Mrs. Sarah Fankhauser.
Mrs. Sarah Fankhauser passed away Sunday, August 11, at the family residence one mile south of Lents. She was a great sufferer for nearly two years, but was patient in all of it, and passed to her eternal home after a sojourn of more than eighty-four years. The funeral services were held at the Evangelical Church, Tuesday, at 2 P. M., and the gathering was, perhaps, the largest ever held in Lents.

The services were very impressive, in harmony with the life of the departed one. Rev. P. Conklin, of Monmouth, Oregon, a former pastor, by "Grandma's" request, preached the sermon. Rev. N. Shupp, present pastor, had charge of the services, and read from the Scriptures. Rev. H. Schuknecht offered prayer. Mrs. Cauffman and Mrs. Reynolds sang hymns selected by the family. She was laid to rest at the Multnomah burial place, by the side of her husband, who preceded her nineteen years.

Grandma Fankhauser was born in England a little more than eighty-four years ago, and in early life came to this country and settled in Minnesota. Later she came, with her husband, to Oregon, and located near Lents, where she lived for more than thirty years. She was of quiet, unassuming disposition, but of settled, rounded habits; an exemplary Christian, honored and loved by all. She was very faithful in her church work; an active member of the W. M. S. and the W. C. T. U. She will be missed at these society meetings, but especially in the homes of her sons, Albert and Charles.

Joseph Harry Metheny.
The funeral services of the late Joseph Harry Metheny, aged 44 years, was conducted under the auspices of the L. O. O. M., Monday afternoon, August 12, in the mortuary chapel of A. D. Kenworthy & Co. Interment was in Mount Scott Cemetery.
Mr. Metheny had come here to work in the shipyards only a few days before the illness which culminated in his death.

Rev. L. F. Clark.
Rev. Lester F. Clark, former pastor of the United Brethren Church, who died Monday, July 29, from injuries received in an automobile accident, was buried Thursday afternoon, August 2, in Mt. Scott Park Cemetery. Rev. A. S. Henderson conducted the funeral services.

Mr. Clark was a resident of Portland for over 28 years. He is survived by his wife, Retta G. Clark, living at 9612 Seventy-first street Southeast; two sons, J. Allen, of Tacoma, Wash., and Forest E. Clark, of Portland; two daughters, Mrs. Nellie Kinch, of Ostrander, Wash., and Miss Beatrice Clark, of this city; also eight grandchildren.

W. C. T. U. NOTES

Mt. Scott W. C. T. U. lost a valuable member in the death of Mrs. Sarah Fankhauser, whose funeral was held Tuesday afternoon at the Evangelical Church. A large attendance of sympathizing friends and acquaintances filled the church. Rev. Peter Conklin preached a fine sermon, telling much of our dear sister's life, speaking from the text selected by herself some months ago. His wording of the usual obituary notice was especially pleasing and inspiring. State President Mrs. M. Frances Swope was present; also Mrs. L. H. Additon, both of Portland. Mrs. Swope was once a member of Mt. Scott Union. Led by the local president, the members of the Union each laid a fragrant sweet-pea blossom on the casket, fit token not only of their loving regard but also of the fragrance of the life just gone.

The Union will resume its meetings the latter part of this month. Thirteen thousand abstainers are equal to 15,000 non-abstainers. Give me a teetotal army and I will lead it anywhere.—Earl Roberts.

As an officer, I support temperance because I know that officers and men who avoid drink are physically and mentally efficient, their nerves are stronger, they march better, there is far less sickness and crime, and their power of resistance is strengthened.—Lieut. Gen. Sir Reginald Hart.

NOTES FROM ARLETA

Mrs. Mary Churchill arrived from Boise, Idaho, Monday evening and will spend two months here among her old-time friends. She is now the guest of Mrs. T. U. Stinson, 4404 Sixty-fourth street where she will be glad to greet all friends of former days.

The family and furniture of H. C. Anderson have arrived from Hood River and all are settled comfortably in their new home at 4629 Sixty-fifth street S. E. Mr. Anderson, who is a fruit grower from Hood River, has purchased the residence where he now lives and has decided to make Portland his future home.

The Mountain View Rebekah Lodge members are planning a picnic for their families and brother Odd Fellows on September 1. The place will be decided on later.

Mr. Triplett is remodeling his home at 4011 Sixty-fifth street and making it modern in every respect. Others along Sixty-fifth street who are improving their homes are Mr. McKensie, who is making a fine basement; Mr. Humphreys, Mr. Anderson and Mr. Able are building new sidewalks.

It is expected that the new Carnegie Library on Sixty-fourth street and Forty-fifth avenue will be ready for occupancy next week. The library building is a beautiful structure and adds much to Arleta. Home owners seem to appreciate this and are improving their dwellings and properties to correspond, and this part of Mt. Scott is forging to the front as never before. The laboring man, in other words, "the man who is making the world go round," should buy himself a home now, while buying is good, for ere long it will be impossible to buy, as it now is almost impossible to rent.

the nocturnal luncheon. J. L. Johnson of Bellrose was requested to express the appreciation of the assembly for the refreshments served, which he did in the following verse:

"Watermelon for dinner,
All the rest was fine,
But watermelon the winner
This and every time.
"Kiddies and the other folks,
Young and old together,
Live again the old jokes—
Oh, it is a tether.
"Could we hand a slice
To the boys afar,
Wouldn't it be awful nice
While they're in the war!
"Never mind! we'll send them love,
Best that we can do,
Send them just that we can give,
As we live true blue."

The Portland Health Chautauqua will hold an afternoon picnic, with evening dinner in Laurelhurst Park, Saturday, August 17. After the eats, members of the society will hold a free dancing party in Dawley's hall, 34th and Yamhill Streets. The public is cordially invited to the picnic and dance.

Conserve Your Eyesight

MANY people who take alarm at the first symptoms of other physical ailments, and hurry off to the doctor or dentist, fail to give second thought to the warning of distress occasioned by defective eyesight. This seems inexcusable in view of the easy access to the services of an eye specialist.

You may have the mistaken idea that your eyes are as strong and clear-sighted as they used to be, but you will perhaps be surprised as to the extent to which properly fitted glasses will improve your vision and help your appearance.
