This Is Our Winter of Test

SERVING food is a local problem for each community. Prices and definite rules for every one cannot be formulated. It is a duty for each one to eat only so much as is necessary to maintain the human body healthy and strong. This winter of 1918 is the period when it is to be tested here in America whether our people are capable of voluntary individual sacrifice to save the world. That is the purpose of the organization of the United States Food Administration—by voluntary effort to provide the food that the world needs.

Chronicle of Weekly Events in Arleta and Kern Park Varied and Full of Interesting Doings

Mr. Wolfard of Arleta is very ill. Miss Ruth Parsons of 7820, 55th Ave., entertained her cousin Miss Josephine Killduff of E. 7th St., Saturday evening. Mrs. W. Rittel of 6604, 71st St. S. E. was hostess to a party of friends Sunday. They included her sister Miss Scheider, and Mr. and Mrs. Miller from West Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. Autenreith from Oregon City.

Mr. Murphy has moved into the house at the corner of 45th avenue and 74th street, that was formerly occupied by his son. He has made numerous improvements, the last of which is a poultry yard and chicken house.

J. A. Teeny of Kern Park has been away for about three weeks in attendance at the Syrian Convention at Williston, N. D. He returned Friday. Needless to say he found the climate of Oregon delightful upon his return.

Mrs. Jennie Gilmore came in from her home near Sherwood, on Tuesday, to care for Mrs. B. A. O'Mealy of 3810-78 St., who is confined to her bed by an illness very much resembling pneumonia, but which has not yet been pronounced such by the physician.

G. W. Snider who has been confined to the house and a portion of the last two weeks to his bed by an injury caused by a fall received while employed at the Inman-Paulsen lumber mill, returned to his duties Monday. While Mr. Snider has not fully recovered it is thought he will be able to perform at least a portion of his regular work.

J. C. Cook, of Tremont recently received word from his baby brother (six foot something!) inclosing a newspaper clipping and photograph. He is in the aviation corps at Camp Dodge and is not only the official photographer for the Camp Dodge, the official camp publication, but is also the official aeronautic photographer, and literally takes "bird's eye views."

Mistakes.
When a plumber makes a mistake he charges twice for it.

When a lawyer makes a mistake, it's just what he wanted, because he has a chance to try the case all over again.

When a carpenter makes a mistake, 'tis just what he expected, because the chances are ten to one he never learned his business.

When an electrician makes a mistake, he blames it on "induction," because nobody knows what that is.

When a doctor makes a mistake, he buries it.

When a judge makes a mistake, it becomes the law of the land.

When a preacher makes a mistake, nobody knows the difference.

When a printer makes a mistake—but who ever heard of such a thing!

Laurelwood Methodist Church

Friday evening, Feb. 8, the Laurelwood Methodist Church gave a rally and dinner (dinner mostly)—for who can rally much under such conditions. Everyone was happy for there were three long tables full of people. It was a very interesting gathering, for there were prominent speakers on the program. Rev. W. W. Youngston, the District Superintendent of the Methodist Church was present. Dr. W. T. Lane, pastor of the Centenary Methodist Church, spoke on "Tithing." Attorney E. A. Baker, connected with the "Anti-Saloon League," told the W. C. T. U. ladies that there is lots of work to be done. O. C. Bortzmeyer spoke on "The Duties of People to Support the Church."

Anabel Presbyterian Church.

On Wednesday evening the monthly dinner and workers conference of the Anabel Presbyterian Sunday School was held at the church. As many of the ladies of the congregation spend this day each week at the church doing Red Cross work it was found to be more convenient to hold the S. S. meeting on Wednesday evening instead of on Monday evening as has been the custom heretofore. An unusually large number attended the conference and enjoyed the excellent dinner prepared by the committee composed of Mrs. F. N. Taylor, Mrs. Elton Shaw and Rev. Mrs. Jno. E. Nelson. Among the interesting reports listened to was one made by the S. S. treasurer showing that all obligations of the school are paid and a substantial balance is in the treasury. The Home Department of the school has been reorganized and placed under the leadership of Mrs. Hogg. A committee composed of Mrs. J. H. Wakefield, Miss Bessie Hogg and Rev. John E. Nelson was named to work out the details of a plan whereby each quarter's lessons shall be reviewed and the outstanding features more indelibly fixed in the student's minds by written tests. The school is preparing a program entitled "The Spirit of 1918" to be rendered at a patriotic service which will be held on February 24, the Sunday nearest the birthday of Washington. This service will be a combined service of the Sunday School and church and will be held at the time of the regular morning church service.

Last week the orchestra of the Anabel Presbyterian Sunday School met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Smith of 4820 47 St., S. E. for their regular practice and a social hour. While a few of the members were absent on account of sickness a very profitable rehearsal was had, following which refreshments were served by Mrs. Smith and daughters. A very pleasant evening was spent and the members of the orchestra wish to thank Mr. and Mrs. Smith for their hospitality, and will be glad to go to the Smith home again.

