LENTS BRIEFS

Miss E. W. McLucas of the Lents Branch Library is ill with the measles.

W. Y. Richmond and family spent Sunday with friends at Gladstone.

Dorothy, little daughter of Al. Boland, is quarantined with the measles.

Mrs. Joseph Ferrence has been ill for some time at her home 7209, 83rd St. S. E.

Mr. and Mrs. Marsetti have moved into their home on 86th St., built a new garage and otherwise improved the property.

The 147th Field Artillery-Auxiliary, Batteries A and B will give a card party and dance, W. O. W. hall, E. 6th and Alder Sts., Saturday Mar. 16th. Admission, 30 cts., war tax included.

As we go to press the news comes to us that R. S. Hummel of 64th Ave., who has been in ill health for some time, is very low and not expected to last much longer.

Mrs. W. A. Burns, of Hoquiam, Washington, who has been visiting her daughter, Miss Edna, of 5920 90th Street, returned home to Washington Thursday.

A familiar sight in Lents again is Mrs. Reynolds, of 65th Avenue, and her twin boys. They have been away for several months. They are renewing old acquaintanceships.

Miss Lurana M. Terrell, Pastor of the Friends Church, left Monday for Salem where she is conducting a series of revival services in the Highland Friends Church.

Kelly Butte started up full blast Monday with 23 men on the job. They are getting ready for the demands that will be made on them for material in connection with road building plans.

F. W. Berger, a newcomer to Lents, agent for the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company of Hartford, was a visitor to the office Tuesday. If he can secure a suitable home and the business outlook is encouraging he plans to locate here permanently.

Sherman Harkson, of the State Bank of Portland, has been elected assistant cashier of the Multnomah State Bank and will take up his duties Monday. This is a new position, as the increase of business has made it imperative for Mr. Boyd to have additional assistance. One of the very best and most conservative indications of a permanent improvement in business conditions.

C. H. Kessler, one of the Marine Guards at the Federal Wireless Station, was the lucky winner of the $10 prize offered by Marvin Hedge for a new name for his trade boosting publication. While we are glad to congratulate Kessler, we take severe exception to Marvin's judgment—it's poor. Our wife turned in about a couple of dozen names and to our certain knowledge they were all of them in Class 1, A. But then, they say you can always tell a Hardware Man—but you can't tell him much; too bad.

Local Roadmaster W. M. York, of 5530 31st Avenue, recently heard from his boys, Edwin L. and James W., that they were leaving Ellis Island for parts unknown. The only address they have for them is in care of Receiving Ship, Ellis Island, New York. The boys recently spent about a week at home, and although they knew at the time that they would shortly be moved they did not have the courage to break the news to the home folks. Mr. York conjectures that they may be on their way to Liverpool, and perhaps for service with the Asiatic fleet, wherever that squadron is now.

Church Notes

Baptist Church.
Services at the church Sunday, Mar. 17th, E. A. Smith, Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. Mrs. A. M. Randolph, Supt. Morning service at 11 a. m. Theme, "The Atonement." Young People's Prayer Meeting at 6:30. Evening Service, 7:30 p. m. Theme "What One Must Do to Be Saved." Prayer Meeting Thursday evening. A cordial invitation to everyone.

The Baptist Rally Friday night was a splendid success. Dr. C. A. Woody, District Supt. of Home Missions, Dr. Thos. Stevenson, State Director of Laymen's Movement, Rev. F. C. Laslette of Prineville, Ore., Mr. Phegley and Mr. Bartlett, business men of Portland, Mr. Whitman of Arleta and Mr. Gifford were out and each made telling talks on the theme, "Going Over the Top." The church then raised its annual budget plus 20 per cent. The ladies of the church served a splendid banquet which was enjoyed by both visitors and local friends.

some inspiring sermons, and although the visible results were not manifest, the spiritual life of the church was quickened, and we are sure that the regular church work will take on a better tone throughout the year.

The work of the Boy Scouts is forging right ahead. A number of new members have recently come in, the old members are getting more pep, and folks are sure to know that there are Boy Scouts in Lents. Mr. John Howe is now acting assistant Scout Master, and he likes his job.

Special music will be provided for the services next Sunday. There will be a few numbers from our excellent mixed quartette, and Major Repp will bring a friend from the city to sing for us in the evening.

Subject for Sunday morning: "Five Steps to Christ." For the evening service: "A Comment on the Message of Paul Rader."

Friends Church.
The Pastor will be away for the next two weeks, being engaged in a special series of meetings at the Highland Friends Church, Salem. During his absence the pulpit will be ably filled. Next Sunday Rev. F. M. George, our Quarterly Meeting Evangelistic Superintendent, will occupy the pulpit. He is full of the Spirit and no doubt will give us a good message. Clifford Barker will have charge of the prayer meeting
