REBEKAHS ARE COMING, HURRAH!

District Convention No. 1 to be Held at Lents, Feb. 18—Mrs. Peterson to Preside.

We remember that a Rebecca of old made a highly adventurous and most momentous journey on a camel once, and as soon as we heard of the coming of the modern Rebekahs to Lents, in spite of the change in spelling, we started to hum, "The Campbells are coming, hurrah, hurrah!" Excuse the poor connection, which modern pronunciation and modern spelling serve to spoil.

Yes, the Rebekahs from 17 lodges, representing the whole of Portland and then some, are to meet in our midst on Feb. 18th. From a community standpoint this is an important affair, anything which recognizes our little suburb as being of importance is important to us. Let us do our best to welcome them. They come on Monday, February 18th, and stay all day. The presiding officer of the Convention is Mrs. Annie N. Peterson, wife of F. R. Peterson of the Lents Pharmacy. Those who are also on the Executive Committee are Mrs. Rose Palmer, Mrs. Rebecca Gray, Mrs. Anna McNeil, Mrs. Lois Rodrick, Mrs. Cora Wright, Mrs. Hyatt, Mrs. Hallock and Mrs. Wyatt.

This is Mrs. Peterson's first task as Chairman of Convention No. 1, as she was elected to this office a short time ago.

The convention opens at 10:00 a. m. and there will be afternoon and evening sessions also.

WILL BE HOME IN SIX MONTHS

Millard de Wolfe Writes to His Friends for Tobacco.

"SOMEWHERE IN FRANCE," Jan. 5th, 1918. My Dear Bunch—This is a very cold Saturday afternoon, in fact the thermometer said ten below zero. We are in fairly comfortable quarters, and I am very well except for an awful cold.

Now, people, for the love of Mike send me some tobacco, no not some—lots you know; Camels and either Prince Albert or Tuxedo, and rush it through for it will take at least two months to get it from now and I am almost out. Don't be sparing.

Will be home in six months.
Love to all,
Millard de Wolfe, Company E.

P. S. Will write you a real letter after we are paid!

LORIN C. JORDAN.

Lorin C. Jordan of 7030, 54th Ave. died after a lingering illness, a week ago Monday at the Portland Sanitarium. Funeral services were held at the Millard Avenue Presbyterian Church last Friday. His father and sister came from Kallispell, Montana to the service and took the body back with them. Mr. Jordan leaves a wife and one son, Paul a boy of fourteen. They have been six years in Portland having come to this city for Mr. Jordan's health. He improved for some time, but for a year or more has been slowly declining. He formerly conducted the Millard Avenue Meat Market. He was an elder in the Millard Avenue Presbyterian Church and will be greatly missed.

ARMENIAN PROGRAM AT ARLETA SCHOOL

Five S. S. Unite in Presentation.

The entertainment in aid of the Armenian relief work given at the Arleta school Monday evening was a pleasing success. Five Bible schools of the community took part in the program.

The musical part of the program was mostly by the Millard Avenue Presbyterian S. S., the Junior choir of that school under the direction of Prof. J. A. Hollingworth, gave two special songs, besides leading in the patriotic songs sung by the audience. Three Intermediate girls from the Methodist school gave a patriotic song, and Mrs. Whitman of the Baptist school rendered a solo.

Members of the Baptists (and of the Congregationalists) gave "Stories from Bible Lands," and "Armenia's Appeal to America" was given by the Kern Park Christians, the leading part being taken by Hazel Cartozian. Rev. Brackenbury, the Methodist gave a short patriotic address, and "America" by the choir and audience closed the program.

SUSAN C. BRYANT.

With the passing of Mrs. Susan C. Bryant in her 72nd year not only this community, but the whole state of Oregon, loses a valuable citizen. Born in Indiana Dec. 22, 1846 Susan C. Davis became Mrs. Abner M. Bryant in 1865. Her husband was a minister of the Presbyterian church, and at one time President of McPherson Normal College, Nebraska. Her husband died twenty-one years ago. There were eight children, five of whom are dead; the living are Mrs. M. B. Hogue of Lents, W. C. Bryant of Moro, Oregon, and Mrs. Jessie Moyer of Falls City, Oregon. They came to Oregon in 1888, and settled in Falls City. For the past ten years Mrs. Bryant has made her home the greater part of the time with Mrs. Hogue. C. W. Davis of Lents is her brother.

