SOCIAL GATHERING AT "FIRWOOD ACRES" HOME

The pretty rural home of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Edwards at Firwood Acres, some twelve miles southwest of Portland, was the scene of a very happy affair Sunday afternoon, when about twenty friends of the family enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Edwards. With well filled lunch baskets a number of the party went out on the morning train. A little later F. E. Crum and Elton Shaw drove out with autos loaded to capacity with lunch baskets, musical instruments and the larger number of the party.

A large table was arranged under the stately firs and a most bountiful luncheon spread. (Hoover's food regulations were observed in the preparation of same however).

The following named per one were in the dinner party: Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Williams and daughter Iva; Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Crum and daughter Gladys; Mr. and Mrs. Elton Shaw and daughter Jean; Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Edwards and daughter Ruth; Mr. and Mrs. Jeffries and son Kenneth; Mrs. J. E. Perry and Elma Sorenson; Masters Arlington Crum, Paulus Shaw and Clarence Edwards; the Misses Bernice Paisley, Eva and Jeanette Maul, Mabel Nelson, Dorothea Neitzel and Ollie Reed.

After dinner an enthusiastic community sing was held and an orchestra of seven pieces rendered popular instrumental music, much to the delight of the entire community.

Later in the afternoon the party, the greater portion of which, attired in bathing costume, went to Oswego Lake, but a short distance from the Edwards home. The water of the lake was warm and the bathing was much enjoyed by the large crowd of onlookers as well as by those in "the swim."

The party returned to the city late in the evening, having spent a most enjoyable day and heartily accepting the invitation of Mr. and Mrs. Edwards to make a return call at a not far distant time.

Mr. Edwards is employed in the Jefferson-High School, and formerly resided at Fifty-fifth Avenue and Sixty-ninth Street, S. E. During his vacation he has been helping Uncle Sam win the war by juggling pig iron in the works at Oswego. He says the rural life agrees with him immensely, but he is also looking forward to the time when school will open, with a degree of satisfaction that he has done enough heavy work for some time.

About a year ago the Edwards' family moved to Firwood Acres, where they have erected a beautiful home. Mr. Edwards has made great inroads upon the forest and has a large portion of his acreage under cultivation. His crop looks exceptionally well for such a dry season.

AND ALL THE WORLD WAS GLAD

Again the summer sun and exquisite air Made all things smile; end life and joy and love Beamed on me everywhere.

And over all the earth there went a stir, A movement, a renewal. Round the spring In the broad village street the dark-eyed girls Were fain to dance and sing.

Far on the endless plain the swift steam drew A soft white riband. Down the lazy flow Of the broad stream, I marked, round sylvan bands, The seaward barges go . . .

And all the world was glad, and full of life, And I grew glad with it . . .

—Sir Lewis Morris.

Conserve Your Eyesight

MANY people who take alarm at the first symptoms of other physical ailments, and hurry off to the doctor or dentist, fail to give second thought to the warning of distress occasioned by defective eyesight. This seems inexcusable in view of the easy access to the services of an eye specialist.

You may have the mistaken idea that your eyes are as strong and clear-sighted as they used to be, but you will perhaps be surprised as to the extent to which properly fitted glasses will improve your vision and help your appearance.
