REFORMED CHURCH.

The services on Palm Sunday were of unusual interest. A catechetical class of six young people, who during the past six months had been instructed in the doctrines and duties of the Christian religion, were catechised and confirmed before a large congregation. Ten new members were received into the church. The church was fittingly decorated with palms and lilies and the choir rendered special music. Good Friday will be observed by an appropriate service at 11 a. m.
On Easter Day Holy Communion will be administered at the morning service. The catechumens will receive their first communion. The choir will sing special Easter music.

UNCLE SAM'S TEN COMMANDMENTS

President Wilson is about to sign a bill which takes its place in history as the most liberal legislation in protection of a nation's fighters ever known. It is good enough, strong enough to be called the National Ten Commandments, and is, in effect, thus:

- Thou shalt not evict, for non-payment of rent, a soldier's dependents, under penalty of $10,000 fine.
- Thou shalt not cut off a soldier's life insurance because of delayed premiums.
- Thou shalt not foreclose a mortgage on a soldier's property.
- Thou shalt not take away a soldier's home on which he has made part payment.
- Thou shalt not sell a soldier's property because of his failure to pay the taxes, national, state or local.
- Thou shalt not settle a law suit against a soldier during his absence.
- If a soldier sue, the courts shall postpone action until he can attend to it.
- If a soldier have a mine, or timber or farm claim, assessments on which are overdue, it shall be held for him.
- Honor thy soldier and thy sailor, that thy days may be long in the land of liberty.
- No man hath greater love than he that offereth his life for the world's sake, and it is commanded that neither lawyer, nor the loan sharks, nor the gatherers of tithes shall fatten on him.
- Congress is content to call this bill a civil rights bill. It's the divine rights bill.—Washington Herald.

Valuable Misinformation.

Deer folks: Now I know why editors go mad. I ben trying to run this paper while the editor is on his vakashun. For three (3) days and nites I ben reading questions and trying to answer them, and if I don't quit I'll be going around talking to myself. I'm going to answer a few more then go to the ball game.—(Jimmie, the office boy.)

1. What is limberneck? (J. Jones.) Limberneck in the country is a strange disease of fowls and chickens. In the city it is a disease of human persons caused by watching fowls—and chickens.
2. Do small cows give condensed milk? (Mabel B.) No, Mable. Condensed milk is made by trying to get a quart of milk into a "quart milk bottle."
3. Please tell me how hash is made. (W. M.) Hash is not made. It akumulates.
4. Is it right to feed hogs corn-in-the-ear? (G. K.) No. Put it in the trof and let them help themselves.
5. I am in love with a homely girl who works for us but she don't seem to care for me, while a pretty girl with lots of money wants to marry me. What shall I do? (Will M.) Marry the one you love and send me the name and address of the other one.
6. My hair is beginning to fall out. What can I get to keep it in? A sack.
7. Please tell me how to raise a nice fat hog of about 500 pounds. Get a derrick.

Well Answered.
A British officer who was inspecting the line in Flanders came across a raw-looking yeoman.
"What are you here for?" asked the officer.
"To report anything unusual, sir."
"What would you call unusual?"
"What would you do if you saw five battle cruisers steaming across the field?"
"Take the pledge, sir."

Your days work. Do you dread it? Do you finish it with tired eyes and aching head? Or maybe you don't really finish it, just manage to stay on the job till the bell rings?
Defective, overworked eyes are continually sapping nerve energy and depleting your working forces.
