ST. PAUL'S EPISCOPAL CHURCH

St. Paul's church will hold its usual services during Lent. Holy communion, first Sunday in every month at 8:15 a. m.; other Sunday at 4 p. m. Evening prayer and sermon. Litany and short address in church every Wednesday during Lent at 3 p. m.

It has been decided to hold the Guild meeting during Lent at the home of Mrs. Samuel J. Allen at Woodmere, as being near the church. Members and friends are invited to bring their lunch and after meeting all go to church for service. The Guild is gaining in members. All were glad to welcome Mrs. Ellen Forey and Mrs. A. S. Boyd at our last meeting.

Bishop Sumner and Rev. Taylor were Lent's visitors last week, looking over suitable sites for a church. A lot owned by Dr. McSloy on Main street is being considered; also one owned by Arthur Geisler.

Mrs. O. E. Lent and Mrs. A. L. Goodwin entertained St. Paul's Guild and friends at a pre-Lenten tea at the home of Mrs. Lent on Wednesday last. A musical and literary program was given and much enjoyed. Reading, Mrs. Nelson; paper by Mrs. Jean Glover; Little Dois Crary Allen, just turned three years of age, sang two songs and responded to an encore giving much pleasure to those present. Short talk on church in Panama, by Mrs. Brady. Remarks by Rev. O. W. Taylor, and Bible chapter recited by J. C. McGrew concluded the programme, after which dainty refreshments were served. The hostess was assisted by Mesdames Morris, Askey, Nelson and Goodwin. A neat sum was added to the treasury, and the ladies went to their homes with the memory of a delightful afternoon and wishing Mrs. Lent would open her hospitable home again in the future.

Mrs. J. M. Knight of state board of Daughters of American Revolution, accompanied by Mrs. S. J. Allen of Susanah-Lee-Barlow chapter, D. A. R., recently visited the Mt. Scott district, spending the afternoon with Mrs. Arthur Geisler. A new chapter will soon be found in this district. All those having Revolutionary ancestry can notify Mrs. O. E. Lent or Mrs. Samuel Allen, and they will be pleased to assist them in preparing their papers and sending them to Washington, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Askey have moved from the Lent building at Grey's Crossing to Portland.

Several members of Mountain View lodge of Arleta visited Eureka Rebeccah lodge on Friday night to greet grand officers, and much enjoyed the courteous treatment of the Lents lodge.