She died at 4:30 Saturday afternoon, Feb. 9, and was buried Sunday afternoon at 2:00 from Kenworthy's Undertaking Parlor. Rev. F. M. Jasper preached the funeral sermon, and services were also held by the W. C. T. U. and the ladies of the G. A. R. Mrs. Adah Wallace Unruh, and Mrs. Ward B. Swope spoke on behalf of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of which Mrs. Bryant had long been an active worker.

HORTON-WRISLEY.

Miss Randalin Wrisley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Wrisley of 9231, Foster Road was married to Lester V. Horton at the home of Rev. Cash, Pastor of the Grace Baptist Church, Montavilla, Wednesday Feb. 6th. Mr. Wrisley is known to all Lents residents as the genial janitor of the Lents School. The young couple will make their home at Montavilla where the bridegroom now resides. He is in the employ of the Constantine Market as a meat cutter. It is rumored they are going to start out right and buy themselves a home of their own. Best Wishes!

Card of Thanks.

The occasion of the loss of our dear mother, Mrs. Susan C. Bryant has taught us anew the value of real friendship and we desire to extend our thanks to all of those who helped us bear this recent trial. We are especially grateful to Brother Jasper, Mrs. Ada Wallace Unruh, Mrs. Ward B. Swope and the other ladies of the W. C. T. U. whose kindly tributes to mother are greatly valued.

The Stake Holder.

Jack (pushing into papa's room): "Papa, the coffee pot and the kettle are singing."
Papa: "Nothing strange about that, my boy."
Jack: "But they are singing for a wagger."
Papa: "Nonsense!"
Jack: "But I can prove it."
Papa: "How?"
Jack: "Because the frying pan is in the middle holding the steaks!"

Eunice Knew How.

Little Eunice was attending her first class in domestic science, and was asked to tell briefly the surest way to keep milk from souring. And Eunice, who was an exceedingly practical child, gave this recipe: "Leave it in the cow."

LENTS LISTENS TO T. R.'S DOUBLE

Wilson T. Hume Holds Audience Till Late Hour as he Talks of Six Cent Fare.

There were over 200 people present at the meeting held under the auspices of the Lents Improvement Club Monday night to listen to Judge McGinn on the Jitney and the Six Cent Fare. The Judge, unfortunately, was not yet sufficiently recovered to be present in person, but that rare thing happened that so seldom is the case, the substitute fully satisfied all who were present. Wilson T. Hume, former prosecuting attorney for some years, was the substitute speaker chosen, and his personality, appearance, and delivery were so Rooseveltian that many dubbed him T. R.'s double. Certainly his speech was forceful, clear, and he never once lost the attention of his audience.

Mr. Wilson stated that the jitneys had not been voted off the street. A Bonding ordinance was passed requiring them to put up a $2500 bond. This would not have stopped them. A Mayor was then elected who refused to recognize any bond except those given by a certain surety company; that company steadfastly refused to grant any bonds to jitney drivers—hence no jitneys. Mr. Hume declared that the P. R. L. & P. Co. knew all about it, and purposely fooled the people, purposely elected their own mayor, and when they gave a receipt simply said in effect, "Thank you, we got your six cents."

Mr. Wilson stated that an ordinance would be presented to the voters shortly to open the door for private parties or corporations to operate jitneys. He ridiculed the idea of granting a motor vehicle a "franchise." "What rights do they have for the franchise that every motor vehicle does not enjoy?" When a street is torn up and rails are laid it is a different thing.

When he declared that now that the Government had taken over the Railroads there was no need for a Railroad Commission and that that commission should be abolished there was much applause. He apparently referred to the Public Service Commission, for a later remark showed that, once this was done these public utilities such as Gas, Telephone and Electric light could not go to the commission and plead near bankruptcy and get permission to raise their rates.

Mr. Hume stated that there were very few accidents caused by the jitneys when in operation, and that police records showed that during that time 49 out of 50 automobile accidents were caused by private machines rather than by jitneys.

Applause was also given when Mr. Hume announced that he was going to take this case to the Circuit Court and if necessary to the Supreme Court—and would feel that he could fight the case better if he felt the people were behind him.

Dr. O. A. Hess presided in the absence of A. D. Kenworthy the President, who was unable to be present on account of sickness.

REASONS FOR FRANCE'S MORALE

Free Translations of a Few Mottos Circulating in France.

