REID AND TROY DRAW BIG CROWDS

Open Air Services at Liberty Board
Corner Prove Great Success—
Great Meeting Sunday

Evangelist Reid and Singer Troy are having large crowds at the Evangelical church. Every night has seen added interest. Singer Troy is growing in favor nightly with both the audience and the chorus choir. His sole work is a delight to all, as is the chorus work of the large choir. The orchestra of several instruments gave zest to the meetings. Dr. Reid is preaching with great power and tenderness. The open air meetings at Liberty Board corner are growing in popularity. Rev. F. M. Jasper, as constructing engineer, with Rev. E. A. Smith as chief hod carrier, with two or three other brethren to help, built a platform on Liberty Board corner, and covered the same with canvas, where large crowds have gathered to hear the singing and speaking. The use of the lumber for the platform was very kindly donated by the Rice, Kinder Lumber Co.

Sunday night saw the Evangelical church taxed to its capacity. The local expense account was met Sunday evening, and there will be no more evening offerings. Mr. Carr of the Friends church raised the money. He was so genial and happy in his manner, that he made people feel that he was doing them a favor to permit them to have a part in it.

Dr. Reid preached a wonderful sermon and many expressed a desire to take Christ as a personal Savior. These meetings will continue throughout the week. Open air meetings every night at 7:30. All welcome.

FRANKLIN HIGH

Hark! Hark! the Freshies are coming! Silence reigned for some time, then the Freshies began appearing in the doorway. Such contrasts. Some were so small their heads were scarcely visible thru the glass of the doors. (The drinking fountains may have to be lowered yet.)

In Mr. Hoskin's Science 4 class, two of his students, one Senior and one Soph, lost themselves in the grand rush, and were carried out into the hall by the throng, but were gallantly rescued by said Mr. Hoskin. 'Twas such a noble deed!

The teachers were very obliging, and didn't hear of anyone taking the elevator, altho they longed to do it.

We welcome the Freshies quite heartily, and hope they may enter our halls of learning next year.

The girls gym classes entertained the "would-be Freshies" with relays and various stunts.

This event all took place Monday, May 13th. It is being whispered rather loudly around that the orchestra will entertain at an assembly sometime this week.

Wednesday, May 13, 1918, some of the first and second-year students will participate in a declamatory contest. This work was taken up last term, but dropped for a time, to be taken up at the present time.

Red Cross Proclamation

Citizens of Oregon, Greetings:

TRIBUTE TO QUAKER UNIT WORKING IN FRANCE

Red Cross Official Writes Commendation for Work of Friends

"We have hitched up our dispensary with the Quakers who are working in Paris, and outside it, for refugees, in a spirit not equaled on the whole by any group I have seen out here. They work with their hands, build houses, help with the plowing, do plumbing work when plumbers are unobtainable, sleep in quarters that others find too hard, save money everywhere, and because they know what simple living is, are the best of case workers in city charities—never pauperizing, never offending.

"They work in the true religious spirit, asking no glory and no position; sharing the hardships they alleviate, and earning everywhere such gratitude from the French that the government has offered to turn over a whole department to them if they will undertake all the work in reconstruction there. Others working here in France have friends and enemies; the Friends have only friends, and I hear only praise of their work, and can give only praise from what I have seen.

"So I was more than delighted to have them move their office and working force bodily into our dispensary. However dark, crowded or noisy it may get as we go on, I wager the Quakers will never complain. That isn't their way. My, but they are refreshing folks! The English and the American Quakers work together and with the Red Cross admirably!"

The above tribute was sent to Friends headquarters in Philadelphia by a Red Cross official in France.

Are You Twenty-One?

Portland, Ore., May 15.—Registration of the young men of Oregon and other states who have reached the age of 21 years since last June 5 will be required on a day soon to be set by proclamation of President Wilson.

This day will be fixed by the President as soon as Congress enacts the necessary legislation, now pending. That is expected to be very soon.

In the city of Portland, which alone comes under the 30,000 classification, Mayor Baker will have the responsibility for these preparations. As was the case last June 5, the registration is to be completed in a single day.

Every young man who has attained his 21st birthday since last June 5, for his own protection, should keep well posted as to the day fixed by the President for the registration, for ignorance of the registration date will not be accepted as an excuse for failing to register.

