LENTS, OREGON

NOTICE OF SHERIFF'S SALE.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Multnomah County.

Charles Rehnbach, Plaintiff, vs. W. R. Kirkpatrick and Hazel I. Kirkpatrick, his wife, Eimer C. Van Buren, Louise C. Eisman and Judith M. Joy, Defendants.
By virtue of an execution, judgment order, decree and order of sale issued out of the above entitled court in the above entitled cause, to me directed and dated the 14th day of December 1917, upon a judgment rendered and entered in said court on the 4th day of December 1917 in favor of Charles Rehnbach, plaintiff and against W. R. Kirkpatrick and Hazel I. Kirkpatrick, his wife, Louise C. Eisman and Judith M. Joy, defendants for the sum of $125.00 with interest at the rate of 7 per cent per annum from the 22nd day of November 1917 and the further sum of $100.00 with interest at the rate of 6 per cent per annum from the 4th day of December 1917, and the further sum of $26.15 costs and disbursements and the costs of and upon this writ, and upon a further judgment in favor of Eimer C. Van Buren, defendant and against W. R. Kirkpatrick and Hazel I. Kirkpatrick, his wife, defendants for the sum of $22.35 with interest at the rate of 7 per cent from the 24th day of July, 1916, and the further sum of $25.00 with interest at the rate of 6 per cent per annum from the 4th day of December, 1917, commanding me to make sale of the following described real property, to-wit: All of Lot Eight (8), of Block Two (2), in Stratford Sydney Addition, within the corporate limits of the City of Portland, Multnomah County, Oregon.

Now Therefore, by virtue of said execution, judgment order, decree and order of sale and in compliance with the commands of said writ, I will, on Monday the 28th day of January 1918, at 10 o'clock a. m. at the east front door of the County Court House in Portland, Multnomah County, Oregon, sell at public auction (subject to redemption), to the highest bidder for cash in hand, all the right, title and interest which the within named defendants and each of them had on the 1st day of December, 1917, in the above described property, to-wit: the date of the mortgage herein foreclosed or since that date had in and to the above described property or any part thereof, to satisfy said execution, judgment order and decree, interest, costs and accruing costs.

T. M. Hurlburt, Sheriff of Multnomah County, Oregon.
Dated this 14th day of December, 1917.
First issue, December 27th 1917.
Last issue January 30th 1918.

Miss Eleanita McPherson, daughter of Mrs. Eva Smith of 96th St. was married to Albert C. Borrroughs on New Year's Day.

Miss Nina Peterson, daughter of F. R. Peterson, the druggist, was operated on Monday for adenoids. Last reports are that she is progressing nicely.

Grant Kellogg of Oregon City recently suffered a stroke of paralysis and his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Grant Eugene Kellogg of Lents was called to his bedside.

Mrs. Mary E. Hill, sister of Mrs. Bryant is here from California taking care of Mrs. Bryant, who is ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Hogue.

Rev. E. A. Smith the new Baptist minister arrived in Lents this week and will preach his first sermon to the local congregation Sunday. Mr. Smith has been stationed in Hillsboro for some years.

C. E. Kennedy is leaving Friday morning for Lindville, Lincoln County, Oregon on Alcea Bay, about 7 miles from Waldport. He traded his home and some other property for a ranch down there.

Mrs. Sison, of Idaho, who with her daughter Enid and her sons, Harold and Burton has been visiting her sister, Mrs. J. M. Mann of upper 92nd St. for about a week, left Wednesday for Moscow, Idaho.

Miss Sadie Carlson spent Christmas at her home in Forest Grove. She has in the past been staying with Miss Sara Buell, but has recently moved to 5027 72nd St. She has resumed her work at Franklin High.

We are very sorry to hear that Miss Myrtle Burns a popular young lady of Lents is leaving us. She goes to join her parents at Hoquiam, Washington this afternoon (Thursday.) We wish her a pleasant trip and expect her back on a visit before long.

Carroll Kuntson formerly of 55th St., writes from Seattle this week renewing his subscription and conveying New Year Greetings to his old friends. He is going to Lincoln High School in Seattle and says it is "almost as good as Franklin." It captured the first, second, and midnet football championships for Seattle City Schools. Carroll neglects to mention whether he did his "bit."

Church Notes*Anabel Presbyterian Church.

At the Christmas service of the Anabel Presbyterian Sunday School no candy or nuts were given to the children, as had been planned. Superintendent Tripp presented the suffering condition of the children in the Holy Land and vicinity, to the school and when asked if the children thought they could do anything to help them it was unanimously voted to take the money it would take to purchase a treat for the school and send it to the suffering Armenian children for a Christmas gift. An offering was taken which amounted to twenty-five dollars.