We are in receipt of a dainty little pocket calendar from one of the "boys" in France. It is entitled "Calendrier de France." It is about an inch and half by two. It contains some inspiring little French mottos which it may be expected will be of much assistance to the French morale and perhaps the spirit therein expressed accounts in large measure for the wonderful pluck and spirit of the French troops. Here are some samples with a free translation: "Donnez pour la maison detruite et pour le berceau renverse"—Give for the sake of the destroyed homes and overturned cradles. "Marche a la guerre pour ton devoir et sois vaillant pour toi-meme."—March to war as a duty, but be brave for your own sake. "La plus belle vertu francaise, c'est le courage."—France's greatest asset is courage. "La France c'est plus qu'une armee, c'est une formidable famille."—France is more than an army, it is a united family to be feared.

PROMINENT PEOPLE ATTEND GRANGE

Open Session of Lents Grange Sees Excellent Program.

There was a large attendance of members of Lents Grange at their regular monthly meeting in the Oddfellow's Hall on Saturday morning. Visitors from Evening Star, Woodlawn, Russellville, Pleasant Valley and Rockwood Granges were also present.

T. J. Kreder was installed as Master, being absent in Colorado at the regular installation meeting.

After the usual noon banquet, which was of course well attended—who ever heard of a Granger's feed that wasn't?—the new lecturer, Wilson Benefield took charge of the open session, which commenced at 1:30. Master Lyle Peters gave a vocal solo with his mother at the piano; Miss Johnson a vocal solo, and Master Percie Gates a violin solo with piano accompaniment by Miss Chapman. W. H. H. Dufur, Master of Woodlawn Grange gave a very long and interesting talk, and Superintendent of School Alderman gave an interesting talk on the education of children. He said there were twelve schools in the city which were open every evening for adults. He expressed himself as being in favor of all public schools being used for such purposes, for adults could always learn something, besides teaching English to foreigners. Judge Morrow also spoke and Professor Krouse of the Oregon Agricultural College gave a timely and interesting demonstration of fruit tree pruning. Others were present and took part, among whom were Mr. Lewis of Rockwood, and Mr. Scott of Sherwood, in fact the Grange was unusually fortunate to have so many prominent people present at one time.

PATRIOTIC ENTERTAINMENT

BY ARLETA W. C. T. U.

At Arleta School Friday Evening.

A special treat is promised all who are able to attend the Patriotic Entertainment to be held by the Arleta W. C. T. U. in the Arleta School tomorrow (Friday) evening at 8:00 o'clock. The speech of the evening will be made by Attorney W. A. Burke, and a special attraction will be some vocal numbers by Anita Loise Hall, who recently sang in the Portland Auditorium. Perhaps the greatest attraction, however, will be the drill representing the allied nations, when children will be dressed in suitable costumes and carry the national flags of the allies. There will be a small admission fee. Mrs. Merry is the President of the Arleta Union.

MOTION PICTURE LECTURE POSTPONED

Lecture on Bird and Animal Life Will be Given Feb. 17 at Anabel.

The lecture upon bird and animal life illustrated by motion pictures, which was to have been given by State Biologist Finley, under the auspices of the Anabel Presbyterian Sunday School on the evening of February 3, was postponed on account of the cold weather but will be given Sunday evening, February 17, beginning at 7:40.

MILLARD AVENUE CHURCH HOLDS SPECIAL MEETINGS

Rev. A. L. Hutchison, D. D. Evangelist.

The Millard Avenue Presbyterian Church commenced a series of special meetings last night, to last two weeks. The Evangelist is Rev. A. L. Hutchison, D. D., Pastor of the Piedmont Presbyterian Church. A special feature of the meetings will be the music which will be in charge of Prof. J. A. Hollingworth.

What She Forgot.

Miss Decorous had made a special study of biblical history, and she addressed the Sunday school class thusly: "Now, children, I have told you all I can concerning the nations which were driven out by the Israelites. They were the Hivites, the Hittites, the Jebusites, the Perizzites, the Girgassites and, let me see—yes, the Amorites. Can you remember them all, children? Now you look puzzled, Rosie. Have you any questions?" "No, teacher," came the shy reply, "except that you haven't told us about the flea-bites?" Pearson's Weekly.

BULLETIN BOARD VERY ATTRACTIVE

128 Names Now Adorn Honor Roll Bulletin Board at Lents. More to be Added Later

Much interest has been manifested at the bulletin board which made its appearance on Eggman & Tobin's lot last Monday. At first it only contained 95 names, but this morning another 33 were added making 128 in all. There are still a number of names for which there was no room. It is proposed to interline the names and add more as they come in. The list was secured by F. R. Peterson, and is intended to cover all those who enlisted from Lents itself, counting as far west as 82nd St. There are many others in the Mt. Scott district and it is hoped that the down-the-line folks will undertake a similar effort in their district. It is too bad that parents living here whose boys enlisted from some other part could not also have their son's name appear. Perhaps this can be managed—ask "Pete." Those who were added this morning follow the names as they appeared last week. Following is the complete list:

ADOLPH E. BUSCH.

