LOCAL BRIEFS

Mr. Joe Donaldson, wife and baby, from Tillamook, Ore., have been visiting friends here.

Mrs. J. A. Jensen and Miss Evelyn Ross who have been visiting friends here, went back to their home in Florence, Oregon, Tuesday.

A good many ladies of the local W. C. T. U., are in attendance at the County Institute today at the U. B. Church on E. 15th and Morrison.

Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Haysolt, who have been spending the past few months with Mrs. Theodora Fox of 5113 95th street left Wednesday for Beirone as guests of Mrs. E. Ellis.

Mrs. C. J. Holway has been entertaining relatives this week. They include her father, J. F. Barrett from St. Paul, Minn., her brother Joe Barrett of Field Artillery Battery D., 65th Regiment, stationed at Fort Stevens, and F. M. Barrett her brother of 10029, 47th Ave.

Yesterday morning a tiny baby boy came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Stubbs of 6129 94th street. The little chap only weighed about 2 1/2 lbs. and lived but a few hours. Mr. Stubbs was with the Southern Pacific for many years but is now working in the shipyards.

John T. Berry of 9403, 57th Ave., who has been at Fallbridge, Washington for several months returned home Monday night sick with bronchial trouble. Mrs. Berry has also been away and was sent for to look after him. It is expected that he will soon recover under her care.

Mr. and Mrs. Burroughs have let it be known that they are now at home to their friends at 805, Borthwick St. Mrs. Burroughs was Miss Elanita McFeron, and she was married New Year's Day by Rev. Jasper. Her mother is Mrs. Eva McFeron of 5521, 96th St.

Roy Boatwright of 55th Ave. entertained nineteen of his young boy friends to a party Wednesday of last week. Roy has not yet learned the reportorial art so the information furnished us was meagre. We did learn, however, that the eats were good and that the evening was a jolly one.

Mrs. C. C. Barker of 91st St. suffered a painful injury Monday night when she accidentally upset a pot of boiling coffee and scalded her ankles badly. She was assisting in preparing supper for the squad of men who are plastering the Annex of the Friends' Church. She walked home and the doctor was sent for. He assures her that it will be several weeks before she is fully healed as the burn was a deep one. He has ordered her to rest up entirely for some little time.

R. J. Werner, County Agriculturist for Clackamas County was a visitor in the Herald office yesterday. His territory includes Happy Valley, part of Pleasant Valley, and the districts contiguous to Kendall and Watsons Stations so the work he is accomplishing is of interest to many of our readers. He does not know how long Uncle Sam will allow him to remain at his present work for he is classified in Class 1, A and will be one of the first to be called under the next draft.

Albert Tozier, from Dee, Hood River County was in attendance at the Lents Grange Saturday. Mr. Tozier takes an annual vacation of about a couple of weeks and spends it in visiting granges all over the country, after which he goes back to sober work again. He has been a Granger for 40 years. He visited the Pomona Grange of Clackamas just prior to coming to Lents. As an old newspaper man he couldn't keep away from the Herald office; did you ever hear of an old newspaper man who was proof against this particular temptation?

RURAL ITEMS

Gray's Crossing-Woodmere-Tremont.

Mrs. R. E. Thomas and Mrs. F. M. Peters spent a very enjoyable day Wednesday in attendance at Clackamas County Pomona Grange.

Mrs. W. S. Bennett of 82nd St. and 60th Ave. is very critically ill in St. Vincent's Hospital, where she has had to undergo a severe operation, and is not rallying very rapidly, according to last report.

W. S. Sanders has moved his Meat Market to the old Howe store, which is a bright and cheery location. His bright and cheery welcome is very attractive and we surely wish him success in his latest move; he deserves it.

Mrs. F. M. Peters entertained her brother-in-law Dick Hill, who is stationed at Vancouver Barracks.

Mrs. Hogue, who has been on the teaching staff of Woodmere school since it was first built, is compelled to be absent from duty on account of a severe attack of lagrippe.

It is the unanimous opinion of residents of this section that 82nd St. is in bad need of repair. It is at once one of the roughest and most travelled auto roads in Multnomah County.

