

News Items of Arleta-Kern Park Neighborhood

James S. Everett White of Sixty-third street, S. E., near Millard avenue, spent part of the week-end out of town with his parents.

Ernest R. Butcher, Sixty-seventh street and Millard avenue, has returned home from Camp Lewis, where he was mustered out of the service.

Mrs. Albert Millsap, 1235 Taggart, made her regular professional calls in the Arleta and Kern Park neighborhood last Saturday. Mrs. Millsap is a teacher of piano.

Mrs. Susan Tidball is confined to her home at 5412 East Sixty-ninth street, S., with a renewed attack of a long-standing malady. She is able, however, to be about the house.

Mrs. Mary Fishburn, of Firland, who returned about ten days ago after a serious operation at the Portland hospital, is so much improved that she is able to be out again.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Reineking, of 4832 Sixtieth street, S. E., have returned from Port Angel, Wash., where Mr. Reineking, a civil engineer, has been in business since last spring. Mrs. Reineking will resume her vocal studies with Prof. J. A. Hollingworth at the Arleta Studio of Music.

W. H. Gillis, who for the past six years has been a grocer in Arleta, is reducing in a ten-days' sale his stock of goods, preparatory to moving to San Diego, Cal. He is going there in the hope that the southern climate will prove a benefit to his wife. Mr. Gillis has sold his business to Messrs. I. G. Purdin and E. E. Southard.

The all-day convention of the Rebekahs will be held at Silver Leaf lodge, Killingsworth avenue and Albina, on next Tuesday, the 25th. Luncheon will be served there by local restaurants. A large turn-out of Mountain View lodge is expected. On account of the bad weather last Saturday night there was a very poor attendance at the Mountain View rooms, and it is urged that the members make an effort to attend next Saturday evening, the 23rd.

The Woodmere Parent-Teacher association meets regularly at the school building every Tuesday from 2 to 4 p. m. for Red Cross work. An invitation is extended to the ladies of the vicinity to join the association and help. Since the cessation of war activities there has been a lack of workers and the president, Mrs. Geo. D. Stoner, urges the ladies to renew their efforts. This parent-teacher association has missed only one program meeting this fall, and that the November one; the attendance is now about up to normal again.

The Nippon Florists, 3715 Sixty-third street, S. E., have been adding gradually to their plant till now they have nine greenhouses, four of which were built last fall. They are now contemplating the installation of a patent ventilating device. While they have many and beautiful varieties of flowers, they are, on account of the war-garden demands, specializing in vegetables, particularly tomatoes and cabbages. At the rear of the greenhouses is a little Japanese garden made in hollow-rookery fashion with stones and shrubs and running water, and even the proverbial rustic Japanese bridge being there. The manager of the business is T. Inuvika.

The father-and-son banquet was held at the Anabel Presbyterian church last Thursday evening. About 55 were present. James S. Ewing, superintendent of the First Presbyterian Sunday school, gave a talk on Lincoln's boyhood; Mr. Goff, of the Westminster Presbyterian, spoke on "The Social Relations of Father and Son"; John Wakefield, of Anabel, told of the kind of son he would like to have; and Richard Averil told what kind of father he admires. Music was furnished by the Brown orchestra from Woodstock, and by a soloist of the Canadian aviation corps. Prof. A. J. Prideaux, as toastmaster, introduced each number on the program with most entertaining humor.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Laurelwood M. E. church gave a valentine social at the home of Mrs. M. J. Onslow, 5245 Sixty-seventh street, S. E., last Friday evening. The house was decorated with valentine colors and symbols and with flags. The guests went to a valentine postoffice to get their mail and were then required to rise and read the sentimental verses on the valentines. A short program included a vocal solo by Miss Sarah Buell, the singing of liberty songs by the crowd, and a series of selections on the splendid victrola loaned for the occasion by Harry Fross. The ladies auxiliary are using all means to pay their pledge on the parsonage fund, and this social was one of them, the amount taken in being six or seven dollars. While the occasion was in reality a grown-up-folks one, Miss Mildred Onslow had as her guests of the evening the following: Frances Gilbert, Arlington Crum, Avon Dean, and Esther Hollingworth.

The Arleta W. C. T. U. will be hostess to all white ribboners of the county, and to the ministers and their families of the Arleta district, on Tuesday, February 25, at Lucky cottage. Ten-minute talks on the life of Frances Willard will be given at the lunch hour by the following: Rev. W. Lee Gray, Millard avenue; Rev. Mrs. J. J. Handsaker, Arleta; Rev. Rupert A. Moon, Kern Park; Rev. John A. Nelson, Anabel; Rev. A. C. Brackenbury, Laurelwood; and an Arleta Baptist church representative, Mr. Freeman Harford. The afternoon program will include as speakers Mrs. Madge Mears, state secretary of the W. C. T. U.; Mrs. Callbeck, of Hermiston; and Mrs. Helen Harford, lecturer and long-time W. C. T. U. worker. The music will be in charge of Mrs. Lotta Greene Murray and Mrs. Mattie Barzee. Mrs. George Merry, assisted by Mrs. Lillie Perry and Mrs. Eva Laurence, will be the presiding genius of the lunch table.

FIRLAND

Mr. Smith and family, formerly residing on a farm near Sherwood, have moved into the house at 4418 Seventy-fifth street recently vacated by the Jensen family.

A number of the residents of this district went to the Westminster Presbyterian church Sunday night and were delighted with the address of Henry Van Dyke, one of the speakers of the conference of the League to Enforce Peace. The church was packed to capacity and many people were turned away.

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Presnall, who have spent the past month at the home of their daughter, Mrs. B. A. O'Mealy, have returned to their home at Brighton, Ore. On the way home while sitting by an open window on the railway car, Mr. Presnall had an arm badly injured by the car window falling upon it. He was incapacitated for the performance of his duties for a week.

A number of the children of the Joseph Kellogg school have joined the goat club and went to the Union stockyards Saturday to buy goats. The children say they are going to help fight the high cost of living by providing milk for the family very cheaply, as "nanny goats" eat old shoes, rags and tin cans, all of which commodities are quite plentiful and very cheap. Tony Stery, of Seventy-ninth street, was unfortunate in holding a number above 210, as only that number of goats came in the shipment. The purchasers are entitled to purchase in the order of the numbers drawn at the schools. Tony had to return without a goat.

HAPPY VALLEY

Roy Zinser visited homefolks over Sunday.

A baby boy came to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Deardorf Saturday, February 15.

Leon Bischof, formerly of Happy Valley but now of Lents, visited Miss Paterson Saturday.

Mr. Henderson's hat blew off and went floating down Johnson creek the other day, but after a short chase it was recovered.

CARD OF THANKS

On behalf of myself and children I desire to thank all the friends who so kindly assisted during the illness and after the death of Mrs. Manz. I wish to especially thank the members of the Odd Fellow and Rebekah lodges, and all who sent the beautiful flowers.

EYESTRAIN

is not exactly a defect, but a condition resulting from neglected defects. It is really overstrain of the eye muscles because they are so closely related with the nervous system and is the cause of great trouble and discomfort.

At the first symptoms of eyestrain have your eyes examined.
