common with other things. They used to be 10 cts., now $1.00.

Nygaard finds business is good, but when it comes to news he's like the Dutch merchant, when asked how business was he replied, "vell, yesterday I didn't make nuddings; today I didn't do half as much pizness as yesterday."

L. E. Wiley has recovered from his late indisposition. He has been on deck since the first of the week.

Thanksgiving is almost here. L. E. Wiley has his new shipment of nuts all in.

P. P. Bernhardt, with Ehrlich the sailor, says he doesn't know much in the ways of news offhand. He says he can't talk without time to think. We'll give him a week.

John Eggiman thinks the butcher shops should close every Wednesday. This would be one way to co-operate with Hoover and have one meatless day a week. Good for you, John.

Lents Hardware is already in line for Christmas. Have received 5 doz. lunch kits—no one need have a cold lunch. Their "hot point" line is complete. The new Hot Point Heatlight Heater feels mighty good these days. We tried it.

Becker's market says "Amen" to Eggiman's hope for a closing.

Mrs. Becker and Mrs. Nevin, of Los Angeles, visited Mrs. Vail, of Becker's market, one day during the week. Mrs. Becker is a sister of Mrs. Vail.

"Bill" Goggins only wants one thing more—Open season on Germans, no restrictions, no bag limit—doesn't think they're worth a bounty.

Mr. Morterud thinks the meat markets cannot close here unless they all do in Portland; they could not close at six because so many men do not get home until later.

There Are Others.

"It is very strange that no one has ever been able to find Captain Kidd's treasure."

"Oh, well, Captain Kidd isn't the only man who has put his money into real estate and couldn't get it out."

Downright Mean.

Contractor: It didn't cost me a cent to have that ditch dug.

Friend: How was that?

Contractor: I told all the boys in the neighborhood that they could dig a trench.

Extravagance - Not Efficiency

A great writer describes the "efficient extravagance" of the American people. But he is wrong. Extravagance can never be efficiency—except in WASTE. And WASTE makes WANT.

But SAVING insures COMFORT, and comfort is the highest goal. You can take care of your own comfort while you are making money. But if you waste your money, the time will come when you CAN'T have comfort.

This bank wants to co-operate with you in saving for future comfort. Start an account NOW.
