

Let the Depth of Your Pocket Show the Depth of Your Patriotism

While you are at home tonight, many American boys "over there" are out in the rain and mud dodging death from bomb and shrapnel.

While you are enjoying your evening cigar, some American soldier may be smoking his last.

The boys in the trenches are risking their lives for you; and you are not even asked to risk your money for them. But you are expected to loan your money—loan it at four per cent. compound interest, the highest rate the Government has ever paid.

Pledge yourself to buy War Savings Stamps on or before

National War Savings Day

The more money you lend the Government the sooner the war will end and the less American blood will be shed.

Many Are Lending Their Lives—What Are YOU Lending?

Thousands of our boys are going down into the trenches today—clean-faced, determined, splendid young men—going there to battle for you.

You can at least go down in your pockets for them?

Think it over—be ready on

National War Savings Day

There's an army. Yes, a dozen armies—of stalwart, wind-bronzed young men standing between you and the grizzly Hun. These young fellows are giving their ease, their comfort, their friends and homes, their bodies, the hope of life—giving for you—for you.

You can at least lend your money for them? Prove your patriotism with dollars.

Apricot Marshmallows

Drain the syrup from a can of apricots and arrange the halves on a serving dish. Place on the top of each half a marshmallow which has been partly melted and top with another apricot half; decorate the plate with leaves or ferns and serve with small cakes.

The syrup from the apricots should be heated, and when they are served it should be poured over them. This makes a delicious and simple dessert.

An Echo from Yesterday

It is only a few years ago that the federal commissioners of Washington refused the application of a firm that wished to run a motor delivery wagon on the streets of the capitol on the ground that "it would frighten horses and thus endanger life and property."

NEWSY ITEMS FROM DOWN THE LINE

On account of increased practice, Dr. M. B. Currie has taken F. L. Fennell into his office.

The Kern Park Bakery has moved to 6615 Foster Road, just a few doors from their old stand.

Dr. M. B. Currie has returned from Brightenbush, Hot Springs, where he was on a ten-days vacation.

R. E. Olson, who has been on the sick list for some time, is able to resume his duties in the bake shop.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Conn, of 64th street, have returned from a short visit with their son at Everett, Wash.

Mr. S. J. Powell of Kern Park, who has been sick for over three weeks at St. Vincent's Hospital, is convalescent.

Mrs. Fred Parsons and children of Beaver, Tillamook county, former residents of Arleta, are visiting friends here.

BUSINESS COMES FIRST

During the delivery of an address Senator Charles E. Townsend of Michigan referred to the case with which a business firm sometimes may be weakened, and told this story:

Two brothers once ran a store in a small western town, where they had quite a large trade in wool on barter. Evidently one of the brothers became converted at a revival and it was not long before he was urging the other to follow in his footsteps.

"You ought to join, Jake," said the converted one. "You don't know how helpful and comforting it is to be a member of the church."

"I know, Bill," admitted Jake, thoughtfully, "an' I would like to join, but I don't see how I can."

"Why not?" persisted the first. "What is to prevent you?"

"Well, it's just this way, Bill," declared Jake, "there has got to be somebody in the firm to weigh this here wool."—Philadelphia Telegraph.

Stay Slender

Body fat is stored-up energy. Keep your energy in circulation—not in storage. Eat plenty of potatoes. Use up the energy they give you for your war work and stay slender. Eat well, work hard, be patriotic.

Write the United States Department of Agriculture for new potato recipes.

FASHION AND PATRIOTISM IN DRESS

Grace Margaret Gould, the fashion editor of the Woman's Home Companion, says in the June issue:

"Consult the conservation list, buy silk and cotton instead of wool, see to it that your suit adheres to the approved slim silhouette to save material—and do these things, assured in the fact that you can be both patriotic and well dressed. The terms are interchangeable. Fashionable clothes do their bit to serve their country, too.

"Latest of all styles, the pony coat suit, makes its appearance in the approved silks and cottons, cut from a small amount of material, and is a temptation, if we need one, to be patriotic. It is a trick of fashion, this making conservation the summer mode. The short jacket is a sane style for warm weather, silk and cottons sensible materials, fashion sees her opportunity and approves. The timeliness of its entry, backed by patriotism, makes the popularity of the pony suit an accomplished fact."

CELEBRITIES IN FILMDOM

"The Shepherd of the Hills," the Harold Bell Wright story, is to be filmed in the Ozark Mountains.

Ethel Barrymore is to make a picture of her successful stage play, "Our Mrs. McChesney," from the Edna Ferber stories.

Mary Merch, who has been seen in many Paramount pictures, is to be leading woman for Bill Farnum in "Riders of the Purple Sage."

They say that Vera Stedman, Mack Sennett girl, has the most perfect figure in filmdom, Annette Kellerman not excepted. Vera attributes her physical perfection to swimming and diving, at which she is a champion.

The story of "M'liss" offers the most unique opportunity Mary Pickford has yet had to display her diversified talents, her versatility and her charm of characterization. Thomas Meighan is in the leading role opposite Miss Pickford in this Arterait picture, which was adapted from a story by Bret Harte.

Lottie Pickford will be seen on the screen again in support of her brother Jack in "Mill-a-Minute Kendall," his latest Paramount picture. Lottie has done little screen work for some time past, having paid her attention to home duties and looking after Mary, Jr.

Why Not Develop Mines?

Director Manning of the Bureau of Mines, says the United States imports 2,000,000 tons annually of ores, most of which can be mined in this country. By quick development of the mines, between 300,000 and 400,000 dead-weight tons of shipping can be diverted into sending troops and supplies to France.

The first transcontinental automobile run was made in 1903, and took over two months, from May 23 to July 26.

Motorcycles in Japan

The Japanese government recently purchased eight motorcycles with side cars of woven wicker for use by the Tokio post office. These are not the first motorcycles that the Japanese have used, however, but are additions to the already large number that are now in service, replacing the old coolie drawn rickshaws that for ages have been used for this purpose.
