COMMUNITY PROGRAM
GIVEN AT KELLOGG

Friday evening, the 14th, under the auspices of the South Mt. Tabor Community club, a very interesting program was given in the assembly room of Kellogg school. The opening number was an address by President E. E. Gilmer. This was followed by the singing of the "Star Spangled Banner" by the audience; the flag salute, led by little Geo. Root; a song of welcome, by Kellogg neighborhood children; a song by Miss Dorothy Wright; reading by little Miss Dorothy Farley; song, "Take Me Back to Rockaby Land," by the junior members of the club; a reading by Mrs. Chas. Fulman; two songs, "My Own United States," and "A Little Bit of Honey," by Miss Alice Johnson; a reading, "The Mustard Plaster," by Miss Buena Margason; an instrumental solo, by Miss Dana Small; and a campfire ceremonial drill, against a stage background of Indian furnishings, led by Miss Margaret Hart, guardian. During the ceremonial Mrs. Elmer Rand, most effectively disguised as an Indian woman, gave most cleverly an Indian reading and song. It is the intention of the South Mt. Tabor Community club to have weekly Friday evening entertainments for the purpose of stimulating community interest and activity. Mrs. Geo. G. Root, the efficient chairman of the evening, was ably assisted by Mrs. Bruce Polworth.

SO. MT. TABOR COMMUNITY CLUB ORGANIZED

The old South Mt. Tabor Improvement club has been revived under the name, "South Mt. Tabor Community Club." It has for its object the general betterment of the neighborhood, including street improvements and lighting service. Its members are hoping for the accomplishment of bigger and better things. Officers are: President, E. E. Gilmer; vice-president Geo. Chilsen, and secretary-treasurer, G. E. Abrams. Friday evening, March 28, the club will give a cafeteria dinner at the Kellogg school house, followed by a program, a social hour and a business meeting. It is reported that the dinner will be under the management of two local noted black chefs. Mrs. Geo. G. Root, who is active in promoting this dinner, will be assisted by Mesdames Bruce Polworth, J. W. Smith, C. H. Blanchard, G. E. Abrams, Geo. Chilsen and E. E. Gilmer.

Missionary Society of M. E. Church Met at Lockwood's

The Missionary society of Laurelwood M. E. church held its regular meeting at the home of Mrs. W. D. Lockwood, 4504 65th St., S. E., on Wednesday afternoon, the 12th. The devotionals were conducted by Mrs. Ella M. Vast; the study class for the day was under the direction of Mrs. H. N. Michel, and the business session was presided over by Mrs. Bales. The ladies are following the general idea of the great centenary movement as outlined by the Methodist church, and so the idea of prayer as a foundation for the centenary activities in the missionary work was emphasized. After the serious work of the afternoon was over, Mrs. D. W. Lockwood, hostess, gave some selections on the player piano. The afternoon was concluded with tea "and things." The silver offering taken will be added to the fund for local missionary work. These ladies are planning to send $20 to the old people's home in Salem. This home is financed by the different missionary organizations of the state.

Girls' Athletic Association Elects Officers, Adopts Name

The Arleta Girls' Athletic Association recently elected the following officers: President, Jean Prather; vice-president, Margaret Mollett; secretary, Frances Jones; gym leader, Edna Fox. The association has adopted a unique name, "Fugahe," formed by taking the first two letters of each word of the association slogan, "Fun, Games, and Health." The "Fugahe" now number about 15, and are anxious for more members. Any girl over 13 years may join. Besides volley ball, the athletics include many other gym games.

League of Nations Endorsed

At a recent church service of the Laurelwood Congregational church, resolutions were adopted endorsing the League of Nations. The resolutions were proposed by Mrs. Sadie Orr Dunbar. Miss Margaret Hart, clerk of the church, assisted Mrs. Dunbar in getting the papers ready for mailing; one being sent to each of the two Oregon senators, one to the Peace League, and one to the president.

Next Sunday morning at the Laurelwood M. E. church the monthly missionary service. The exercises will be in charge of Mrs. A. M. La Bare, Sunday school superintendent of missions.

Harry Taylor, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Taylor, 3929 63d St., S. E., returned home about a week ago from the Hawaiian Islands, where he has been stationed at Honolulu in the service for the past two years.

The Women's Gym Class meets regularly every Tuesday evening at the Arleta gym. Mrs. W. H. Knapp is instructor and Mrs. Donna pianist. All ladies who wish physical "toning up" are invited to join.

Miss Alice Gibbs, of Ionia county, Mich., was a guest last week at the home of her cousin, Mrs. Geo. Lewelyn, of 77th St., S. E.

