IT ECHOES IN BERLIN

Every steel steamship turned out in our hundred and more shipyards has more than a million rivets, and the rat-tat-tat of the riveters' "guns" swells in chorus with the clicking of the machine guns in France to drown the dying German cheers over their submarine exploits.

The clinking dollars of the Fourth Liberty Loan will add a shriller voice to that chorus and further lower German morale.

It's easy to cheer for our boys in France. Make your dollars shout in the Fourth Liberty Loan. Germany will understand their voice without translation.

OBITUARIES

Harold Franklin Ball.

Harold Franklin Ball was born February 2, 1889, at Toledo, Ohio, and departed this life September 18, 1918, at Portland, Oregon, having reached the age of 29 years 7 months and 16 days. The first eight years of his life were spent in Toledo. From that city he came with his parents to Portland and here he continued to live until the time of his death. He is survived by his parents, Professor and Mrs. Sheldon F. Ball, two sisters Kathryn and Elizabeth, and one brother, Everett. The father is principal of the new Franklin High School.

The life of this young man was unusually promising and his death comes as a severe trial and disappointment to his relatives and friends. Gifted with a vigorous mentality he became especially brilliant in his school work, particularly in mathematics. Having graduated from the Arleta Grammar School and the Lincoln High School, where he completed with honors in four years two special courses, he spent a successful year at Reed College. At this point a change of plan in his life work led to his entrance of the Oregon Agricultural College at Corvallis. Here, notwithstanding a failure of health, he made another splendid record, and although compelled by his physical disability to return home at the close of the first term, he left the school with the distinction of being one of the two highest students in his class.

Harold was a Christian boy, being a member of the Kern Park Christian Church and in the days of his health taking an active part in the religious activities of the young people. He was baptized by Dr. John I. Brant, a prominent minister among the Disciples of Christ, who years before had baptized Mr. and Mrs. Ball at Toledo, Ohio, Harold's baptism being ministered at one of the evening sessions of the great National Convention which the Disciples of Christ held in Portland in 1911.

Brief as it was, Harold's career was a precious investment. His example of diligence, fidelity, thoughtfulness, cheerfulness, and particularly his brave and patient endurance in his last sickness and suffering, will not fail to be an inspiration to all who knew him.

"The Lord gave and the Lord taketh away: blessed be the name of the Lord."

HAROLD H. GRIFFIS,

Pastor of the First Christian Church.

Mrs. Arvilla Robinson.

Mrs. Arvilla Robinson passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Joseph Hartwig, Wednesday afternoon, September 18, at the age of 85 years. Funeral services were held Friday afternoon at the Kenworthy chapel on Ninety-second street, Rev. L. B. Jones, pastor of the M. E. Church, delivering the sermon. Burial was at Mt. Scott Park Cemetery. Many loving friends gave floral tributes to the departed mother.

Arvilla Smith was born in Franklin County, New York, in 1832. She was united in marriage to Thomas Robinson at Bloomingdale, N. Y., in 1856. To this union eight children were born, three of whom survive, Mrs. Nettie Hartwig, Mrs. Nellie Dilley and Mrs. J. C. Mauck, all of Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Robinson moved from Neilsville, Wis., to Lents in 1903, where they have to the present time made their home with the family of their daughter, Mrs. Hartwig, and where Mr. Robinson continues to reside.

Miss Ruby Rice.

Miss Ruby Rice died at the family home near Firland September 9, after an illness of over a year. The funeral was held on the 11th at the A. D. Kenworthy funeral parlors in Lents, Rev. O. W. Taylor having charge of the services. Mrs. Harvey Blakesley sang beautifully her favorite hymn.

Miss Rice was a member of the St. Paul's Episcopal Church and choir and a regular attendant as long as she was able. Her mother, two sisters, Blanche and Mildred, and four brothers, Virgus, Elmer, Lewis and Glenn, are the immediate family of the deceased.

BRIEF NEWS OF ARLETA

Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Teeny are very proud of their twin sons, Louis and Nicholas, who arrived only two weeks ago. The youngsters weighed five and six pounds, respectively. The lusty little fellows bid fair to do credit to their patriotic parents, who are of Syrian birth.

The state convention, October 9 to 11, will be held at Grace M. E. Church, Twelfth and Taylor streets. Delegates to this convention are: Mrs. S. J. Merry, Mrs. Laura Farris and Mrs. Stella Wilson; alternates, Mrs. Sarah Cauthorn and Mrs. Minnie Arp.

A special Rally Day program will be given Sunday morning at the Arleta Baptist Church, commencing at 10:30 o'clock. This service will take the place of the usual preaching service. Each department of the school will take part and the pastor, Rev. W. Garnet Handley, will give an address on the theme, "Our Utmost for the Highest." The service will be an appeal for loyal, patriotic, unswerving and self-sacrificing service in this time of crisis. At 8 P. M. the subject will be, "Big Business." Stirring music will be rendered by the large choir under the leadership of Professor C. M. Godfrey.

The regular meeting of the Arleta W. C. T. U., held at the Library Tuesday afternoon, was well attended. Reports showed good work in all departments. The Union has 34 paid-up members and closes the year free from debt. Delegates to the county convention, which will be held at First M. E. Church South, on Multnomah street and Union avenue, October 2, were elected as follows: Mrs. S. J. Merry, delegate at large; Mrs. Stella Wilson, Mrs. Lily Terry and Mrs. Mary Fishburn; alternates, Mrs. Lucy Lockwood, Mrs. Pratten and Mrs. Minnie F. Collins.

YOU may have noticed that optometrists talk more about "EYES" and "EYESIGHT" and "SERVICE" than they do about glasses.

This because optometrists have something more important than glasses to talk about.

Any optical place is supposed to have eyeglasses and not carpets or furniture.

Optometrists naturally attach more importance to what you want when your eyes trouble you—which is comfort and satisfaction and quality and service.

That's what you get from competent optometrists. Glasses are the tools, and the frames and the mountings, the mechanical contrivances, which properly and scientifically handled, bring comfort and satisfaction.
