FATIGUE

That tired—all gone feeling that comes after reading or sewing for awhile. It is due to eye strain. Your eyes are working harder than they ought to work.

Usually this is due to some eye defect or muscular unbalance.

The Optometrist should be consulted at once, he can tell you what to do.

Your eyes are safe in our care.

Discouraging.

"I want to do some shopping today, dear," said the fond wife "that is, if the weather is favorable. What does the paper say?"

At the other end of the table her hubby, consulting the Morning Wheeler, read aloud: "Rain, hail, snow, thunder, lightning and floods."

A change has been made in the Owl service of the Mt. The soldiers who are to come from Vancouver Barracks to be entertained in Lents homes are due to arrive at the Lents Station at 11:45 a. m., Thanksgiving Day, Thursday the 29th. ADJUTANT GENERAL GIVES INFORMATION

All Drafted Men Must Answer Comprehensive "Questionnaire" to Establish Their Grade.

Portland, Ore., Nov. 22.—Let every man who is registered under the selective service law, and that includes all between the ages of 21 and 30 years, inclusive, pay careful heed to the changes that have been ordered by the Government in the method of selecting men for military service.

These changes affect every man subject to the draft, without exception. The new plan goes into effect on December 15. But on December 1, preparations for putting it into effect will begin all over the United States.

At that time all exemptions or discharges from military service under the draft will automatically be canceled. Exemptions hereafter will be based on an improved system whereby the Government will have exact knowledge of every registered man and his affairs.

The basic principle of the new system is that those men are to be taken first who have no persons dependent on them.

Under this classification come single men, married men whose wives support them, married men who have habitually failed to support their families, or whose families are independent of them for support.

Men in this class will be subject to call first. They will be listed under what will be known as Class 1.

The married men and those with per-

Gilrose.

There is said to be a second deluge out in this district caused by the tears shed over the loss of Mrs. Hyde, the News Editor. Mrs. Hyde has truly endeared herself to this little part of the community and she will not only be missed as an editor and writer, but as a friend and welcome visitor in our homes.

Mr. Sloper is improving steadily and his friend are rejoicing accordingly.

Mr. and Mrs. Minott are the new residents of the Slem place on Gilbert road. They moved in this week.

A very enjoyable surprise party was held at the home of Mrs. Gilbert, Thursday evening, in honor of Mrs. Ager, wife of the principal of Gilrose Public School. About twenty-five were present and a most enjoyable time was had, ending with refreshments.

HIS HOME PAPER KEPT HIM FROM JAIL

(From the Columbia Ohio Dispatch)

There is one man in the United States who will never again say that he doesn't believe the newspapers. He will probably fight any man who says that you can't believe what you see in the papers, for a musty old newspaper saved him from a term in the penitentiary.

This gentleman lives "out West." He didn't register, because he claimed to be young—by something like six months. But the town gossip said he was old enough; they knew exactly when he was born, and they told the government. One old woman said he was born two weeks after her Rachel was born, and Rachel was twenty-two. An old he-gossiper said he remembered the date of the birth, because it was the same week he sold a horse, and that was twenty-one years ago. Still another town historian said it was when they had the big storm on Walnut Run—twenty-one and one-half years ago to the very day. So the government arrested the fellow and he was being tried as a slacker.

An old editor waded into the court room with a bundle of newspapers under his arm. He had been an editor in that town for thirty years, and if ever the defendant was born at all, it was recorded in his newspaper—and the date was correct. So he thumbed through his file of papers, and there it was—"Born to the wife of So-and-So, yesterday, a bouncing boy, weight ten pounds; congratulations John."

That settled it—there it was in the paper. The government said it was satisfied, for the date showed the boy to be less than twenty one, and the court said it was satisfied, for the old newspaper would be taken for the best of evidence. And the old woman and the he-gossiper and the town historian were greatly disconcerted, but not convinced.

LESS SUGAR FOR CANDY BUT NOT FOR BEER

In 1916 the brewers of the United States used 549,810,000 pounds of sugar. We have heard that it is an easy thing to take candy from a baby, and now we know it.

The candy makers are being put on a short allowance. The brewers are using all the sugar they choose.

Possibly if the candy makers would join the German-American Alliance and enlist the support of the Kaiser, their output would not be limited.