John Porter of 66th avenue and 82nd street presented Mt. Scott I. O. O. F. lodge with a beautiful service flag, 8x2 feet, with 8 stars; one for every member that has gone to serve his country. They are: Harry Porter, his son, Wm. Anderson, E. J. Heiman, Muriel Tillman, Fay Rayburn, J. Wm.

Steiger, H. O. Retherford, Roy Peterson. Harry Porter enlisted in 1914 and is on the Cruiser Charleston. He has made two trips to France, going with the first troops sent over. Was in South America and the Panama canal for a long time. His time is nearly expired but the young man will serve until the end of the war.

Woodmere Red Cross Unit met in the sewing room of the school, Room 26, for an all day sewing meeting, Tuesday, making hospital gowns, bandages, and joined a wool blanket that was knitted in squares and given for hospital use. Some knitted and all were busy. A light lunch and tea or coffee is furnished those who come and sew all day; they need the support of the community as there is an abundance of work to do for the soldier boys who have gone to fight. Every Tuesday at 10:00 a. m.

Happy Valley.

Surely we should be contented with our lot, even if it does rain every day, when we read the reports in the papers of the weather in the eastern states.

A number of the ladies happily surprised Mrs. C. F. Zinser last Friday afternoon, Jan. 11th, the occasion being her 51st birthday. They report having a jolly good time. Cake and cocoa were served.

C. F. Zinser delivered 140 sacks and Mrs. Paulson 50 sacks of American Wonder potatoes to a buyer in Portland last week, receiving $1.40 a hundred for them. They were choice stock.

The ground is being cleared and timbers have been gotten out for the saw mill on the Buchtell and Moll tract on Johnson creek south of Bellrose station. What timber that will not make lumber will be cut into cord wood.

H. Schuknecht, Presiding Elder, conducted the Communion services last Sunday after preaching an inspiring sermon on the growth of a Christian. A goodly number took part in the services.

J. B. Hutchinson gathered about 50 sacks of White Egg turnips last week. They were sown in September.

Anabel and Archer Place.

A number of the ladies of the Anabel Presbyterian church attended the meeting of the Presbyterial Society of Portland Presbytery, held in the First Presbyterian Church Tuesday. The Sunday School was also represented at the afternoon and evening conferences held in connection with the regular meeting of the Presbytery held in the same church.

Mrs. E. K. Shaw of 3711-76 St. S. E., returned Monday from Amity, where she has been visiting the family of Mr. George Massey. Mr. Shaw and Mr. and Mrs. Massey have an acquaintance of many years, extending back to a time when the two families lived at Brooks, in the northern part of Marion County. Mr. Massey has a farm lying just out side of the northern limits of the town of Amity.

The orchestra of the Anabel Sunday School has decided to meet for practice at the homes of the several members until spring. Upon invitation of Messrs. Horace and Joy Simmons the regular rehearsal was held at their home last week. This week the organization accepted the invitation of Miss Dorothea Neitzel to meet at her home. The young people of the orchestra and Y. P. S. C. E. are preparing a play which they will give in the near future.

At a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Multnomah County Sunday School Association held in the State Sunday School Association's office, room 520 Abington Building, on January 11, plans were made for the County Convention which will be held in Portland, March 26. The former plan of continuing the convention through parts of two days will not be followed this year. There will be three sessions utilizing the entire day and evening. The two day sessions will be given to institute work and a business session, with a pot-luck lunch at noon. The evening session will open with a song service which will be followed by an inspirational address by a prominent speaker.

The church in which the convention will be held will be announced later. In the absence of County President Kelley, who has joined the colors and gone to the front, Mrs. L. C. Wilkinson, Vice President is acting. The following named persons were elected to fill vacancies; secretary, Mrs. C. H. Upton; Elementary Superintendent, Mrs. J. W. Wilkins; Superintendent of Adult Work, Elton Shaw.

The following committees were elected by the Executive Committee: Program, Prof. J. F. Ewing, Superintendent of the First Presbyterian Sunday School; Place of holding Convention, J. V. Guthrie; Registration, Mrs. Dresser, of the White Temple; Publicity, Fred Kelley of the Portland Ad Club; Ushers, church in which Convention is held; Exhibits and Awards, Elton Shaw and J. V. Guthrie.

