OF SOLDIERS IN SERVICE AND
THOSE WHO HAVE FALLEN.

Arrangements are being completed for the memorial service next Sunday afternoon, which will be held in front of the service board on Ninety-second street and Foster Road.

The memorial services, in honor of the fallen heroes of the Lents district, will be held Sunday, September 29, at 3 o'clock. The first number will be music by the Multnomah Guard band. Then will follow the invocation; preliminary remarks by Mayor Baker, who will preside; song by Vancouver soldiers' quartet; address by members of city administration, and others. The memorial address will be by Dr. Walter B. Hinson.

The band will be brought out by the citizens of Lents. It will donate its services as will also the soldiers' quartet. The City Commissioners have accepted an invitation to be present.

A permanent platform will be built on Liberty Board Corner. The lumber is being donated by local lumber firms.

Families of the boys who have fallen abroad are urged to be present. These persons will please give their names to F. R. Peterson before the services begin.

MEN IN SERVICE WRITE OFF LIFE OVER THERE

The following is a letter received by Mrs. Amy Kellogg, 6343 Ninetieth street, from her son, Alfred, who is in H. Q. Co., 148th F. A.:

At the Front, August 9 — Dear Mother: All is well on the Western front except that there seems to be a real war. I am feeling fine and having the time of my life, so to speak. I haven't had any mail for some time but am looking forward to some soon.

I am enclosing a piece of hand-made lace, made in Belgium before the war and sold to me by a Belgian refugee in Paris.

Later—I was interrupted to receive the press news from Eiffel Tower, in Paris, and it is nothing but good news for us. The French have captured 4000 prisoners today. I saw a bunch, captured by our Infantry today, as they passed on their way to the rear. One bunch of four men were aged 14, 16, 18, 19, which, seems to me, to be rather young for fighters.

Oh, yes! I have been at the front a month and today I was issued my firearms. I had a rifle before, however, which some Infantryman left in a trench and which I salvaged. But now I think I can face a Deutchman without so many chills.

We had a heavy barrage on our regiment today and it was so heavy that I thought there wouldn't be anything left, but there were only a few wounded. Being on the regimental detail keeps me away from the batteries, however, and as the batteries are main objective of the Huns, I feel comparatively out of danger.

I saw another Hun plane bite the dust today and only wish that it occurred more often.

It is raining a lot most of the time on the front and we have one deuce of a time getting our trucks over the re-constructed roads. We will be going along fine and suddenly we go into a hole up to the hubs, and then it is all hands out and push. It is worth the trouble, however, when you consider that we have only moved, so far, in pursuit of the Huns. We moved into position last night and for the first time were able to see land in the enemy's hands. At 5 this morning the Infantry went over and now we can't see German territory.

I received a bunch of Posts from Dad, and believe me, I never appreciated magazines as much as I did them. Love to all. ALFRED.

From James W. York.

U. S. Cummings, September 3, 1918—Dear Sister: This is to let you know that we are receiving the Mt. Scott Herald regularly now, and enjoy it very much. There are three of us on here that are very much interested in the doings in and around Lents. Your paper sure fills the bill.

We (my brother and I) are well and getting fat on the job. We have plenty of excitement along with our work. Just got through spending thirty days' overhaul period in England, and while there saw quite a bit of old Blighty. We found it quite interesting. But away behind the States in everything.

I have been in touch with several Lents boys since I came over. I saw Ray Fairbanks and Emery Webb.

Thanking you for past favors, I am sincerely yours,

JAMES W. YORK,

U. S. S. Cummings, care P. M., N. Y.

A Correction.

In the letter from Edward D. Smith printed last week the word "movie" should have been "move."—Ed. note.

Prize Winners at County Fair.

In the industrial club work among school children at the county fair last week Richard Kneeland, of Montavilla, received $5 first prize for chickens; Walter Huntington, of the same school, received $4 for rabbits; Gerald Meindl, of Sellwood, received $5 for chickens; James Collins, of Arleta, first prize for canning exhibit, $5; Lucille Nolan, of Arleta, first prize for garden exhibit, $5.

Not Due to Tobacco and Strong Drink

A Syracuse lady has celebrated her eighty-first birthday by skipping the rope 21 times. We are glad to be able to report that she does not boast that she has used tobacco and strong liquor all her life.—White Ribbon Review.

EVENING STAR GRANGE WILL HOLD IMPORTANT MEETING

Evening Star Grange will hold its regular monthly meeting all day on Saturday, October 5, starting at 10:30. During the morning session, third and fourth degrees in full form by team of thirty members.

Basket dinner at noon will be served by committee in charge. A program starting at 2:30, under the direction of A. L. Keenan, lecturer, will be given, consisting of music, addresses and readings. Greetings extended to charter members and all aged members.

This meeting is our annual reunion, this being the forty-fifth anniversary of our organization. During this period all meetings but one have been held, this being postponed on account of a severe storm. This Grange was the first in the state to organize a degree staff and put work on in full form, and has on several occasions exemplified the work for the State Grange.

