

SWEET OREGON.

HENRY S. DEMOSS

*I'm thinking now of a beautiful land, Oregon, Oregon;
With rivers and valleys and mountains grand, Oregon, sweet Oregon;
From the mountains high peaks all covered with snow,
A swift limpid streamlet doth flow
By the home of my youth, which I ever adore, Oh! Oregon, my home.*

Chorus.

Oh! Oregon, sweet Oregon, my native home, I long for thee.

*I think of thy forests and prairies wide, Oregon, Oregon;
The mines, the fish, and the ocean tide; Oregon, sweet Oregon;
Where the mighty Columbia rolls down to the sea,
And the pines gently echo the breeze
Like a beautiful dream to my memory comes, Oh! Oregon, my home.*

Chorus.

*I long to dwell in my mountain home, Oregon, Oregon;
Away from thy vales I would ne'er wish to roam, Oregon, sweet Oregon;
I sigh for thy bountiful harvest again, thy fruit and thy calm gentle rain;
May thy pure, balmy air e'er waft freedom's blest song, Oh! Oregon, my home.*

Chorus.

Serve Under Fire

Miss Maria Herron, sister-in-law of ex-President Taft, a Y. M. C. A. canteen worker at the war front, remained at work in a hut serving coffee and food to soldiers until German shells set the village afire.

Poultry men are predicting an egg famine next winter when it is hardly time yet to spring the prediction about the ice famine next summer.

Eatless day would make a big hit with those women who are struggling with their own kitchens.

Every man, woman and child in America is concerned in this war—the trouble is so many do not realize it.

Beautiful is the death sleep
Of those who bravely fight,
In their country's holy quarrel,
And perish for the right.

LENTS BRIEFS

Tom Cowing, Jr., is making himself useful around the Lents Mercantile Co. this vacation time.

C. D. Sanders and wife are back in their old residence, 6209 89th street, after spending several months on their little farm near Gilbert Station.

William G. Cyrus and family, former residents of Lents, but who have been living on Sherman street, have moved to 9219 46th avenue.

Dr. Anabel Fromm, dental hygienist, is assisting Dr. C. S. Osbery in his office practice. Her specialty is preventive propaganda for children.

Miss Edna Burns is spending her vacation with her parents in Hoquiam, Wash., where they went from here a few months ago. Miss Burns was in this office for some time, acting as scenographer for the State Prohibition Campaign Committee.

Edwin Thornquist, who has been employed for some time at Katzsky Bros. department store, has a position with Uncle Sam and leaves tomorrow for Fort McDowell. Hubert Bleything is another Lents young man who will leave for this training camp on the 5th.

Miss Mignon Fisher, former librarian at the Lents Library, has returned to Portland after spending two years at the New York Library School. She has accepted a position as librarian of the technical library of the Willamette Iron and Steel Co. She will make her home, as formerly, with Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Hamilton, at Lents.

J. E. Wharton, recently from South Bend, Ind., moved this week with his wife and family into their newly purchased home at 128 Foster road. Mrs. Wharton, who was a caller at the Herald office Monday, says they like this locality and feel that they got a good buy. Mr. Wharton is a core-maker in the Independent Foundry.

TRUE HOME PATRIOTISM

PATRIOTISM, like other home virtues, begins at home. It is only given to the few to serve in high places. But all of us have the opportunity to serve at home. Loyalty to the home town is the test of real patriotism. When we fail to support Home Trade and Home Industries we fail in our loyalty to our country and to ourselves. Great are the rewards of Home Town Patriotism. Great are the results. It brings prosperity to us and ours, employment for all, activity in business and progress in every direction. With "Our Town First" as our slogan, our Progress is assured.