Tuesday afternoon witnessed a very large funeral from the undertaking parlors of A. D. Kenworthy & Co., when the friends of Adolph E. Busch gathered to pay their last respects to him. Mr. Busch was only 24 years old, a painter by trade and lived at 3615, 64th St. S. E. with his father L. Busch. Mr. Busch was an American, but his parents were born in Denmark. They are members of the Lutheran church and the pastor of the St. James' Lutheran church, Rev. W. E. Brinkman, preached the funeral sermon. Interment was in Mt. Scott Park Cemetery. Mr. Busch had been sick about a year previous to his death which occurred Friday, Feb. 8.

LENTS RESULTS IN LIFE SAVING WEEK

Local Churches Co-operate With Life Savers in Raising Armenian Funds

The result of Life Saving Week for the distressed, starving and dying people in Armenia has been highly gratifying. The quota assigned to Portland last week this territory was assigned to E. L. Barnes, and he reports that in Lents the total reached $145.00. The greatest credit is due Rev. Jasper of the Methodist Church and his assistants for the greater part of this showing, they having raised $117.50 of the $145.00. We have a distinct idea in our minds that Mr. Jasper did pretty nearly all that was done, but mention should also be made of Mrs. Armstrong, Mrs. Cleland, Miss Martha Isler, Miss Dora Dunbar and Master Roy Boatwright who all gave some time to the work. The notice was very short, as the campaign closed Monday and workers were not notified until Saturday morning in some instances. The first notice given was Thursday night.

FRANKLIN HIGH.

"Oh! why don't they kill us and be done with it!" exclaimed a poor sufferer from Franklin—a person who thought at least that he was a sufferer. "I suppose they will want us to carry the building in our arms next," exclaimed another. Such were some of the remarks made by the students who were not enthusiastic over the new system of government. The study halls have been established and the pupils instructed to keep their books in the lockers in the future but the locker rooms are closed from 9 o'clock until 12:30 and as a result the books to be used in the morning have to be carried around by the students. The study halls are to aid the students in their study. Heretofore the students were compelled to study in rooms where other classes were reciting or go through red tape and get a library permit. The new system is to advance the use of the study periods.

An interesting assembly was held Tuesday, February 12, in honor of Abraham Lincoln's birthday. Musical selections were rendered by Mr. Walsh and a double quartet from the Glee Clubs. Judge Charles G. Berton spoke on the life-character and work of Abraham Lincoln.

A story writing contest was announced by George Freyberger, editor-in-chief of the Post. The contest will close March 14. Prizes of money will be awarded, ranging as high as $5.00.

Mr. White, the newly-wed business manager of the Post came forward to back up the editor but when the audience broke out in loud applause he calmly announced, "I'm not thinking about what you are."

Miss Johnston, head of the Franklin Red Cross work told that the Franklin knitting was to be shown at the Red Cross exhibit soon to be held at Meier & Frank's store. At present Franklin is the envy of the other schools as it is the only high school that can obtain yarn for knitting. Hurrah for Franklin!

Yesterday another victory for Franklin. After a very hard fought game at the Washington High gymnasium the Franklin Basketball team defeated the Christian Brothers Business College by 24-21. For a long time the issue was in doubt, and Christian Brothers led the score for a good part of the time. Those who distinguished themselves for Franklin were, Thomas, Tucker, and Thompson. It seems to pay to have a name beginning with a T. Amburn was banished for losing his temper, but a foul was called for from his opponent.

Circular Attacks Kaiser.

A copy of a broadside forbidden in Germany has reached the Committee on Public Information. It is a single sheet of foolscap size, printed on both sides, and bears a coarsely executed woodcut representing a soldier in arms, a workman in a blouse, and a woman shoving a rock off a precipice, beneath which is seen the head and bust of the Emperor, crowned and sceptered and moustached, looking up in terror at the late impending. The last paragraph of the text is as follows:

"Man of toil, awake from slumber! Recognize thy growing might. All the wheels will lose their motion Without thy strong arm's devotion. Down with the war! Down with the Government! Peace! Freedom! Bread!"—Government War Service.