Newest Devices of Surgery For Our Wounded Soldiers

Nitrous Oxide and Fluoroscope at Hand to Give American Wounded All Chance in World.

The best is none too good for the wounded American soldier. That is the Red Cross idea. The minute science finds an improvement in surgery it is adopted in the Red Cross army hospitals, which are models of up-to-the-minute completeness.

This fact is vividly emphasized in a recent news dispatch from Reginald Wright Kauffman, author of "The House of Bondage." Kauffman had been allowed to accompany a badly wounded friend into the operating room.

"Come on," said the interne; "your friend's in there. He's about played out; can't stand chloroform or ether. Get to give him nitrous oxide."

"I knew that for a patient whose resistance has been diminished the difference between the old anaesthetics and this new one is frequently the difference between life and death, but I also knew that nitrous oxide is not on our army list and that no supplies existed a year ago in France."

"The Red Cross has put up a plant here," explained the interne. He opened a door. Bill lay on the operating table, and the surgeons were at work. "They're after that abdominal wound," the interne told me. "They're working with the fluoroscope."

"Above Bill's upturned feet and about a yard away stood an X ray apparatus. Its flesh piercing light fell on a disk of metal that an orderly held over Bill's bared waist. The violet rays passed through the disk and into the patient's abdominal cavity. The surgeon's eyes followed them through the metal and into the flesh. His knife plying fingers worked under the disk and deep in the wounded man's belly. He cut with that solid plate for a window.

"He can see what he's after before he gets started," my guide exclaimed. "and if he overlooks any shell fragments there is a magnetic contrivance that sounds a buzzer when he gets near them."

"It would be all right, they told me. Thanks to the fluoroscope and the nitrous oxide, a stay here under treatment and then a rest at one of the Red Cross convalescent camps by the seaside would fit Bill for a return to the trenches."

THE EMBLEM OF HUMAN MERCY

By SAMUEL GOMPERS

The Red Cross is an emblem typifying human mercy and sympathy. Its mission to relieve physical pain and minister to mind and body has given it a place deep in the hearts of all our people. For those whose dear ones are in places of great danger it is a comfort to know that the American Red Cross is performing more effective service on a larger scale than ever before.

In addition to serving our enlisted forces, it is assisting in the work of civil relief among our allies whose soil is being devastated by the fighting.

Thus the Red Cross is helping to interpret the constructive spirit of our Republic which holds sacred human life and the ideals it seeks.

As time goes on the scope of the work of the Red Cross in Europe will increase in order that the organization may meet the demands that will be made upon it. It must receive the full and hearty support of the American people. It is only through such an agency that we can be assured relief and necessary ministrations to our young men forming our military force.

It is my sincere desire that adequate funds will be secured for the work of the Red Cross.

EARLY LENTS RESIDENT DIES

Thursday morning, May 9th, Norman Draper was found dead on the floor of his home on 86th St. An examination resulted in the verdict that his death was caused by heart disease. He had been cared for by Mr. J. Brandimore, 8614 Woodstock Ave., for the past four years, and for fifteen months of that time had been a helpless invalid; however, of late, he had been able to be about, and his death came as a great shock to his relatives and friends.

He was about 72 years of age, a native of Jackson, Mich., and had been a familiar figure about Lents for a number of years. He had owned considerable property in this community at different times, being a former owner of the corner where the real estate office of Wiley & Allen is now located, and a store on the carline later occupied by Frank Miley. Immediately before coming to Lents he was a prominent stockman and landowner of Wasco County.

The funeral services were held on Monday, May 13th, at Pearson's Undertaking Parlors, Union Ave. and Russell St. Interment was in Mt. Scott Park Cemetery.

Bread and Jelly.

Thirty thousand cans of jam were sent overseas in one Y. M. C. A. shipment for American soldiers over there. There were 412,000 packages of biscuits also, a necessary adjunct.

"War Of The Roses"

While there will be no Rose Festival, yet there will be as stirring a battle of the "Whites" and "Reds" as the Yorks and Lancasters ever knew. It will be a bitter, cold and merciless struggle for existence. The plum to be awarded will be leading Red Cross honors in the Second War Fund of the American Red Cross.

Following a suggestion by Robert H. Strong, the teams in the "City Center Campaign" will be divided into divisions—the "Whites" and the "Reds." The "Reds" will wear red roses and the "Whites" white roses.

