LENTS BRIEFS

Lester Smith, eldest son of Rev. E. A. Smith of the Baptist church is ill with the measles. Wonder if they're the made in Germany kind?

Emery Webb and Harry Burnham are the latest to recruit from Lents, both in the Aviation Corps, the former to the Navy and the latter to the chauffeur department.

The Royal Neighbors Club of Lents met at Mrs. C. S. Miller's home, 4710 73rd St., on Tuesday and did Red Cross work for the Woodmere Unit. They had a jolly good time and were royally entertained.

The W. C. T. U. will meet Tuesday of next week at the home of Mrs. Jannet Gesell, 6119 89th St. S. E. This will be a business meeting at which the press and literary work of the union will be taken up.

Lents' patron saint—the stork—doesn't seem a bit scared of the undertakers for he left a fine big 10 lb. boy at the home of George Snipes 9216 58th Avenue. “George” is A. D.'s chief aide de camp.

W. H. Kiekenapp called at the Herald office this week to renew his subscription. His son Wm. Kiekenapp is with the Harbor Patrol Force located at Santiago, Cal. He sees no indication as yet of his being transferred to France.

Miss Madge Tamplin of 5322 82nd St., who has been confined to the house for some weeks is reported as being somewhat improved. Her friends hope that with the bright sunny weather she may fully and speedily regain her health and strength.

Two subscribers have recently called at this office and paid up subscriptions overdue since 1915. Under such circumstances The Herald has no alternative but to continue the subscription without working a hardship upon those who appreciate the paper.

Mrs. Elizabeth Brown and Gordon Mann are new assistants at the Herald commencing with this week. Mrs. Brown was formerly assistant to Mr. Darnall and will help in the front office. Gordon is getting an intimate and close acquaintanceship with printer's ink and “pie.”

F. R. Peterson is proudly displaying his certificate as a bonded agent of the Government for the sale of war savings stamps. Mr. Peterson applied to the government for an agency back in December before the W. S. S. drive commenced. His certificate arrived a short time ago.

A good many people think Marvin Hedge is pretty mean. He announces that the winner of a $10 name for his new paper will not be made public till next week. He pleads business is so rushing that the extra work of carefully going through the pile of names submitted could not be completed in time for this week.

The Royal Neighbors of America gave a Martha Washington party in their lodge room at the I. O. O. F. Hall on Wednesday evening, Feb. 25th. All the ladies wore old time costumes and a jolly good time was enjoyed by all. Vocal and instrumental music was rendered and all went to their homes rejoicing and looking for more good times to follow.

Mrs. Freeberg the Supt. of the work among soldiers and sailors urges that all members bring materials for the Red Cross work being done by the Union. Old and partly worn table and bed linen and other worn household linen or clothing that can be used for bandages, trawcloths, bed socks, etc. All those who are interested in this work are invited to be present.

Church Notes

Anabel Presbyterian Church.
On Friday afternoon March 1, “The Gleaners” of the church held their regular monthly meeting at the home of the pastor, Rev. John E. Nelson, 5525 37th Ave. S. E., with a large number of ladies present. Mrs. George M. Reed, Home Mission secretary of Portland Presbytery addressed the ladies. Special music for the occasion was rendered by Mrs. Nelson and Mrs. Beaumont. The meeting was in the nature of a birthday tea. A small bag containing in rhyme, an invitation to place in the bag a penny for each year of age and come to the birthday tea was sent to each “Gleaner.” As a result the society realized about $20.00, which sum will be used to increase the missionary gift of the society. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Mrs. Jas. Marsh; vice president, Mrs. Jas. Hogg; Secretary-treasurer, Mrs. A. W. Johnson; secretary of literature, Mrs. W. H. Ferris, Jr.

Methodist Church.

Evangelistic services are still in progress at the Lents Methodist Church. Rev. J. H. Irvine, who is conducting the meetings, is a very earnest speaker, and inspires his hearers with a desire to try out the promises of God, and to prove his power to work through human instrumentality which is consecrated to him.

The burden of Rev. Irvine's talks is that the church has drifted away from first principles. He appeals to the Christian people to get back to the New Testament standards, and not to think that the power of a church depends upon a prophet. It is to the body of believers that the promise of the Holy Spirit was given, and where there is a body of believers who are ready to meet the conditions they may have the power to do great exploits for the Kingdom of God. The Church has been too much wrapped up with methods, new fangled evangelistic programs which have been well intentioned, but have come to naught. Back to Pentecost, is his appeal.