Last Sunday afternoon a group of about thirty young people from the Anabel Presbyterian Church gave a concert and praise service at the Pisgah Home at 74th street and 64th avenue. The affair was under the direction of the Christian Endeavor Society. They were assisted by the Sunday School Orchestra. Rev. John E. Nelson, pastor of the church, accompanied the young people and conducted the devotional services. The old people of the home were greatly pleased, especially with the stirring instrumental music. So urgent was the request of the inmates and management of the home, for a return visit, that the young people promised to pay another visit at a not too distant date.

Friends Church.

The attendance at both morning and evening services are gradually increasing, there being the largest attendance at a regular service Sunday night that there has been since Miss Terrell took up the work as pastor. All the services are evangelistic in character and several made a definite stand for Christ, Sunday p. m. when the pastor gave an opportunity after preaching an unusually impressive sermon.

The Elizabeth Frye Women's Bible Class met Wednesday at 10 a. m. to sew for the war sufferers. At 1 o'clock they stopped all work and spent a time in prayer. All the ladies of the church are invited to come and join in these services.

RURAL ITEMS*Bellrose-Gilbert.

Mrs. Gilbert of Onalaska, Washington visited C. A. Updike, her father, on Gilbert Road during the holidays and returned on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Bates' little daughter, Genevieve has been quite sick with tonsillitis, but is gaining nicely at present.

Mrs. E. Gale returned home from her visit to California and finds herself more in love with Oregon than ever. She reports a splendid visit with old friends and relatives and came home loaded with presents, three grips full. Prominent among them were some ancient, valuable relics one of them valued at $75.00.

Mr. Tozier of Foster Road has leased his place and is selling his stock and intends living in the city.

Mr. Rasmussen of Foster Road has been suffering from illness for some time.

Mr. Smith, near Johnson's, Creek who has been fighting a nervous breakdown is slightly improved.

We beg to correct the report of last week of Mr. E. J. Mahoney's chickens, instead of 200 he has over 400.

The big contract of wood cutting on Mowl hill is showing renewed interest in every respect. Increasing demands are made and better prices paid for lumber, ties and ship building material, so much that a saw mill is to be installed as soon as possible.

A card from Cortes Valentine, one of the Gilbert boys who enlisted early in the war, reports personal sickness. He is confined in Parker hospital N. Y., but is full of hope and cheer and says, "I wish Gilbert a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year." May every reader of Mt. Scott Herald cherish such men in loyal love.

A pound social is to be given at the residence of E. M. Calkins in aid of the pastor, also a gathering to make preparations for the coming evangelist, Captain C. O. Branson and his wife, Friday evening, Jan. 4th.

My! How old Sol said Happy New Year to everybody.

A silver tea is to be given at Mrs. Steiger's on Foster Road, Thursday, p. m. Proceeds for Ladies' Aid.

Mrs. Ainscrough (nee Carrie Steiger) left with her husband for Chicago, where he has been called on business. They expect to be gone a couple of weeks.

Last Saturday Miss Loretta Chapman, of Buckley Ave. entertained a number of her Portland friends with a card party at her home. About twenty-eight young ladies were present. Some of the ladies brought their knitting. Miss Chapman is a teacher in the Lents school.

Miss Marie M. Chapman, of Buckley Avenue will present her pupils in a recital on Saturday Jan. 5th. The program will be held in the Gilbert school house at 8 o'clock. Those taking part are, Ira Haislip, Juanita Rater, Charles Guineas, Vernon Haygarth, Alexander Kerkes, Doris Rater, Mildred Wakefield, Gilbert Beyer, Elizabeth Grant, Olive and Donald Updike, Bernice Kearns, Christabel Gates, Catherine Kelley and Gladys Gilbert. Miss Dagmar Inez Kelley, prominent in social circles in Portland, will be present and render a few selections.

Woodmere.

Mrs. A. J. Wester of 78 Ave. S. E. has been quite ill but is gaining now.

W. S. Sanders, the butcher, of Grays Crossing has rented the Howe building and will run a first class grocery and meat market. All of his friends join in wishing him success as he always greets all with a smile and is always cheerful. He has been in business at the Crossing over six years, his first small store was along the car line after which he moved to his present location where he has established a good business through his cheerful and accommodating ways.

Mrs. Wright of 65th Ave. and 82nd St. received a letter from her son Frank in London saying he expected soon to go to "some where."

