

SNAP SHOTS

Fred Katzky is going to order a new set of pants, latest Paris design, as soon as he can find a tailorshop ad in The Herald.

John Eggiman claims he is the best looking young man on Ninety-second street. "Doc" McCloy nominates himself for second choice.

Nearly every modern convenience can be found in Lents, but so far we haven't seen or heard any indications of a barber shop quartet.

Postmaster Henderson is trying to get an appropriation from congress to carry an ad in The Herald. He says he knows it would increase his business "wonderful."

Help Boost Your Town Along

Help your town along by boosting. Wear a bright and helpful face. Do not be forever roosting somewhere near the wailing place. You can't help your town by knocking if it's in a backward groove, but some optimistic talking will help things move. In the mud one town was sticking, evidently anchored there, for the citizens were kicking, all were dishing up despair. All were groaning o'er their taxes, shedding teardrops in a stream, all had hammers, clubs and axes, ready for each helpful scheme. So the burg sat rooted till a booster landed there; soon the trouble seat he spotted, saw the fungus in the air, and he jarred the village croakers, stirred them up to hump along, till the place was full of jokes and the breezes full of song. The natives forsook the habit of bewailing this and that, and the timid merchant rustled like a tri-colored cat, and they all turned in kerwhooping, singing forth the village praise, and that little burg, lately drooping, filled the knockers with amaze. Now this story, as true as preaching, shows what one man can do, if instead of screeching, he yells, "cockadoddledoo!" For you stimulate the knockers every time you give three cheers, and the harvest of your labors will be reaped in future years.

GILBERT ITEMS

The Ladies' Aid society gave a ten-cent tea at Mrs. Davis' home Thursday.

Mrs. Mooney is suffering this week from a sprained ankle. It is hoped she soon will be able to be out again.

Mrs. A. F. Swanson and little daughter, Edith, visited with Mr. Swanson in Seattle from Friday to Monday of this week.

Earl Guiness, whose parents formerly lived on the Gilbert road but who now live at 346 Williams avenue, has received his discharge from the navy and visited his uncle, O. B., and family last Sunday. Earl has completed a year's service as a gunner on the transport Leviathan and made ten trips to France during that time.

Ford Hopkins, of Bellrose and Miss Helen May Marlow were married at Vancouver, Washington, January 18. Rev. Skagg, officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Stokes were on Ninety-second street Thursday, after having been confined to their home for several weeks with the influenza.

Clarence Peterson received his discharge from Camp Lewis Wednesday and is visiting his sister, Mrs. H. N. Henricksen of 6031 Ninety-ninth avenue.

LENTS CHURCHES

EVANGELICAL

Day of Prayer

The general Woman's Missionary society of the Evangelical church has appointed Sunday, February 2, as prayer day for missions. This will be observed at the Lents Evangelical church next Sunday. Rev. N. Shupp, the pastor, will preach a missionary sermon on "Thy Kingdom Come." This should be a day of real prayer. It is suggested that the members of the family meet for prayer, or two or three families may arrange to have a period of prayer in the afternoon. A free will offering will be taken.

Father and Son Week

The Lents Evangelical church at the general counsel meeting decided, in conformity to the general movement and the proclamations of Governor Withycombe and Mayor Baker, to observe Father and Son Week, February 11 to 17. The importance of closer comradeship between father and son can not be too strongly emphasized. It is a movement in the right direction in this reconstruction of the world period. It should be rapidly gaining scope and effectiveness. The Y. M. C. A. national headquarters prepared a general outline plan for the occasion. The local church appointed an executive committee consisting of E. M. Scheuerman, chairman; R. W. Reynolds, J. L. Scheuerman, Mrs. M. Tri-nary, Mrs. Florence Wharton, who are arranging a program. Look out, this committee will have something up their sleeves for the fathers and sons. Let the fathers and the sons be on the lookout for the program on Wednesday, February 12; you may have to defend yourself against some challenge.

Evangelistic Services

Rev. W. A. Willson, D. D., an evangelist, will preach at this church next Sunday evening at 7:30. Rev. Willson has a ripe experience in the evangelistic field. He has recently been engaged at Sellwood in a series of evangelistic meetings but the influenza conditions made it impossible to continue. Come and hear a live old man.

BAPTIST CHURCH

Sunday school at 9:45. Good music.

Preaching at 11 a. m. Subject, "Creation and Recreation." Young People's meeting at 6:30

"The Man Who Never Grows Old" will be the evening subject.

Prayer meeting Thursday evening.

He Wasn't Interested

"What's the matter with that kid," inquired a neighbor, "that makes him hang back that-away while all the rest of 'em are mingling round to hear what's coming off?"

"Aw, he hain't interested," replied Gap Johnson, of Rumpus Ridge, Arkansas. "He was taking his bath in the wash biler beside the stove last night, and when he got out he stepped on the soap, slipped up, cut a parable in the air, set down on the stove, and got himself branded 'Hot Wave.' The other children have been bullyingragging him a good deal about it, telling him that he's got his title on backward, and such as that, and he's wrung his neck trying to see for himself till he hain't got much curiosity left."

He Wasn't Killed

Here's a London story they credit to Harry Lauder: A special constable, on relieving his mate at night, was alarmed to find him with a pair of black eyes, a broken nose and other marks of conflict.

"Gawd, yer in an 'orrible state," he exclaimed. "Wot 'as 'appened?"

"Well, t'was like this," the mate replied, "yer know that 'ardsome little widdler that lives down yonder at the corner—the one 'ose 'usband was killed at Gallipoli?"

"Yus, I know 'er."

"Well, 'e wasn't!"

Magistrate—You can take your choice, 21 shillings or 10 days.

Prisoner (still in a foggy condition)—I'll take the money, your worship.—Tit-Bit.

Teacher—Do you know that George Washington never told a lie?

Boy—No, sir; I only heard it.

Bertha Mae—So you told Paul of your love?

Sister Clara—Well—ah—not just exactly that—we just went through the motions.—Awgwan.

Guest—Why do you give your daughter such an awful nickname as "Misery"?

Host—Because she loves company.—Judge.
