

LOCAL AND PERSONAL BRIEFS

F. P. Coulter, 5936 Ninety-second street, made a business trip to Gresham Tuesday morning.

Mrs. W. Mumbal, of Gills Landing, Wis., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. L. E. Minott, of Lents.

Patrolman P. G. Anderson is about the busiest man in Lents. His latest occupation is tacking up "flu" quarantine signs.

Mrs. Inez Gulliks entertained Mr. and Mrs. J. Pardee Howe, of Seattle, last week. Mrs. Howe is a niece of Mrs. Gulliks.

Mark R. Mayo, who is stationed at Bremerton navy yard, spent his five-day furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Mayo.

Charles Blakley, who has been visiting his cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Robinson, of the Yeager theater, left Sunday for California points.

James T. Bloyd, of Kelso, Wash., and Don R. Bloyd, of Seaside, Ore., visited a couple of days last week with their brother, H. E. Bloyd, and wife.

New subscribers to the Herald this week are Mrs. Otto Heckel, Mrs. Katie Weber, C. P. McGrew, P. C. Anderson, E. E. Parker, A. W. Johnson and Fred Geisler.

The Christian Endeavor society of the Friends church will hold their long delayed business meeting Friday evening of this week at the pastor's residence, 6027 Ninetieth street.

New arrivals from Calgary, Canada, Loyd Hodge, Earl Oughton and Chris Burch, are stopping with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hodge. They expect to locate here.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Mayo, 9635 Fifty-ninth avenue, returned Tuesday morning from a week's visit with their son, H. Claude Mayo, and family at Walla Walla, Wash.

Miss Mildred Oliver, of La Grande, who has been visiting her cousin, Mrs. Fred Geisler, for a few days, left Saturday to take up her studies at the University of Oregon at Eugene.

Mrs. R. E. Thomas received a letter from the doctor at Salem where Mr. Thomas has been in a hospital for some time, stating that Mr. Thomas was recovering and will soon be home.

C. W. Cutting and family autoed out to their ranch near Hood River Sunday. They left here at 7 a. m. and made the run in three and a half hours. Mr. Cutting found everything in splendid shape.

Mrs. Inez Gulliks and mother, Mrs. Wagner, left Saturday morning for a visit with relatives at Grannis Mill, Wash. Mrs. Fred Hodge has charge of the millinery store during Mrs. Gulliks' absence.

Mr. and Mrs. Burke Beeman and little son James, of Kearney, Neb., arrived Saturday evening for a two months' visit with Mrs. Beeman's parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. S. McSloy. They formerly lived in Lents but have been making their home in Nebraska for a couple of years.

Mrs. John Engberg, who went to Camas, Wash., to spend the Christmas holidays with her sister, contracted influenza while there and is reported as very low. Mr. Engberg and little son are at home ill with the same malady.

Rev. W. Aubrey Wilson, evangelist and lecturer, filled the pulpit at the Methodist church Sunday evening, and delivered a stirring sermon on "The Field, the Work and the Workers." Mr. Wilson has recently located in Lents and is already billed for several series of evangelistic services during the coming spring and summer.

J. N. York, of Fifty-sixth street and Thirty-first avenue S. E., is home on a 30-day furlough on account of the death of his father. Mr. York is in the navy and on board the U. S. destroyer Cummings, the first vessel to get a German submarine with a depth bomb. He leaves on the 10th of the month for New York to resume his duties. The family formerly lived in Lents.

Mrs. John Riley, a former pastor of the Lents Friends church, now located with her husband as pastor of the Friends church at Entiat, Wash., is renewing old acquaintances in Lents this week. She came last Tuesday week and is the guest of Mrs. Tamplin, of 5322 Eighty-second street. She will return to Washington soon to attend a conference in Seattle, but is expected back in Lents to the ministerial conference the last part of the month.

sisters who are left behind: "Waste no time in useless re- pining for me, but on with the work for God and humanity."

W. C. T. U. NOTES

The next meeting of the local W. C. T. U. will be with Mrs. R. N. Shinn, 9503 Fifty-ninth avenue, Tuesday, January 14, at 2 p. m. All members are urged to be present. Visitors are always welcome.

The funeral of Mrs. Lucia Faxon Additon was held at the Evangelical church, Lents, Wednesday, at 2 p. m. The officiating minister was Dr. Reece, assisted by Mrs. Mattie Sleeth, president of the state W. C. T. U. Other prominent officers of the state union were present. Honorary pallbearers represented the women's clubs of which Mrs. Additon was a member.

Although Mrs. Additon had no relative present to mourn her loss, many friends and co-workers will miss her keenly. This feeling was manifested in the many beautiful flower tokens which rested upon and beside the casket. Her peaceful face seemed to speak to us, her

WATSON and KENDALL

Mr. and Mrs. Hays, of Seventy-first avenue S. E., have recently bought an automobile.

Miss Ida Yokelle has been threatened with pneumonia for some time, but is now able to be out again.

Mrs. Calvin Everson, Eighty-fourth street, has been confined to her bed with a serious cold. Her two small sons were also sick, but all are recovering.

George Yokelle, whose home is at Fargo, N. D., has been visiting his wife and daughter for a short time. He owns a large garage in Fargo and has returned home.

The Stork has brought a baby girl to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hipperson, of Sixty-seventh avenue, near Eighty-second street. They now have four children, two boys and two girls.

Little Patricia Harrow has been quite sick with the prevailing ailment, but is better.

Quintin Fletcher, of Seventy-first avenue, had the real "flu," and was quarantined a couple of weeks.

Mrs. William Porter, young widow of that gallant soldier who gave his life for the cause of liberty, is now making her home with his aged parents, as they were alone, their only remaining son, Harry being in an aviation station in New York.

Mrs. Matt Flier, 6655 Eighty-second street, gave a Christmas dinner for the members of her family, all being present except her son, George, who is on his way to the Hawaiian Islands. Mrs. John Carr, of Clackamas, mother of Frank Harrow, has been very low with pneumonia, but is now out of danger.

Lieut. Estelle, of the Vancouver aviation corps, has been transferred to Des Moines, Iowa, and will take 500 men with him to be trained in that line. He enlisted in the regular army when but 15 years old, saw service in the Philippine Islands and Mexico, and is disappointed he did not get to go across before the war ended. Mrs. Estelle, his recent bride, formerly Miss Pearl Flier, 6655 Eighty-second street, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Matt Flier, started last Wednesday on a visit to relatives of both parents in St. Louis, Mo. When Lieut. Estelle secures a furlough he will take his wife to visit his parents in Michigan.

"Yes, I'm going on the stage. I hope to play Juliet."
"Well, think twice before you act mce."

A PATIENT MAN

Cholly—You told me over an hour ago that your sister was in.
Willie—So she was, but she went out with another fellow a while ago.

DOWN ON LAWYERS.

"I have here, sir, a book on 'How to be Your Own Lawyer.'"
"Don't want it. What's the sense in a man learning how to rob himself?"