Mrs. E. Wester of 68th Ave. and 80th St. is on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Bennett, of 82 St. and 86 Ave. entertained their son, William during Christmas. He is stationed at Mare Island in the government service.

Mrs. W. Douglas of 67 Ave. and 85 St. received a letter from her son T. Stone who is a sharp shooter stationed at Galveston, Texas.

Mrs. R. Smith of 73 Ave. is slowly recovering from her indisposition.

Archie Raush, grandson of Mrs. Dickson of 64 Ave. and 82nd St. returned home from Camp Mills, N. Y. where he was stationed. He did not pass the final examination, so was sent home with three other boys. He says while they had a severe cold spell and wind storm the conditions otherwise were good.

Mrs. McLain of 80th St. got her foot run over recently while Mr. McLain was driving into the yard of their home.

Watson Station

The Christmas and New Year's celebrations in this community were of a patriotic nature and were enjoyed with unusual vim.

A select company watched old Man 1917 make his exit under the chaperonage of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Geisler of 92nd street. Sweet strains of patriotic song and old-time melodies interspersed with instrumental marches and quick-stepped cheered his progress along. Everyone present enjoyed the occasion and dispersed with hearty greetings for the New Year.

On New Year's Night Miss Eggman of 92nd street and 71st avenue celebrated the coming of little 1918.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Headrick entertained the former's brother, Walter, and his bride recently. As Mrs. "Joe" is a rare cook and excels in the preparation of delightful, toothsome, southern dishes it is certain that the guests enjoyed their visit.

This community rejoices in the possession of some brand new newly-weds in the person of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hewitt, who have a neatly furnished cottage near the bride's parents. Mrs. Hewitt was formerly Miss Elva Butler and is well-known as a teacher in the Seventh Day Adventist school and also as a music instructor. Miss Butler changed her name with the calendar on New Year's Eve at the Lents Seventh Day Adventist Church. Features of her wedding were the two small boys who served as ushers and the three wee girls with arms full of flowers who preceded her up the aisle of the church. Her many friends in this community welcome her under her new environment.

Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Schnavely formerly of Lents, the latter a sister of Sidney C. Hays of 71st avenue have moved to Level, Idaho, eight miles from Roberts, where Mr. Schnavely will act as engineer of a large land dredger used in building huge irrigation canals. He will draw a good salary. Level is a newly platted town only containing a postoffice, store and large boarding house for the accommodation of several hundred men who will work on the two large canals and in the erection of an up-to-date city to be built on this site. The new town is to have electric lights, city water, and is already a railroad point. Watch for full details of this embryo city.

The Bumble Bee Club helped the Kern Park Library Fund at their last social dance Saturday night in the hall on the corner of Foster road and 94th street. There was a good attendance, most of the members being present and others sending friends in their place. The proceeds from the sale of the tickets were turned over to the Library Fund.

Mrs. Charles Fisk Gibbins celebrated her recovery from a serious illness by entertaining her mother, Mrs. MacFarlain to one of her justly famous chicken dinners on New Year's Day.

Happy Valley.

Happy New Year! Beautiful sunshine for the first day in 1918, and as warm as a day in May.

Dr. and Mrs. McSloy, and son T. m. and wife, were enjoying a ride in the new Elgin Six automobile over Mt. Scott and through Happy Valley on New Year's Day.

The Red Cross is on, conducted by W. H. Ulrich. He secured $21.00 in a few hours Monday afternoon December 31st and has a few more parties to see.

On Monday evening December 31st the young men of the Light Bearers Class gave a treat to the young ladies of the class, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Zinser. The dining room was beautifully decorated with cedar festoons. The table had a large bouquet of red carnations and white chrysanthemums. The spread consisted of three large cakes with L. B. monogrammed on top, three pies, ice cream, oranges, bananas and a box of candy for each one. There were fourteen present. Mrs. Cora Lennon is teacher. The young ladies will have to go some to beat the boys. Some cooks, those boys!

Great Achievement.

THE TEMPERATURE IS CHANGING so suddenly that you should have the right kind of oil.

THIS OIL SUBJECT is one to which you should give careful consideration. We suggest that you come to our place of business, ask our oil man to investigate the oil that is in your motor, tell you whether it is right—and if it isn't right let him put in the MONOGRAM oil, that is best suited to your needs.

A LITTLE ATTENTION to your motor now may save you many dollars later on. The use of an oil that isn't suited to your engine may cause a lot of trouble.

Consulting our oil man costs you nothing. Drive up any day.
