SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS SOCIAL ENJOYED BY YOUNG PEOPLE

The Dunbar home, on Fifty-fifth avenue, was the scene of a merry party last Friday evening, when Mrs. Theodora Dunbar, assisted by Miss Littlefield, entertained the Aeronaut Sunday School. Eighteen young persons were present.

Outdoor games were enjoyed for a time, then partners were selected for supper as follows: Each gentleman was given a tiny roll of parchment upon which was written the name of the kind of floral decoration which his lady wore. Each girl brought supper for two in a box. Many and varied were the artistic ideas developed. Hearts, guitars, fancy shapes with butterfly tops, patriotic colorings, etc., added variety and interest to the good things to eat, which were enjoyed to the full. Fruit punch was served by the hostess. All declared themselves as having had a splendid time and went away hoping to repeat the pleasant time on the occasion of the next class social.

A big tractor demonstration is drawing crowds of farmers to the Cotton ranch, near Gresham. The tests of farm power machines will continue over tomorrow and Saturday.

AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT FATAL TO MRS. COWING

The old friends and neighbors in Lents who had seen Mr. and Mrs. Tom Cowing and their children start on their outing the week before, so full of anticipation of a happy time, heard with a deep sense of shock the sorrowful tidings of the automobile accident in which Mrs. Cowing was instantly killed. Mr. Cowing and little son and daughter escaped with minor injuries, when the big car plunged off a seven-foot embankment, and turning upside down, pinned the entire family beneath the machine.

The accident occurred Thursday noon, three miles west of Blodgett. Mrs. Cowing's neck was broken. Her husband was rendered unconscious from shock. Tom Cowing, Jr., aged 14, managed to dig himself out by his hands, and Mary Helen Cowing, aged 10, crawled out of the trench her brother had made.

An automobile party arrived soon after the accident. Efforts to release the victims failed. It was nearly an hour before relief came through the efforts of a threshing crew and Y. M. C. A. spruce camp workers.

Mrs. Cowing was about 40 years of age. She was born in Silverton, Or., and was the daughter of Sol Smith, an Oregon pioneer. She is survived by two brothers, Harvey Smith and Harley Smith, of Silverton, and a sister, Mrs. Ramsley. Mr. Cowing is well known about the Multnomah county courthouse where his for-hire automobile made its stand. The late T. F. Cowing, father-in-law of the dead woman, was a prominent attorney of Oregon City and Portland.

MULTNOMAH GUARD BAND WILL PICNIC AND DANCE

The Multnomah Guard Band of 120 pieces will furnish music during the afternoon and evening at the Oaks, Tuesday, September 10, at the picnic and dance on that date, given by the band to raise money for new music, uniforms and a few new musical instruments. The price of $1.00 per couple admits you to the park and the dance in the skating rink.

This band has been most generous with its time, having furnished music at troop trains and for every patriotic occasion. Wherever money has been received for its services the money has been turned over to the Red Cross. Now that the members are going to play for the benefit of the band, they should receive generous support.

HYMN OF HATE

Last night I sat up pretty late indulging in a lot of hate. I hated all our Teuton foes, their hearts, their whiskers and their toes; I hated Hindenburg and Bill, and Ludendorff, with right good will. From 10 o'clock till half past one I hated every beastly Hun, and hoped his name might yet be Mud; I ground my teeth and sweated blood. And so today, I'm feeling punk; there's lassitude throughout my trunk; my head aches in a horrid way, I have no appetite for hay; a shooting pain is in my lung, and I have moss upon tongue, the gripes disturb my ample waist, my mouth is full of dark green taste, I don't suppose a Teuton knew that I was bating, long hours through. And so I realized today that all my hate was thrown away; alas, to waste a hundred weight of all-wool-and-a-yard-wide hate! The Teutons have for many years soaked in hatred to their ears; they lapped up hatred from their birth; it fattened them, increased their girth; their kultur has it for a base, it thrives in every Prussian place. So they can hate the hours away, and not be crumpled up next day. But hatred here seems coarse and rude, for kindness was our infant food; it makes us bilious, sick and sore, and life becomes the dreary bore.—Walt Mason.

LIBERTY LOAN WILL USE THE ROUND-UP

Oregon State Liberty Loan headquarters are making extensive plans for featuring the Fourth Loan campaign before the crowds at the ninth annual Round-Up in Pendleton, September 19-21. Their tentative program includes bringing to the city the military band from Camp Lewis, trainload of trophies from the battlefields of France and a number of speakers to make short talks from the crownest at the stadium.

Milton R. Klepper, state speakers' manager, called upon the directors of the Round-Up to lend the fame of their show to advertise the Fourth Loan, the campaign for which will open the week following the Round-Up. The directors, having already pledged all profits to the Red Cross, gave the Liberty Loan officials free leave to advance their campaign in any method they choose and cooperate in preparing some novel and attractive features for the parade and show.

Mt. Scott Lodgee 188, I. O. O. F. held a business meeting in their hall last Tuesday evening.

Nearly every habitable dwelling in Lents is now occupied and every day brings a demand for more.

CAN OREGON REPEAT?

The vaults of the U. S. Treasury again need refilling. Ever increasing expenditures necessary to hasten the end of the War, the Keeping-up and Backing-up of "Our Boys," the Sustaining of the Allied Nations and their Peoples, the Perpetuation of Democracy and Destruction of Autocracy—require the unstinted sacrifice—the DO YOUR BEST, NOT SIMPLY "BIT," of every true American.

The Eve of the 4th Liberty Loan is here FIRST in every patriotic endeavor, OREGON cannot, will not, shall not falter NOW. With more to work for, more to give for, more to sacrifice for—every true Oregonian will make it his duty to see that Oregon DOES REPEAT—by going over the top FIRST once again.

While the campaign does not officially start until September 28th, we will so voluntarily pledge our subscriptions and anticipate our quotas that in this town, this county and this state IT WILL BE OVER WHEN IT'S OPENED.
