

LENTS BRIEFS

Nick Faler is home from the Spruce camp for a few days.

A son was born May 28 to Mr. and Mrs. Emil Racette, 6802 85th St. S. E.

C. A. Norwood of Myrtle Park, was transacting business in Lents Tuesday.

Roy B. Kelly spent two weeks at home from the ship yards with the mumps.

C. J. Cutting and family had a pleasant outing last Sunday, motoring to Astoria and back.

Mrs. Harold Allen of Newport arrived here last week on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Bohna.

Mesdames Geo. Spring, Nick Faler and W. J. McNeill are attending State Grange at Salem this week.

Rouen Faith is employed by the Baer & Cunningham Construction Co. on Government work near Warrenton.

Arnold Eggiman is in Good Samaritan hospital, having undergone an operation for appendicitis a week ago Saturday.

Thos. O. Strang has sold a house adjoining his home, 6132 91st street S. E., to J. Bergman, who is having it moved to his property on 91st street.

George Snipes is back at his old work with A. D. Kenworthy. He has for some time been employed in a garage in Portland, and recently has been on a trip to Eastern Oregon.

Dr. J. H. McSloy and wife left Tuesday for St. Paul, Minn., to visit Mrs. McSloy's father. From there they will go to Nebraska to visit their daughter, Mrs. Beemer, who formerly lived in Lents.

A son was born May 30, to Mr. and Mrs. Ben Churchill, 6706 53rd Ave. An interesting circumstance of this event is its happening just one year to the hour from the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Churchill.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wilson and son Frank of Scotts Mills are visiting relatives and neighbors in Lents. Mr. Wilson was the first commander of Reuben Wilson Post. The Post was named after his father, who fought in the Civil War.

E. W. Clarke and family of Skanesteles Lodge, south of Johnson Creek, moved the first of the week to Grass Range, Mont. Mr. Clarke will operate a 900 acre wheat and stock ranch. He is known all over this district as the "jelly man," on account of the fine home-made jellies he has put on the market for several years.

Misses Alice and Stella Berry are home from California, spending a season with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Berry, 9403 57th avenue.

Mrs. L. C. Mayer of Columbus, Ohio, a schoolmate of Mrs. Elizabeth Brown, visited here Monday. She was surprised to find Portland people paying a 6-cent street car fare, while in Columbus only 5 cents is charged.

Enroute from Kalama, to their home in Woodburn, by automobile, last Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Hartley Bouney and family took advantage of the opportunity, while passing thru Lents, to visit with Mr. and Mrs. John Maffett.

Mrs. John K. Bagley, Past Regent of Willamette Chapter, D. A. R., and Mrs. J. M. Knight, Chaplain, were guests of Mrs. Arthur Geisler and Mrs. Samuel Allen May 28. They also attended the memorial exercises at Lents school in the afternoon.

Mr. Alger and family of Vancouver, Wash., came over last Sunday in their new Maxwell car and took Mrs. J. L. Westover and boys for a pleasant drive to Oregon City. They enjoyed the beauty of the river and falls and the children were especially interested in the locks.

How Can I Help?
By raising a good war garden.

W. C. T. U. NOTES

"Thrill" was the word brought to the W. C. T. U. meeting Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Schenerman by county president Mrs. Mattie Sleeth. This was no new thought to the members, but Mrs. Sleeth's originality presented it in new light. She said: "Oh, that the thinking women would cut off shoe leather extravagance before they are compelled by the Government to do so. When the soldiers must have leather shoes and leggings, why should women waste so much on high tops and heels?"

Mrs. Sleeth is a member of the Lecture Bureau of the Portland W. S. S. Committee.

Mt. Scott W. C. T. U. meets with Mrs. Burgett Tuesday June 11, at 2 p. m. Flower Missions and Relief Work are the topics to be discussed. All interest along temperance lines is now centered on Washington, D. C. Will Congress enact war prohibition to save food and man power? We can depend upon our Oregon senators to vote right.

Shower For Carol Hogue
Mrs. H. A. Darnall and Mrs. Jas. Leich gave a kitchen shower at the home of the former, Saturday, for Miss Carol Hogue, whose wedding to Mr. Jewe Krebs, will be an event of the month.

Mrs. Theresa Sieber, wife of John Sieber, died June 1, of pneumonia, at her home on Foster Road. The funeral services will be held Tuesday afternoon at Kenworthy's Chapel, Rev. Father Beutgen officiating. Interment was in Mt. Scott Park Cemetery.

WHEN UNCLE SAM GETS BUSY

THERE won't be so much for you and me to do. But that time is not here yet. The first gun must be trained on the enemy by ourselves—individual effort—Co-operation—Public Opinion—the Power of the Press—the Commercial Club—these are the big guns that should be brought to bear on this question. But it's only a matter of time until Uncle Sam will join with us in this war against "mail order houses." The President of the Associated Advertising Clubs of the World, in speaking before the Federal Trade Commission recently, openly condemned the advertising of the mail order houses, saying in part: "There is no reason why the catalog houses should be allowed the medium of the United States mails when all reliable publications have refused to accept their advertising." The Federal Trade Commission has promised to stop all unfair and dishonest publicity. So let's do our part until the big forces are enlisted on our side.
