Preaching service 7:30. Theme, "The Boy that Made Good."

From the 8th to the 16th, Boy Scout week, also father and son week. It is the time for dad to get acquainted with his boy. The pastor will treat these subjects in prayer meeting and church service.

FRIENDS CHURCH

Harry Hays, the well-known evangelist, who held meetings in the church a number of years ago with great success, commenced a series of meetings Sunday. The time set is 7:30 each evening and 11 a. m. Sunday in addition. Meetings are planned for two weeks. Mr. Hays is a forceful speaker, an unusually good preacher, and holds the attention of his audience every minute. His anecdotes and illustrations are interesting and to the point, and he varies his program once in a while by singing and playing his own accompaniment. Those who heard him at both services Sunday were well pleased with him. The local church is praying much for an outpouring of the spirit and the conversion of souls. All are welcome to our services. Arrangements are being made to hold afternoon services during next week.

We are glad to note that one of our members has opened up a barber shop on Foster road. We wish him well.

Two "Young" Old Men
Lents can not only boast of handsome men—women, too—but also of

Mr. Ames has sold his grocery store at Foster road and Sixty-seventh street, to Mr. Corns. Mr. Ames expects to go to San Diego, Cal., soon for his son, Henry's health.

Miss Elizabeth Hyde, who went to Portland about two weeks ago for a visit, has decided to remain and has enrolled as a student at Franklin high school. — Clatskanie Chief.

The little daughter of C. J. Larson, of 6203 Eighty-second street, was run over and her foot badly injured while roller skating on the street this week.

R. E. Thomas, of 8113 Sixty-sixth avenue, arrived home last week from Salem, where he has been undergoing treatment at a hospital. Mr. Thomas has fully recovered his former good health.

Fred Geisler has become tired of splitting fir knots and is installing a Quaker heating plant in the basement of his residence, which he expects to enjoy the balance of the long winter evenings.

Mrs. Margaret A. Moreland, the mother of Dr. C. E. Moreland, who formerly lived in Lents, died at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, 533 Miller avenue, Sellwood, January 25. Mrs. Moreland was 74 years of age.

The Lents branch of the Red Cross is now receiving articles for that organization. Old papers, rags, bottles tin cans, etc. The papers and bundles must be securely tied, bottles clean, and cans with tops only will be received. Temporary storage at the office of the Herald.

Mrs. L. Johnson, is in receipt of a letter from her son William, of Company E 127, 32nd Division, stating that he had been wounded with shrapnel while in the Argonne Forest, but would be able to join his division next week which expects to leave for Germany immediately. He also stated that he had seen Clarence Johnson of Lents.

Multnomah County Sunday School Convention will convene at the Anabel Presbyterian Church Sunday, February 9. Rev. Hubert, State Secretary, Prof. Ewing, Superintendent First Presbyterian S. S., and Miss Viola Johnson are the leading speakers. Each person attending is requested to bring sandwiches, doughnuts or salad.

On Wednesday evening, February 12, the Lents Evangelical Church will celebrate Father and Son movement. A most excellent musical program will be rendered from 7:30 to 8:00 o'clock to which all are invited. After which fathers and sons of church members will be entertained at a supper served in the basement parlors.

the youngest old men on the Pacific Coast. They are the Rev. N. Shupp and Rev. W. Aubrey Wilson, both ministers in regular and active work. The first named is doing full work as pastor of the Evangelical church on Ninety-second street, and the latter is working full time as evangelist, preaching and lecturing. Their combined ages, 76 and 78, are 154 years. Rev. Shupp has been 53 years in the ministry and Rev. Wilson 56, aggregating 109 years. Both are in vigorous health, and as a coincidence, these two veterans occupied the rostrum together at the memorial service last Sunday night at the Evangelical church. Long may they live.