City Chairman Wilbur E. Coman is already facing the problem of "Red" leaders, trying to use business affiliations to induce "White" captains, lieutenants, sergeants, corporals and privates to desert color and vice versa.

The novel idea of reproducing the medieval war of the Roses in twentieth century Portland has created immense enthusiasm among Red Cross leaders.

SHIPYARDS SEND APPEAL FOR SUMMER WORKERS

Ask Students to Volunteer Services for the Summer

University of Oregon, Eugene, May 14.—C. W. Ausman, employment and industrial manager of the Grant-Smith-Porter Ship Co. of Portland, has just sent an appeal to the registrar's office at the University for workers for the summer, and plans to visit the University in a short time for the purpose of obtaining first hand information as to the prospects for workmen and to ask for cooperation.

Mr. Ausman outlines some of the advantages of the Grant-Smith-Porter yards in the following way: Eight of the ways are roofed over; there are recreation buildings, modern sanitation, live athletic committees and teams, splendid transportation facilities, rooming places; cooperation between departments and specially-trained foremen.

"Will some active students volunteer their services this summer," asked Mr. Ausman, "and they will have just as much enthusiasm as though they were digging a trench in France? The work is just as important."

Mr. Ausman will visit the campus some time in the near future.

Grim Reaper Busy Here

LENTS BOY, Co. D. HONORABLY DISCHARGED

After Five Months in Hospital, Is Unable to Go Across

Wm. R. Smoke, son of J. H. Smoke, 6601 94th St., went as a member of Company D, 3d Oregon Infantry, to the cantonment at Long Island, New York, but on account of illness could not "go across" with his company. He was taken to New York, where he spent five months in the hospital. Finally he was granted an honorable discharge on account of physical disability, and he returned recently to his home in Lents.

W. C. T. U. NOTES

W. C. T. U. met with Mrs. Rowley, 5622 84th St. An interesting business session was held. Plans were made for patriotic work along several lines. A special canvass is being made among the members and interested friends, raising funds for work among the soldiers, making housewives being the present theme. Said housewives being a case containing needles, thread, pins, buttons, scissors, etc., all in a small compass, just to fit a pocket which the boys in khaki have for it. The demand for these always exceeds the supply, is said at headquarters.

Mrs. Additon spoke to the ladies on men and measures involved in the near-by election. Mrs. Additon was for years a resident of Lents, but now makes her home at the Seward hotel, Tenth and Alder, West Side. She is always a welcome visitor, and an interesting speaker. Her membership is still retained in the Mt. Scott W. C. T. U.

Exchanges

The Optimist—Talk about efficiency! How can a fire department be efficient unless equipment is modern and in good working order.

Sunnyside Gazette—The car company is feverishly anxious to get its "facts" before the voters, and is spending a lot of carfare money in political advertising. There's a reason which is not based on regard for public welfare.

Sellwood Bee—Regardless of the present high cost of paint, many buildings are being painted in this suburb. Painters say it is false economy to wait for a drop in paint prices, as they will certainly be higher yet, and no drop is expected in ten years.

Clatskanie Chief—Oswald West is not a millionaire, and is somewhat thrifty, as well as given to huge practical jokes. So his joke of proposing that every candidate for U. S. Senate resign and leave the field to McNary, was so timed, worded and given to the public as to secure for him more publicity free of charge than one of his opponents has received with 'steen thousands worth of paid ads and an entire retinue of political agents. If West was not raised on Scotch porridge, he certainly must have Scotch ancestry.

Gresham Outlook—Concrete ships will at least be an improvement on those in the abstract. Do you get it?

Oregonian—It is fitting that Oregon women should be favored in the purchase of sugar for canning. For where on earth is there a greater profusion of excellent material for canning purposes?

St. John Review—Many fine catches are now being made in the river between St. Johns and Linnton. It is said to be the finest kind of sport, besides the catches being of considerable value as food.

Leslie's Weekly—Major-General Leonard Wood says we will have to send millions of men to France, and that we must "give, give, give until it hurts."

Young People's Christian Endeavor

"Remember the Boys in Khaki next Monday night at Anderson's," is the slogan chosen for the society until next Monday evening, when a letter and other things of interest will be collected and sent to the boys of the society who have left for the front. All members urged to be present.

The school garden shows every sign of being a success.