Millard Avenue

Mrs. W. Holmes, 57th Ave., and baby have returned home from the hospital. Little Helen Virginia is two weeks old now and doing nicely.

Little Billie Younger, son of Mrs. E. L. Younger, has been very ill for several days. They are guests of Mrs. Younger's sister, Mrs. M. H. Usher, 7819 57th Ave.

Mrs. Hamilton Cooke Jr., and little daughter, Mary Jane, of Butte, Mont., were the guests of her sister, Mrs. Harry Usher, 7819 57th Ave., the past week.

"Grandma" Hollingworth is feeling quite well recently. The spring sunshine and early spring flowers are cheery to her and she enjoys the calls from her many friends each day.

Mrs. M. Holcomb and little daughter are visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. O. H. Gilbert, 4928 71st. Mr. Holcomb is seriously ill at the Good Samaritan hospital. Miss Ruby Pound, another sister of Mrs. Holcomb, is his special nurse.

Everyone is glad to see Benton L. Yost home again with his happy family. In spite of his dreadful experience, Mr. Yost is looking fine, and says "Good old Oregon looks good to me." Mr. Yost is one of the survivors of the torpedoed Tuscania.

The Arleta Union of W. C. T. U. will meet at the library Tuesday. They have planned a special program on modern health crusade. A speaker will be out from headquarters and a fine afternoon will be spent. Come and bring a friend.

At the regular congregational meeting of the Millard Avenue Presbyterian church, presided over by Rev. J. Emil Nelson, of the Annabel church, Rev. Lee W. Gray was elected pastor of the church for the ensuing year. Friends hope for his speedy recovery.

Rev. J. Emil Nelson, pastor of the Annabel Presbyterian church, exchanged pulpits with Rev. Lee W. Gray, pastor of Millard Avenue Presbyterian church, last Sunday morning. A large attendance was present, who enjoyed the sermon and the special music by the choir.

The old Nash building on 72nd and Millard avenue was purchased recently by E. Burke, who has converted the entire building into a garage, filling station and repair shop. This is one of the best real estate deals in this district for some time, and it is going to enliven that corner to a great extent.

Carveth Wells recently gave an illustrated lecture at the Millard Avenue church. Mr. Wells, who was sent by the English government, has lived in the jungles of the Malay Peninsula for the past six years. He showed the native garb of the people and all about their life and habits. The lecture was given under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid society of the church.

Mrs. Fred McKinley gave a very prettily appointed luncheon at her home, 7704 63d Ave., last Monday afternoon. Her delicate color scheme was carried out with beautiful violets and daffodils. Covers were laid for seven guests, including Mrs. C. W. Frazier, Mrs. F. Digman, Mrs. R. R. Whiting, Mrs. Ethel Younger, Mrs.

Do Figures Lie?

IT'S AN OLD SAYING, "FIGURES NEVER LIE," BUT IS IT TRUE?

$25 In Rewards Offered by Gary Motor Truck Agency Disproving Contractor's Figures but Approving His Business Judgment

There was a contractor who employed six Irishmen by the year as teamsters, but they kicked, "too much work; teams too slow; too many hours," etc., so the contractor figured it out to them thus:

There are 365 days in a year; eight hours for work, eight hours for sleep and eight hours for leisure each day. Eight hours per day amounts to 122 days in a year, which, taken from 365 days, leaves 243 days. Eight hours leisure per day amounts to 122 days, which, taken from 243, leaves 121 days. From which take the 52 Sundays, leaves 69 days.

Now, there are 52 Saturday afternoons off, which makes 26 days, which, taken from 69, leaves 43 days, from which deduct 15 legal holidays, which leaves 28 working days; but every man gets two weeks' vacation on full pay, which, taken from 28, leaves 14 days; and as every man has an hour each day for dinner, which amounts to 13 days in a year, there is only one day left. This day happened to be St. Patrick's day and the Irishmen refused to work on St. Patrick's day, so the contractor arranged for a couple of GARY TRUCKS to take the place of the six teams and drivers and so settled his labor troubles and solved his hauling problems without a strike or lockout and to the entire satisfaction of all concerned.

If you want to know more about MOTOR TRUCKS and SOLVING HAULING PROBLEMS, and want proof that "figures don't lie," drop a card requesting catalogues, terms and prices on GARY MOTOR TRUCKS to the

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE

N. B.: To the best answer to the foregoing narrative, showing why the contractor was wrong in his figures, but right in his conclusion to install GARY MOTOR TRUCKS in place of teams, we will award an order on the publisher of this paper good for $10 in advertising. To the second best answer we will award an $8 order, and to the third a $7 order. These orders good only on new future advertising, not on old contracts or bills, and we will publish the winning letters in this paper. All answers to be in by April 1.
