

LOCAL AND PERSONAL BRIEFS

W. H. Williams, formerly of 6623 Eighty-eighth street, now resides at 1188 Mixer street.

Mrs. Chas. Christensen is visiting her mother, Mrs. W. E. Conrad, at Phoenix, Arizona.

R. L. Robertson has moved his family from Washougal, Wash., to 10338 Fifty-fifth avenue.

Mrs. Clyde Sager returned Saturday from a trip to Cosmopolis, Wash., where she visited her aunt, Mrs. Olive Douglass.

Miss Eva Wirtz came out from town Sunday and spent the day with Mrs. Frank Sanders.

D. W. Gardner, who has been living at 6536 Eightieth street, has moved to 7626 Sixty-second avenue.

R. E. Hearst has removed with his family from 6305 Eighty-ninth street and is now at home at 5806 Forty-fourth avenue.

Mrs. Al Forte and daughter, Kathleen, of Montavilla, spent the day Tuesday with Mrs. Olive Forte.

Mrs. C. C. Klinget, who formerly lived at 6030 Eighty-ninth street, has moved to 7126 Fifty-fourth avenue.

Mrs. Engberg, of Lents, who was stricken with the "flu" while visiting her sister in Washington, has returned home and is improving slowly.

Mrs. P. J. O'Donnell and mother, Mrs. W. M. Quinn, visited Mrs. Frank Toering, 1702 McKenna street, Tuesday.

Lieutenant Fred Peterson is now stationed at Havre, France, one of the ports of embarkation for troops returning home.

E. Sheets and family have moved back to Lents from 1005 Hawthorne avenue. They are living at 5424 Ninety-first.

Mrs. Guy Sanders is here from Wallace, Idaho, visiting her sister, Mrs. C. P. McGrew, of 5351 Eighty-eighth street.

Mr. Patterson, of Camp Lewis, visited E. L. Rayburn, Fifty-sixth avenue and Eighty-seventh street, last week. He expects his discharge soon and is anxious to get back to Portland.

Robert Heckel came down last Saturday night from Camp Lewis and spent Sunday with his brother, Otto Heckel, east of town. Mr. Heckel expects to be mustered out of the service in about two weeks.

Mrs. Mary Hayden, of Hankinson, N. D., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Olive Forte, at 8912 Sixty-sixth avenue. Mrs. Forte had not seen her mother for seven years. She hopes to keep here here till next summer.

Fred Geisler, assisted by another party, administered a spanking to Art Geisler in celebration of his thirty-seventh birthday, at the drug store last Friday. The proceeding was enjoyed by a large crowd.

J. Rosenau, of 9532 Fifty-ninth avenue, is the new proprietor of the Mt. Scott bakery, on Foster road, formerly owned by G. A. Meyers. Mr. and Mrs. Rosenau have lived in Lents the past five years.

Henry Johnson, of Forty-eighth avenue and One Hundred and Sixth street, has been confined to his bed for the past three weeks suffering from the effects of gas inhaled from a locomotive which was passing under him on the Steel bridge. Mr. Johnson was working in the tower above the railroad tracks on the bridge.

Mr. Wodenbaugh, who works at the Independent Foundry, had his feet badly burned while pouring molten metal last Monday. He was taken to St. Vincent's hospital but is expected home in a few days. He lives on the Scheuler place east of town.

Johnson creek reached flood stage Sunday and spread out over the low lands northeast of Lents Junction. Except for parts of Foster road being under water and some of the passengers who take the Mt. Scott cars at the Junction having to go around to One Hundredth street, no damage has been done.

meeting three pupils of our school received one thrift stamp each for neat work and the general appearance of their scratch tablets. The fortunate ones were Dorothy Makelin, and Gillis and Oskie Cooper, and the school is proud of their achievement.

HAPPY VALLEY

Mr. Odum is at home sick.

J. D. Hutchinson is setting out 30 acres of small fruits on the land he has leased from Mr. Ulrich and Strickrott.

Two boys with wheels stole the battery out of J. D. Hutchinson's Buick, causing him some expense and lots of trouble.

Lewis Spady died last Friday in a Portland hospital of influenza. He was buried in Rose City cemetery beside his sister, who died two weeks ago of the same disease.

Lost

An Eastern Star pin, between Odd Fellows Hall and Forty-ninth avenue, on Ninety-second street. Finder please notify Mrs. O. A. Hess, phone Tabor 3336.

The Bellrose Community Club dances are discontinued until further notice on account of influenza.

Don't borrow your neighbor's paper. He wants it to read. Otherwise he would not subscribe for it. . . .

Did you ever notice that when you call a number by telephone you get every number but the one you want? . . .

Striped socks have gone out of fashion and the handsome butcher boy ought to tie the end of his pants down. . . .

A drygoods merchant told us the other day that fancy hosiery sells better in windy weather than on rainy days. . . .

The young lady who received a handsome ring for a Christmas present is trying to make her friends believe it is her engagement ring, but it isn't. . . .

Would it not be a good idea if the Portland Railway, Light & Power company would hire a phrenologist to locate the bumps on the road between Lents and Anabel? . . .

A prominent citizen went up to a soda fountain the other night and asked a friend to take a drink with him. "I've just had one," said the friend, "but if you don't mind I'll take a lead pencil." And he did. . . .
