United States Senator

CHAS. L. McNARY

Because Charles L. McNary has been good as United States Senator from Oregon, he should be nominated as Senator in the Republican primaries on May 17.

Price Fixing to Prevent Profiteering

Realizing that the present Food Control Law fails to fix prices on many necessities of life, Senator McNary has introduced and is working strongly for a bill extending price fixing to a large number of commodities. Explaining its purpose Senator McNary said:

"During the consideration of the Food Control Bill I took the position that the law, to be effective, should be comprehensive in its application to prevent profiteers from gaining control of those commodities not coming within its operation. This Bill, if it passes, will correct some of the wrongs now practiced upon the producing and consuming public. This measure empowers the president to fix the price of petroleum and its products, hides and skins and their products, such as shoes, hemp, jute, cotton and wool and their products, such as for example, clothing, and also on wheat substitutes, corn, rye, barley oats and the products or joint products (or products of two or more) of said materials. Also on live stock and its products. Farm implements and machinery are also included. Unless a change of policy is made it is inevitable that the price of wheat substitutes will advance until actual suffering will come upon many people."

Nominate McNary Senator

Paid Adv. Committee, Portland, Ore.

Judge George W. Stapleton, candidate for the Republican nomination for Circuit Judge, Department No. 4, to succeed himself.

Judge Stapleton began the practice of his profession at Goldendale, Wash., in 1886. In 1890 he moved to Vancouver, Wash., and practiced law until 1898, in which year he moved to Portland where he has been following his profession until 1917, where he was appointed to the bench by Governor Withycombe, left vacant by Judge Davis, who resigned to enter the army. Judge Stapleton has served as mayor of Goldendale, Vancouver and Graceland. His career as a public officer has been clean and above reproach.—Paid Adv.

Great Wheat Stocks Isolated.

It's the shortage in ships that is putting the Allies and the United States on wheat rations. Great stocks of wheat are isolated in India, and Australia. At great sacrifice in ship space and use the Allies are forced to secure some wheat from Argentina.

On January 1, Australia had stored 100,000,000 bushels of wheat that was ready for export—but there were no ships. Then came the new crop with an exportable surplus of 80,000,000 bushels. Now Australia has approximately 180,000,000 bushels waiting for ships.

India, at the same time, had 70,000,000 bushels of wheat stored for export. During April 50,000,000 bushels more out of the new crop will be added to the pile.

Argentina closed the last shipping season with 11,000,000 bushels of wheat left in the stock available for export. The new crop will add 135,000,000 to the left over.

It is not a problem that the wheat does not exist in the world—it is entirely a problem of shipping, which has thrown on America the obligation of dividing our stock with the Allies.

ALLIED FOOD SHIPMENTS REACH LARGE TOTAL.

A general idea of the quantity of food sent to European allies by the United States from July 1, 1914, to January 1, 1918, is given by figures just announced by the U. S. Food Administration. In that period the United States has furnished complete yearly rations for 57,100,933 people. In addition there was enough extra protein to supply this portion of the diet for 22,194,570 additional men.

The total export of wheat and wheat flour to the three principal allies is equivalent to about 384,000,000 bushels. Pork exports for the 3 1/2 years amounted to almost 2,000,000,000 pounds. Exports of fresh beef totaled 443,484,400 pounds. The amount of food exported to Russia is negligible compared with that sent to the western allies.

"A GOOD MAN TO WORK FOR IS A GOOD MAN TO VOTE FOR"

A SLOGAN chosen by the many men who have worked for

L. J. SIMPSON

The Highest possible endorsement. The most rigid test that his policies, practiced over a period of twenty years, are sound, just and efficient.

The best possible proof, that his pledge to the citizens of Oregon are not mere "words," but "words backed by works."

Those who know him believe in him, believe in his ability, believe in his policies. They know he will give Oregon a clean, impartial, businesslike administration. They know it to be true, absolutely.

WHY?

Because—

In nineteen years he has employed 21,000 men. He has always paid good wages.

He never had a strike or a personal injury suit.

He built many homes "on time," never foreclosed a mortgage or sued on a promissory note.

He has helped many laboring men to acquire their homes, their business and their livelihood.

These workers, who know him best, have endorsed him to a man, have adopted the above slogan, and that's "why" he is "Your kind of a man for Governor."

L. J. SIMPSON, (Republican)

Paid Ad. Issued by "Simpson for Governor League," 411 Belling Bld., Portland, Ore.

Why is Oregon's Self Appointed Boss Afraid of Stanfield?

Believing that the Republican voters of the state of Oregon would not look with favor upon Oswald West naming the Senatorial candidate for the Republican party.

And inasmuch as I have received many thousands of letters and other assurances from the Republican voters assuring me of their support, I must respectfully decline the proposal of Mr. West that all other candidates withdraw and give a clear field to C. L. McNary.

I feel that I have the confidence of the Republican voters and the people of this great state that I will serve them honestly and efficiently as a Senator and at this critical time they are inclined to support a man from the business walks of life. Oswald West has heretofore asserted that he only desired to be a candidate that he might oppose me if I should be successful in defeating McNary in the primaries.

His interference is intolerable to me, as I believe it is to the Republican voters of the state, and I will welcome the opportunity to oppose him in the general election if he should be successful in defeating his Democratic opponent, Mr. King.

R. N. Stanfield.

Mr. Stanfield makes the above reply to the proposal of Oswald West that all candidates for senator withdraw in favor of Mr. West's candidate. The whole activity of the democratic machine in attempting to stem the tide of dissatisfaction against their candidate now in the senate is laid bare in this last supreme attempt of Mr. West to bolster up a forlorn hope.

The question is do the people and the Republicans want this sort of bossism in Oregon, or do they want 100 per cent Americans and 100 per cent Republicans such as Mr. Stanfield, a successful energetic, patriotic self-made man whose every act has added to the progress and growth of Oregon, a man who gets result, accomplishes something, who has worked and knows how to work, and who will work.

Stanfield is 100 per cent American and 100 per cent Republican and he would support the President in winning this war.

Which do you want? A man who can stand on his own feet, or one who cannot?