Mrs. M. A. Danenhower of the State Association is rendering valuable assistance in preparing for the coming Convention, which is expected to be the best one held for a number of years. Detailed information of program, exhibits, contests, awards, etc., will be given later.

Bellrose-Gilbert.

The stork visited Prof. and Mrs. Ager at 6 a. m. the morning of Wednesday the 16th and left a baby boy. All reports are of the best. Congratulations from their many friends in this district.

Captain Branson's talk the 11th inst. to the children of school district No. 45 was deeply impressive and highly pleasing to the children, they particularly enjoyed his military experience and the little drum. He announces another talk to the children the evening of the 18th at the church. The general interest of the community is given to the services which are held every evening in the Bennett chapel. All are most heartily invited.

Sunday at 2:30 p. m. a "heart to heart" talk will be given to men only by Capt. Branson at Bennett Chapel.

Your correspondent wishes to express hearty thanks to the friends in this vicinity who take the trouble to give him items for Bellrose-Gilbert. It is thoroughly appreciated. Let us unite in doing our very best for our homes and loved ones through these darksome days.

The saw mill on Mowl Hill is nearly complete at the present writing. Mr. and Mrs. Scott and daughter, Miss Hazel motored down from McMinnville Sunday to spend the day with the former's daughter, Mrs. Robert Lowe.

Gilbert Athletic Club Basketball team played the Christian Brother's Business College Wednesday, Jan. 16 at the C. B. B. C. gymnasium.

Old Mr. Stork is a queer creature, and one can never tell where he'll land next. Last Thursday he stopped out at J. L. Johnson's and left a fine big heifer calf. J. L. is just as proud as he can be; says the three year old mother is gentle and kind, doesn't kick (wish humans'd take a leaf out of her book) and the wee Jersey is just a "beant."

Watson Station

As an aftermath of the wedding of Ernest Hewitt and Miss Elva Butler some of the young residents of 73rd Ave. gave the newly weds a "nerve restorer" with tin pans, ditto cans, boards, cat-wools and a cornet. The adult neighbors were aroused to such an extent that firearms were used. The din was kept up so vigorously that the serenaders were finally invited in to partake of home made candy, with cigars for the gentlemen. One lady has been sick ever since as the result of being exposed to the heavy downpour prevailing at that time.

Last Sunday the ladies were invited to a "shower" at Mr. and Mrs. Hewitt's.

The six-cent fare does not meet with approval in this district where there is enough to annoy residents already in neglected streets, insufficient lighting, and taxation without adequate returns. Quite a few of the home-owners state that if the six-cent fare prevails Lents, the Southeastern suburb of the great city of Portland will be severely handicapped, as many working men and women who are compelled to take the street car to work will move closer to the business portion of the city. The saving in car fare will help meet extra house-rent. Even some home owners say that it will pay them to lock up their houses and pay rent where they can walk to and from work. As many houses in this district are vacant, the predictions may come true.

The sidewalk on 86th St. S. E. leading from 71st Ave. to the 8th Ave Station, which was built by subscription three or four years ago by permission of the city, but was to be kept in repairs by abutting property owners, is a dangerous condition. It was evidently built of poor grade of lumber, being full of large knotholes, a perfect trap for ladies' high heeled shoes, and being built upon shaky foundations has already caused several mishaps, fortunately not serious. Last week an elderly lady stepped upon a board, the crack in which was cunningly camouflaged. When her weight came on it the board gave way, she made a jump to one side, lost her balance and fell upon her side hurting her shoulder and arm badly and skinning her limbs. Had it occurred after dark the accident would have been more serious.

HURRY THE KAISERLESS DAYS.

My Tuesdays are meatless,
My Wednesdays are wheatless,
I am getting more eatless each day.
My home it is heatless,
My bed it is sheetless,
They're all sent to the Y. M. C. A.
The barrooms are treatless,
My coffee is sweetless,
Each day I grow poorer and wiser;
My stockings are feetless,
My trousers are seatless—
Small wonder I hate that old Kaiser!
