Growth of Nails.

It has been estimated by a scientist that in a lifetime of 70 years a man grows nails which, if it were possible to preserve them uncut, would reach the length of seven feet nine inches.

GARDENS AGAIN.

It is necessary that civilians should endure some privations in order that they may have food for our allies and for our own soldiers, but it is of the utmost importance that the civilian population should realize that "Uncle Sam" expects it to take care of itself also. Gardens will do as much if not more than anything else to keep the soldier abroad and the citizen at home well fed. Every boy and girl ought to plant a garden and make it a source of pride and profit.

A rank growth of weeds becomes an asset when plowed under before they make seed.

If soldiers are willing to serve in the trenches, to dig ditches, build railroads, and risk their lives, many civilians can well afford to spare a part of their time to serve in the furrows and in the harvest fields.

"How many fish have you got now?" was asked of an urehin on the river bank.

"Well," drawled the youngster, hopefully, "when I get the one I'm arter and two more, I'll have three."

RURAL ITEMS

Happy Valley.

Old Dobbin's day of usefulness seems to be coming to a close, even in the rural districts. What, with tractors and flivvers, can Dobbin apply himself to now?

Zinser Bros. are the proud possessors of a jittney of the Lizzie type.

Mrs. Van Horn is also a late purchaser of a Ford.

Beautiful Easter morning was surely appreciated by the large gathering of young and old which assembled at the little church to take part in an Easter program. After the choir had rendered a few selections the little folks took part with recitations and dialogues. In all it was an enjoyable service.

Last week Mr. and Mrs. Joe Spady received a jolly bunch of young people bent on surprising them. We said "received"—we should have mentioned that they were first awakened from peaceful slumbers. Surprises are almost as frequent here as on the German front.

Mr. Chas. Rebstock and Charlie Henderson have rented the Phillips place and are applying their teams this week as their own lazars are hardly ready for the plow.

J. E. Deardorff hauled several truck loads of tile for August Geppert last week. August is planning to conduct that surplus moisture out of his ground in muchus pronto time.

Pleasant Valley.

Frank Croncher, of Olala, Douglas Co. is visiting friends in the Valley this week. He was a former resident of this place.

Leland Moor, of O. A. C. visited at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Moor over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Leiner and daughter, Miss Grace of Portland visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Moor, Sunday.

Cherryville

April started in like a lion.

Rain Monday and sleet on All Fools Day.

Good Friday and Easter Sunday were the finest ever known by the writer in any state.

"When the war is o'er, we'll fight no more at Bingen on the Rhine."

Little Sammy Ruyman, one of the school boys here, belongs to the Junior Rainbow Division as he has sold $50 worth of Thrift Stamps.

The pupils of the Sandy High School made a drive up to the mills above us last week and sold $100.00 worth of Thrift Stamps and war certificates.

The German Lutherans at Sandy have agreed not to teach the German language at their school any more after a visit from the Sheriff of the County.

The sudden flop of the Colliers Magazine, a weekly publication with over a million subscribers, from a critic of the Administration in war matters to a friend and admirer, is remarkable. They say—in an article by the Editor, Mark Sullivan—that the work of the Navy Department has been extraordinary and that the way the soldiers have been fed and clothed deserves all praise. No embalmed beef nor sending men into fever camps nor the fearful blunder of sending troops into the Tropics in heavy winter clothing like was done in the Spanish-American War were known. This article says the new American Army, already over 1,500,000 men is the best paid and best fed army ever known. It predicts that this country is the greatest world power ever known in all history.

Belrose Gilbert.

Easter spirit seemed to touch all. Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Mahoney, after attending morning services spent the day in Vancouver with Mrs. Mahoney's sister, Mrs. E. F. Kelley. Mrs. C. H. Bateman and Mrs. A. A. Rindie visited the graves of their late husbands at Mt. Scott and Lone Fir cemeteries. Afterwards Mrs. Rindie and her brother, J. Ambler had dinner with Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Johnson.

Harold Coates, aged 74, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. Coates of Lenox avenue died on Monday, April 1, at 4 p. m. Funeral services were held Wednesday April 3rd, School District No. 745 closed its doors during the funeral.

Orylle Cons, who lived on the Farnsworth place, intends returning to his old home.

A. F. Swanson and family have moved back to their own home on Lenox avenue.

Mrs. D. C. Maybee of Gates Road and Park Drive has leased her place to Mr. Peterson.

Red Cross work of this district was organized Dec. 6, 1917. Mrs. Wm. Ewold, chairman of the Unit; Mrs. H. H. Haygarth, chairman of Sewing Committee. To date April 1st they have made 60 bed shirts, 18 pajama suits, 12 coats, 12 water bag covers, 34 sweaters, 25 pair socks. They meet every Wednesday afternoon at the home of Miss Pauline Shuman on Foster Road. An urgent, cordial invitation is hereby extended to all. Come and help in the good work.

By the kindness of Mrs. E. D. Hurrle we have report from England and its conditions at the homes in the war times. Namely, "the rich and poor alike stand in line for hours to get sugar, tea, butter, bread, oleomargarine and then turned away without any. Later, these and lots of any kind are almost impossible to get. "We are now to be rationed 2 oz. butter and 2 oz. oleomargarine, 1/2 lb. meat per week; apples, a shilling a pound; oranges four pence each; eggs six pence each." These items which were taken from the letter which Mrs. Hurrle received from her sister tell us between lines that we in America do not know what war really means yet. May we be spared from the knowledge.