The young people of the Christian Endeavor Society are planning a novel entertainment to be given at the church on Friday evening, February 22, at eight o'clock. The affair will be chiefly musical, and is called "An Evening at Home," representing a typical gathering of the young people at the home of one of the members of the society. In the opening scene Miss Norma Dryden meets a group of her friends upon the street; they accept an invitation to spend the evening at her home and the following performances show how the evening was spent: Trombone and cornet duet, "Over The Top," Messrs. Floyd Duffield and J. V. Simmons; Piano Duet, "The Stars and Stripes Forever," Miss Norma Dryden and Miss Marie Anbel; Vocal Solo, "Though Duty Calls," Miss Cherry Coney; Trombone Solo, "All the World Will Be Jealous of Me," Mr. Floyd Duffield; Reading, selected, Miss Maribel McKittrick; Violin novelty, "Pop Goes the Weasel," Mr. J. V. Simmons; Cello solo, "Melody in F" Miss Lera Wadley, accompanist, Miss Garnet Johnston. Members of the Sunday School orchestra and others will assist in an informal way in making the evening's entertainment a success.

Schools and the Treasury.
The tremendous effective national service that the schools and school children of the country can render is being availed of as fully as possible by the Treasury Department in its work. In a great number of schools Liberty Loan clubs have been organized, and many bonds also have been purchased by individual pupils. The War-Savings campaign is endeavoring to have a War-Savings club established in every school in the country, and organized and individual effort is to be stimulated in every way.

Secretary McAdoo has said that he would like to see every schoolhouse in the United States an open forum, where patriotism and loyalty are taught, and a center of national service in its community and among its pupils and patrons. The school as a medium to reach the people of the rural districts is of especial value.

The world is so full of good things to eat we really can spare the meat and the milkmen."

ARLETA W. C. T. U. NOTES.

The regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. was held at Luckey Cottage. Mrs. Merry presided. Mrs. Merry's share of energy is so large, and there is so much to be done, that she can't find the time to be sick. The Arleta W. C. T. U. accepts the invitation of the Editor of The Herald, to send in W. C. T. U. doings with thanks.

The Union is planning an apron sale in March, to help out in the State work.

A very interesting article was given in the "White Ribbon Review," by Lucia Faxon Additon. She was one of the delegates at the 44th annual W. C. T. U. convention which was held at Washington D. C. She reports a very interesting time, it being the largest convention ever held. There were nine hundred delegates and one thousand visitors. It was a meeting to be remembered, as there were many prominent people there. Dr. Harvey Wiley spoke on "Patent Medicines." Mr. Hoover's representative spoke. Edison's wife was there and her message was "99 per cent Work, 1 per cent Enthusiasm." We folks usually have it 99 per cent enthusiasm, 1 per cent work. Secretary Daniels attended the reception of the W. C. T. U. Mrs. Anna B. Shaw, the Suffragette leader and W. C. T. U. worker was also there.

"Business As Usual"?

Pointing out that never before in history has an understanding of the simple principle of economics been so sorely needed, a committee of eminent economists engaged in the study of the purchasing power of money in war time, issued today its first public statement.

After exhaustive investigation this committee has reached its conclusion unanimously. It would impress upon us the imperative need of a reduction of consumption and an increase of production, of the repression of non-essentials, and the promotion of organization and redirection of industry.

"In meeting the great national readjustment to war conditions," the committee says, "we must not let our 'business-as-usual' impulses prevent the needed saving and shifting of industry, lest we pay a terrific penalty in higher cost of living and national inefficiency."

The committee finds the public confused and vacillating between two economic philosophies—the simple, direct, old-fashioned, correct philosophy of saving and working and the fallacious philosophy, best epitomized as "business as usual." "One of our greatest perils in the future lies in further credit expansion," the committee says, "and this peril comes largely from our lending by borrowing." The committee points out the right way and the wrong way to lend money to our country. "The right way," it says, "is the frank and honest way of saving up the money by spending less or earning more; the wrong way is the at first cheap and easy, although ultimately costly and painful way, of lending the Government what we borrow at the bank."

"By giving up nonessentials to buy Government securities," the committee further says, "we allow the Government to buy war essentials and at the same time release productive energy from the making of nonessentials for us to the making of essentials for the Government."

"But," it goes on to say, "if we won't make the needed sacrifice and perhaps delude ourselves into believing that we do not have to do so or even that we ought not to do so, that, on principle, we favor 'business as usual' for ourselves while expecting business unusual to be superadded by the Government, we simply go through the motions of giving our billions to the Government without really giving them up. Therefore the Government, in order to buy away from us what we will not otherwise surrender, bids up prices, and the rise in prices which comes about through this sort of lending is cumulative."

"As the prices of war supplies rise the money cost of war grows and the Government has to borrow more. Bigger loans by us to the Government require bigger loans to us from the banks. This further expansion of bank credit favors a further rise in commodity prices, starting the whole process over again in a vicious circle."

This committee is made up of Prof. Irving Fisher (chairman), of Yale University; Prof. E. W. Kemmerer, of Princeton University; Prof. B. M. Anderson, Jr., of Harvard University; Dr. Royal Meeker, United States Commissioner of Labor Statistics; Prof. Wesley Clair Mitchell, of Columbia University; and Prof. Warren M. Persons of Colorado College.

"Typographical errors," said William Dean Howells, "are always amusing. When I was a boy in my father's printing office in Martin's Ferry, I once made a good typographical error. My father had written, 'The showers last week, though copious, were not sufficient for the millmen.' I set it up 'likemen.'"