Sunday will close the series of meetings that have been in progress. Rev. Jasper will preach in the morning, and in the evening Rev. Irvine will conduct the closing service which we believe will be a season of blessing. Rev. Jasper goes to St. Johns Sunday evening to launch the first service of a series of meetings which will be conducted there.

There will be no meeting on Saturday evening.

Baptist Church.

Services Sunday, March 10, at the church, between Foster Road and Woodstock Ave. on 88th St. Sunday School at 9:45, Mrs. A. M. Randolph, Supt. Morning Service at 11 a. m. Theme, “The Pauline Attitude Toward the Second Coming.” Young People's Prayer meeting at 6:30. Evening Service Evangelistic. The theme will be, “A Goodman and His Two Bad Boys.” Prayer meeting on Thursday evening. Church rally and banquet. This is a laymen's meeting. The slogan is, “Over the Top.”

Evangelical Church.

The attendance last Sunday was about an average audience and the speaker, Rev. Burget did not disappoint his hearers. He is the prepared kind of preacher. No report has yet been received as to who will speak next Sunday, but we are assured we shall not be disappointed, as an able man will occupy the pulpit.

Wednesday evening the executive committee of the Y. P. A. had a very interesting meeting at which important matters, pertaining to the welfare of the society, were considered. Next Tuesday evening the regular Y. P. A. business meeting will be held. Place announced next Sunday. Good time provided.

Friends Church.

The revival meetings which closed Feb. 24, resulted in several additions to the church. The meetings were a great blessing to the church as a whole and to many individuals in particular. Many of the Sunday School scholars were saved and all the departments of the church have taken on new life and inspiration.

The Bible Training Class, after a 3 weeks vacation, owing to the special meetings that have been in progress, resumed its lessons this week with a good attendance and an interesting lesson. The subject this week was “The Intermediates,” to be continued next week beginning with the paragraph “Spiritual Developments.”

The Ladies Sewing Class continued without intermission throughout the meetings except that when 2:30 o'clock arrived they went as a body into the afternoon meetings.

The Sunday School Superintendent, C. C. Barker, who has been employed at American Lake all winter has returned and will resume his duties as Superintendent. Everybody is rejoiced at his return.

Portland Quarterly Meeting will be held in the First Friends Church this week beginning with the meeting on Ministry and Oversight, Friday 2:30 p. m. The program follows: Friday, 7:30 p. m., “Systematic Giving;” Saturday, 10:30 and 2:30, Devotional; Saturday, 7:30 p. m., Business Session; Sunday, 2 p. m., Bible School Rally; Address, Rev. J. D. Sprinton; Music by First Church Male Chorus, 5 p. m.; C. E. Rally; Doctrines of the Church; Ordinances, Rev. H. L. Cox; The Holy Spirit, Rev. L. M. Terrell; Special Music.

Millard Ave. Presbyterian Church.

The Millard Avenue Y. P. S. C. E., will hold their monthly business meeting at the home of W. H. Amos, on Friday, March 8, 1918 at 7:30 o'clock. All members are urged to be present as the election of officers will take place.

Free Methodist Church.

Regular meetings are held each Sabbath afternoon at 3:00 p. m., with preaching by the pastor, Rev. Mrs. Mary Hillis. Sunday school precedes the service, being held at 2:00. The public is invited to both services.

KING ARTHUR'S VOW.

We suggest the formation in every camp and association to be known as “20th Century Knights”, who shall take the oath that Tennyson puts into the mouth of his Knights of the Round Table:

“To ride abroad redressing human wrongs

To speak no slander, no, nor listen to it, To hold his own word as if his God's, To lead sweet lives in purest chastity, To love one maiden only, cleave to her, And worship her by years of golden deeds.”

Perhaps some of the newly made officers of the medical reserve corps might be called to Washington to stop the epidemic of investigation that has broken out there.

Judge George W. Stapleton, candidate for the Republican nomination for Circuit Judge, Department No. 4, to succeed himself.

Judge Stapleton began the practice of his profession at Goldendale, Wash., in 1886. In 1890 he moved to Vancouver, Wash., and practiced law until 1898, in which year he moved to Portland where he has been following his profession until 1917, when he was appointed to the bench by Governor Withycomb, left vacant by Judge Davis, who resigned to enter the army. Judge Stapleton has served as mayor of Goldendale, Vancouver and Gresham. His career as a public officer has been clean and above reproach.—Paid Adv.