The hall is being decorated for this occasion and preparations are being made for a large crowd. All fourth degree members are invited to be present at the opening hour and especially charter members.

The afternoon session is public and all are cordially invited. The hall is the property of the Grange and is located at the Section Line road and Seventy-eighth street.

J. J. JOHNSON, Master.

St. Paul's Church Notices.

St. Paul's Guild will soon have a rummage sale in a vacant store in Portland.

Several ladies attended the services at St. David's Church on Mission work September 17-19.

The Guild held their business meeting Wednesday at the home of Mrs. S. J. Allen. A good attendance is reported.

WHAT LIBERTY LOAN MONEY HAS BOUGHT.

From the beginning of the war to June 30, 1918, the last day of the past fiscal year, contracts were placed by the Ordnance Department of the United States totaling $4,300,000,000. The estimate for the current year is over $7,000,000,000.

Some expenditures by the War Department were $375,000,000 for engineering operations, mostly in France; $37,000,000 for flour, $145,000,000 for sugar, $43,000,000 for bacon, $12,000,000 for beans, $9,000,000 for tomatoes, $2,000,000 for rice, $47,500,000 for rolling kitchens, $127,000,000 for shoes, $565,000,000 for clothing; for blankets, $147,000,000.

Some smaller expenditures were over $6,000,000 for axes, $1,635,000 for field stores, $2,700,000 for carpenter and $224,000 for blacksmith tools, $2,500,000 for shovels.

The department has bought 266,000 wagons and carts, costing $37,000,000; and 410,000 horses and mules, costing $99,000,000; food for them cost $62,000,000, and harness $29,000,000.

These are only some of the figures. They seem large, but not so large when it is remembered that we have nearly 2,000,000 men in France and almost as many in training here at home. All of this money and all the other money raised by the Liberty loans goes to make our army, our navy, and our people powerful and victorious in their war for freedom and right.

The best answer to German peace propaganda is sinking more U-boats, sending more men to France, speeding up our work along every line, and a heavy subscription to the Fourth Liberty Loan. Peace must mean the triumph of right and justice, the defeat of Germanism, not a truce with it, not a compromise with it.

There's no living man too good to be a private in the American army.

The more bonds you buy the fewer boys will die.

RESPOND WELL IN LIBERTY LOAN

LENTS DISTRICT DOING ITS SHARE TO BRING OREGON "OVER THE TOP" BY SATURDAY NIGHT—ALL
MUST BE ALIVE TO DUTY.

The business district of Lents has responded liberally in the Liberty Loan campaign this week, showing that the spirit of patriotism is not at all weakened in this locality.

Dr. C. S. Ogebury is captain of precinct 121, and the three teams working with him are: Mrs. M. K. Hedge, lieutenant, with Mrs. Cox, Mrs. Wheeler and Mrs. Butler, helpers. Mrs. H. Lusted, lieutenant, with Mrs. Roberts and Mrs. Burton for helpers. Mrs. T. W. Weddle, lieutenant, with Mrs. Julian and Mrs. Nygaard, helpers.

Mrs. Verne Fish, captain of precinct 122, wishes to thank all those who so ably assisted her in the canyans the past week. They were: Mrs. I. F. Foeler, Mrs. E. B. Rotan, Mrs. E. Bruning, Miss Agnes Roemer, Mrs. Radcliff, Mrs. E. M. Root, Mrs. Jacobson, Mrs. May Hamilton, Mrs. H. F. Orton and Miss Mildred Fish.

It seems almost unnecessary to say that all who are doing this work are giving their time and energy absolutely free of charge. Many who are spending the most time have also given their all to the Government in man power.

No report from precincts 119 and 120 has been obtainable.

MOTHERS' PATRIOTIC PARADE MOST IMPRESSIVE SCENE

Many Lents mothers, wives, sisters and daughters of soldiers were among the marchers Saturday evening who proudly wore the service flag in testimony of what the women of America are giving in the cause of Liberty. The dear ones overseas and preparing for service would have certainly been gratified to see their brave and military bearing, and those who hold the purse-strings at home will surely respond liberally and make Oregon first in the Fourth Liberty loan, as they have in every previous call for funds in support of those who are fighting so gallantly with shot and shell our battles with the enemy abroad, while we are fighting with true and loyal sentiment our enemy at home in the form of pro-German propaganda, apathy and selfishness.

RICHARDSON-BERRY WEDDING

Miss Mary Edith Berry and Charles L. Richardson were united in marriage Saturday evening, September 21, by Rev. E. A. Smith, at his home on Fifty-seventh avenue, in the presence of the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Inez Richardson and Mrs. E. A. Smith.

Both of the young people are well known in Lents. Miss Berry was for a number of years employed in the Herald office, and Mr. Richardson is in the army service, at present studying in the Benson Polytechnic, where he returned Monday morning, his furlough expiring on that date. Being a war bride, Mrs. Richardson will retain her position in a down-town printing office and will make her home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Berry, at 9403 Fifty-seventh avenue southeast.
