LENTS BRIEFS

George Stevens, who has been spending the past six months with his son, H. L. Stevens, of the Cash Department Store, left last night for his home in New York.

Registration clerks in Precinct 121 today are: Hattie Yott, Miss Lulu C. Madden, Mrs. Edwarda Nygard and Miss Dorris Myers.

During the past week Miss Winnifred Grannis, of Grannis Mills, Clark county, Washington, was the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Inez Gulliks.

Mrs. Kate Wagner is at Woodland, Wash., looking after her home and incidentally canning fruit.

Liberty Bond subscribers who have not finished paying for your bonds, please do so if possible before the 28th of this month so we can have our accounts in shape for the new loan.—MULTNOMAH STATE BANK.

The new and exclusive patterns in hats for fall and winter wear at the Lents Millinery are being added to daily by Mrs. Gulliks, who is working busily preparing the very best in quality and style for the Mt. Scott trade. The fall opening will be announced soon.

Mrs. A. D. Kenworthy entertained her sister, Mrs. Scott, and little daughter "Billy," of Salem over Sunday.

John Manz is so busy at his tailoring establishment that he put on extra help this week. See his ad in this issue.

Precinct 119 is in charge of Mrs. Annie Tussey, Mrs. Williams, Mrs. Flora Lehman, Mrs. Estella Huntington and Mrs. Cora Wright.

The three alarms of fire during the past week have made considerable work for the volunteer fire department, but fortunately most of them were false alarms. The blaze that started in Mr. Wiley's barn about 9 o'clock Monday evening was quickly extinguished with practically no damage.

The Multnomah County Fair to be held at Gresham is the great event of next week Tuesday and continuing a musical program by Campbell's Band will be one feature of interest.

OBITUARIES

James A. McStoy
James A. McStoy, father of Dr. J. H. McStoy, died at his home, 1063 Twenty-ninth street north, September 11, aged 85 years. The funeral will be held from the Kenworthy parlors on Ninety-second street tomorrow afternoon at 1 o'clock. Interment at Mt. Scott Park Cemetery.

Mrs. Charlotte Barnes
Mrs. Charlotte Barnes died at 7427 Woodstock avenue September 11 aged 79 years. The funeral will be held from the A. D. Kenworthy mortuary establishment in Lents at 2:30 to morrow afternoon. Burial at Mt. Scott Park Cemetery.

HOBERT R. JONES.
Hobert R. Jones was born in Wycoff, Minn., May 25, 1857, where he spent his early life and received his education. At the age of 21, he went to Nebraska to secure a home. The following year he married Adda Hopkins in Wycoff, Minn., January 5, 1882. There were added to this union eight children: Nora E., Myrtle, Mabel Lillian, Robert R., Frank Edward, Elmer Irving, Loreta Fay and Harold R. Jones, all of whom have preceded their father to the better land, except two.

Mr. Jones joined the Friends' Church in Chasta, Wash., seven years ago. Although for some time a sufferer from heart trouble, last week, in company with his wife, he started for Cornduff, Saskatchewan, Canada, to see his brother. They stopped at Havre, Mont., for a four hours' rest, where he was taken worst and quietly passed away September 4, 1918.

Mr. Jones leaves a wife and two daughters, Nora E. Wrepp and Loreta Fay Griffith to mourn his loss, with other relatives and many friends.
Interment was at Mt. Scott Park Cemetery, Monday afternoon. Miss Terrell, of the Friends' Church, preached the sermon, and A. D. Kenworthy had charge of the funeral arrangements.

Firemen Gain Shorter Day.

The two-platoon system for members of the city fire department went into effect temporarily Tuesday, under authorization of the City Council. The plan allows the men to be divided into day and night shifts. The system will continue until November 7, the permanency of the two platoons to be submitted to the voters November 5.

The racing program will be a strong feature at the Multnomah County Fair which opens September 17. The Grange displays will be better than ever, with greatly enlarged floor space in the pavilion. Excellent car service will be provided to the grounds.

Wartime Efficiency

These are times when the necessity for efficiency on the part of every good American is paramount. "Efficiency" today has a bigger and more vital meaning than at any time in the world's history. Upon it rests stupendous responsibilities. The extent to which we must depend upon our eyes for support in this great work is beyond comprehension. Efficiency has no patience with the wearer of two pairs of glasses which require constant shifting to see near or far objects, as the case may be. It does not countenance the wearing of reading glasses which have to be continually replaced. It casts aside the old-style bifocals which necessitate frequent repair and which blur the eyes with seams or humps. It maintains that, when you need double vision glasses, the only way to overcome these difficulties, and to save your eyesight, is to wear

KRYPTOK GLASSES

THE INVISIBLE BIFOCALS
KRYPTOKS (pronounced Críp-tók) have the necessary powers for perfect near and far sight. Invisibly mounted in one pair of solid crystal-clear lenses absolutely smooth to the finger's touch. With them you can detect objects any reasonable distance away with the same exact distinction that you can see objects close by. Because of the total absence of seams or humps, KRYPTOKS have the appearance of being single vision.
