M. E. CHURCH

W. C. T. U. NOTES

The Mt. Scott W. C. T. U. was highly favored at its meeting Tuesday by the presence and address given by Mrs. M. L. T. Hidden, of Portland. "What Francis E. Willard Would Do If Alive Today" was the subject. Pushing the various lines of W. C. T. U. work is, of course, what Miss Willard would do. Most important of these just now is the million-dollar drive to be started next month. One great feature for which part of the million dollars will be spent is founding a hospital for those rendered helpless by the war. President Wilson's work for peace and the league of nations was eulogized. World peace and world prohibition come next.

Mrs. Jasper and Mrs. Sells rendered fine selections of music to the delight of all present.

Illness and the stormy day kept the president and social superintendent at home so that part of the plans for the meeting failed, but those present declared it was a "feast of reason and flow of souls."

An offering of $2.70 for the Willard memorial fund was taken.

Place and subject for next meeting will be given next week.

The public school is the great training ground for the future citizens of our republic and it is the duty and privilege of the state to faithfully teach the nature of alcohol and its effects on the human system; while innocent childhood has an unquestioned right to receive from the educators of the commonwealth the truth concerning this vital subject.—Frances E. Willard.

EVANGELICAL CHURCH

W. M. S. Social

The Woman's Missionary society and Mission Band of the Evangelical church at Lents will give a social at the church next Wednesday evening, March 5, at 8 p. m. There will be an entertaining program given consisting of reading and music. Refreshments will be served after the program. A hearty welcome is extended to all. Come and enjoy the evening with the ladies and Mission Band. Have an enjoyable time.

Personals

"Look a little out" for Leon Bischoff. He goes quite frequently clear over into Happy Hollow, and he does it so cheerfully.

Isaac Ginrich thinks of making a hit in the logging camp near Camas, Wash. If he can't hit a job as cook or donkey engineer he can hit a tree at all events.

Ruben Morterud makes his new Ford purr like a kitten back of the parsonage. I wonder if he has any object in doing so?