Mrs. Roy Datson and her little daughter, Lorraine of Treadwell, Alaska, who have been visiting their aunt, Pauline Schuman on Foster Road, returned to their Portland home Tuesday.

Belrose, Gilbert, Ramapo and Wilson units of the Red Cross are giving a tea at the home of Mrs. Frank Ferris on E. Foster Rd. Thursday Apr. 11th. The proceeds will be used for purchasing necessary materials for the sewing. Everyone is cordially invited to attend.

Political News-Letter.

By F. J. Kupfer.

It is conceded by apt students of the political history of the state that in the final analysis, the candidate receiving the largest number of votes on the east side will be nominated. The east side as a rule polls sixty-five per cent of the vote of the city and no matter whether the candidate has a majority on the west side, it will invariably be submerged by the votes on the east side, and in many instances by overwhelming majorities. Hence it is up to the candidates to make the greatest efforts in the way of publicity in covering that territory. A word to the wise is sufficient.

D. C. Lewis, Father of St. John's baptism into Heavenly Portland, and also law-maker and law-repairer, when wanting to illustrate a certain point, will invariably—and possibly unconsciously—intertwine in his remarks something like this:—

"For instance, now if you see it from the right angle, it's alright, but if you see it from the left angle it's all wrong."

Now if you see him from the left angle, how can you see him from the right angle? And at that, he may be right.

Gus Moser, candidate for the Republican nomination for governor has shown in the past that he appreciates "good" publicity.

To him as well as others in the same line of business—running for public office—it is customary to reciprocate. Many publications in their respective fields are willing to extend the hand of reciprocity with their large circulation, and it is to their interest—the candidates—to not hold the bag until its too late.

When a man is born in a community and continuously resides there until he reaches middle life, it is the people of that community who are best informed as to his character and fitness when he announces himself as a candidate for public office. This test of character is well illustrated in the case of Louis J. Simpson, who is seeking the Republican nomination for governor, as the citizens of Coos Bay have almost unanimously risen to his support, and this is what he is and has done to their own personal knowledge after a life long acquaintance with him:—

North Bend, Ore. March 2, 1918.

To the Editor:—When a man is a candidate for public office, the public likes to know what his neighbors think of him.

I have known Louis Simpson for many years. He is a man,

He has been engaged in large business affairs and employed many men, and every man who ever worked for him will vote for him.
He owned and laid out the townsite of North Bend and sold thousands of lots and many buildings to people who were poor, or in moderate circumstances, and he never crowded a debtor in his life.

He is always a leader in every public enterprise that means much work and no pay.

His name is at the head of every subscription list, but his giving is mostly in secret. It is nothing uncommon for Louis Simpson to send a load of groceries to a poor family in sickness or distress.

He has given his entire time for many months to the Red Cross and war Relief work, and Mrs. Simpson has done likewise. They closed up their beautiful home at "Shore Acres" in order to move into town and give their entire time to this work.

Simpson is a man whom his neighbors delight to honor. He has great executive ability, is broad minded, energetic and human. If he has an enemy in the world I never heard of him.

Those who know him best, like him most. He will make a good governor. ARSTIN S. HAMMOND.

Walter M. Pierce, of La Grande and State Senator has announced himself as a candidate for the democratic nomination for Governor.

His slogan is "Organization of Oregon for the Winning of the War." He is a farmer and cattleman, is married and has a family of six children. Has been School Superintendent and County Clerk of Umatilla county and elected as State Senator in 1916 from Umatilla and Wallawa counties. In a nutshell, his platform supports President Wilson and his policy in conducting the war, to alleviate labor conditions, organizing Oregon to win the war, better roads and highways for military purposes, in favor of National Prohibition and woman suffrage.

Charles A. Johns, well-known attorney of this city has announced himself as a candidate for the Supreme Bench on the Republican ticket. He was admitted to the bar in 1881 and began practicing his profession at Dallas, Oregon. In 1888 he moved to Eastern Oregon where he entered into the practice of law and six years ago came to Portland where he since resided and has been actively engaged in his profession. Mr. Johns is married and has three children, one of his sons is with the American army in France.

A. W. Orton has been given leave of absence for an indefinite length of time, so that he can give more attention to his candidacy for the Republican nomination for Circuit Judge, Dep't No. 4.

Benjamin P. Perkins is a candidate for County Commissioner. John H. Holton, member of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America is a candidate on the Republican ticket for Labor Commissioner. He says that this is his first political move and he has "loads" of experience in mill and factories and knows something about labor conditions.

Mark W. Peterson, constable, has made his announcement for the Republican nomination for re-election. He stands on his record as a guarantee of efficiency and economy and conducting the office in an "up-to-date business manner." Mark is honest, faithful and courteous at all times.

Judge Robert G. Morrow announced his candidacy for re-election to the position of Judge of Department No. 2 of the Circuit Court on the Republican ticket. He has held the office of Circuit Judge since 1912 and in all that time has never been reversed in a criminal case. The Judge is an "old timer" having lived here since 1883. He has three brothers in the service of the government, one of them being now in France; one just returned from the far east and the other one ready for foreign service.

It is with regret that we must disappoint the readers this week, as regards the candidates running for the legislature. In last week's issue, we stated that we would give a biography of those who have announced themselves. It seems that so few of them have come out in the open so far, and some of those who have decided to make the contest are not yet catalogued in any of the volumes we mentioned. Consequently we are obliged to wait until the last volume, of the last named author—which will be in three volumes in mouse color leather and bound in red tape—is issued from the press and which is promised to be ready for the public April 12.

No more liquor can be made in Denmark during the war. What about the U. S. A.?