Maybe even the baby would fare a little better if he joined the German-American Alliance. That seems to be the only thing that the government is afraid of.

TOWN TALK

Too bad! Mrs. Mason, of Katzky's, failed us this week. No news. We began to think she was going to make a great reporter.

Last Saturday evening, Mrs. Droste of 57th Ave. engineered a very successful "Five Hundred" surprise party on her hubby. No there weren't 500 present, but those who did enjoy the festivities were Mr. and Mrs. M. K. Hedge, Mr. and Mrs. H. Hankins, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde E. Sager, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Katzky, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Katzky, Dr. and Mrs. Ogsbury, Dr. and Mrs. Hess, Mr. and Mrs. John Howe, Mrs. Darnall and Miss Gertrude Katzky. Mrs. Leo Katzky won the ladies' prize, a fine nut bowl and set, while the men's gold handled pocket knife went to H. Hankins. Booby prizes were captured by Mrs. Hedge and Dr. Ogsbury.

The Lents Mercantile offer an elegant inducement to the thrifty house-wife, especially if she has allowed her old washing to accumulate—six bars of Crystal White Laundry Soap for a quarter, Saturday only. Watch our suds.

Some time ago A. S. Pearce bemoaned the loss of his cabbages which disappeared one night. It is astonishing how much sauer kraut there is on the market just now. Lents Mercantile just have a new supply!

Judging by some well known "Sines" "W. S." is going to be mighty thankful about Thursday the 29th. Rumor has it that he is going to get a good "Cook." Bring out your tin cans; come early and avoid the rush.

No need to get run over or dropped from a street car any more to break a leg. W. W. Wakefield of Chesters' Barber Shop demonstrated yesterday that this can be done easily by merely falling off a bike. He was coming to work at noon when the accident occurred. He is now enjoying an enforced rest and Chester has Roy McRobert supplying his place. W. W. goes to the Good Samaritan tomorrow.

Chester has just installed the largest shipment of cigars and tobaccos he has ever handled in anticipation of the Christmas trade.

Mrs. Gulliks and her mother visited the latter daughter, Mrs. Dodge in West Portland Sunday last. Mrs. Dodge has three boys in Uncle Sam's service and the visit was in the nature of a farewell to Clarence, the youngest one, who although only three weeks in the service expected to leave for France that night. The other two boys are Corporal Fred, at Camp Lewis and Corporal Paul, in the Navy, now at Marshfield. The latter expects a promotion to Sergeant any day.

The Ladies of the G. A. R. had inspection night at their meeting last Saturday. The inspection was followed by a fine feed. Next meeting will be election of officers.

D. T. Edmunds and wife of Pacific City, Tillamook County, spent the week with "John D." Mrs. Edmunds is Mr. Donaldson's sister, and he has not seen her for 16 years.

Like most of us Mr. Brugger is making a big bid for business. His latest developments are marshmallow doughnuts and "sponge-top," with being between layers.

Mrs. Camp of 83rd St., sister of Wm. H. Armstrong has visitors this week, her son Freeman Camp, of Oakland, Cal., and his sister from Michigan. They will probably stay all winter.

Dr. McSloy moved his residence Tuesday to the Yott Bldg., adjoining his office. Looks as though "Doc" was planning to keep in out of the rain as much as possible.

Card of Thanks.

We feel it is fitting at this time to express to the neighbors and friends, who have so kindly assisted us during the protracted sickness and death of our mother, our heartfelt thanks, and also to those who so kindly brought flowers, and assisted in other ways in the funeral services.

Who's Susie?

Newspaper men have of course more trials than most folks—we believe that is generally conceded—but it is probably not known to many people that some of the sometimes laughable typographical errors, which occur even in the best regulated newspapers are caused by type being dropped out of the form and put back hastily in not quite the right order. An amusing one has just come to our attention in a large newspaper in Pittsburg, Pa. This paper had a six-column streamer headline right across the front page, intending to say: "Jordan Meets Issue." After about 35,000 copies of the paper had been run it was detected that it read, "Jordan Meets Susie." There is a large fortune awaiting the man who would automatically detect such errors before they got to such a stage.

The war dispatches from Turkey would make good subjects for Sunday School lessons or sermons. Almost every name mentioned is associated with some event in Biblical history or with Scott's romance, The Talisman."
