

LENTS BRIEFS

F. R. Peterson reports the "busiest Fourth ever" at the Lents Pharmacy.

Mrs. D. R. McKinley and daughter Clara enjoyed Chautauqua at Gladstone this week.

Rev. W. Boyd Moore, former pastor of the Lents Methodist church, visited friends here this week.

Mrs. Maude K. Darnall has returned from a visit with her husband on their ranch at Marshland, Ore.

Dr. J. H. McSloy returned this week from a five weeks visit with relatives in Minnesota and Nebraska.

Lanont Dunbar arrived last week from Star, Idaho, to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Allen Dunbar.

Buren Kays left Tuesday morning for Fort Lawton, where he will begin his duties as a member of the Coast Artillery.

J. Mitchell of Ellsworth Field, Texas, is a guest of A. D. Kenworthy, who was a classmate at Pacific College, Newberg.

Francis Hartwig and Margaret Tiff are enjoying a pleasant outing at Long Beach, Wash., guests of Miss Winona Anderson.

John Donaldson and family spent the Fourth picnicking at Cedarville Park, near Linneman Station, on the Estacada car line.

Harry Vail and family visited relatives at Manning Sunday. Miss Helen Vail remained for a vacation at the home of her grandparents.

Private William Knecht has been transferred from Company C, 182d U. S. Infantry, to Company K, 28th U. S. Infantry, serving in France.

Rev. J. Stanford Moore, who has been pastor of the Dundee Methodist Church for some time, has resigned and gone into army Y. M. C. A. work.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Powell, of 5920 50th street southeast, left this morning for Gladstone, where they will camp for a week and attend Chautauqua.

Miss Myrtle Burns of Hoquiam, Wash., accompanied her sister Edna back from her vacation trip Tuesday, and both are residing at the W. L. Powell home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Atwood and children, from Chester, Neb., visited Mrs. F.

J. Eath one day this week. Mrs. Faith and Mrs. Atwood are girlhood friends.

William York, Multnomah county road supervisor, was operated upon the first of June at Multnomah Hospital. Although not able to be up, he shows signs of improvement.

Mrs. Frank Lilburn of Roseburg was a guest of Mrs. Carl Wimberly (Leila Lent) at the home of O. E. Lent this week. Mrs. Lilburn's husband is in training at the Benson Polytechnic school.

Last week, while washing clothes, Mrs. Frank Stern suffered a painful injury, when a needle sticking in one of the garments broke and the pieces entered both her hands. Dr. Hess removed them with the aid of the X-Ray. Mrs. Stern has gone for a visit with her parents on their farm near Kalama, Wash.

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Lent have received word of the arrival of their sons, Jasper and Paul, at Camp Merritt, New Jersey. They are members of the 363rd Ambulance Company, 316 Sanitary Train, and have been stationed at Camp Lewis until recently. Among other Lents boys belonging to the company are Fay and Frank Rayburn and Harold Retherford.

Mrs. Susie Morgan closed up the dining room of her popular boarding house on 57th avenue on the Fourth of July and with a family party, among whom were her daughter, Mrs. Leslie Fenley and her little daughter Marjorie, spent the day picnicking. Mr. and Mrs. Knapp of the Cottage Restaurants also took a half-holiday, and as a result several Lents people had limited rations on our greatest National holiday.

BROKEN DOWN

"CATALOG wagons" may be all right to look at. But "catalog repairs" are a different thing. Particularly when you're in a hurry. It is then when you learn the additional advantage in "trading at home." Not only has the home town dealer the best goods that can be obtained, but he offers you Home Service as well. Your time is too valuable to risk one of these expensive break-downs. Buy your implements from your home dealer and take advantage of the HOME SERVICE he can offer you.
