W. C. T. U. NOTES

The "Million Dollar Drive" is now on. One million dollars and 1,000,000 new members this year is the cry of the National Women's Christian Temperance Union. Oregon's share of this would be $7,500, but following the example of California we are going to raise twice that amount, on a fifty-fifty basis—one-half for Oregon, see? When County President Mrs. Gilbert told of how Multnomah county is pledged to raise one-third of this, or $5,000, Mt. Scott Union rose to the occasion in like spirit, and said "we will do our part."

What is this money to be used for? Work for world prohibition to the extent of $300,000.

Shall we drive John Barleycorn out of this land, only to see him settle upon our weaker neighbors? If the yellow peril threatens us now, what will it be if China becomes a nation of drunkards, as the brewers would have them be?

Americanization—That means making all our foreign population thoroughly American, so that in the future there will be no pro-German or pro-anything-else, but loyal Americanism.

Moral Education—This is where we join hands with Uncle Sam in advocating the necessity of the "white life for two," or the single standard of morals. Former County President Mrs. Mallett, now of the juvenile court, gave us a lot of information and inspiration along this line at the county institute held in the Community church, First and Caruthers, Thursday of last week.

Mrs. Peterson rallied nicely and appears now to be out of immediate danger.

These are only a part of the work to be done, and already being done, by the national and state Unions. Get ready to give and keep the ball a-rolling.

IN A YARD IN LENTS
Just inside the fence
Of a yard in Lents
Is a bit of beauty reappearing unbidden;
Like all good, it can't long be hidden.
'Tis the lowly crocus and daffodil—
Lowly in growth, but in beauty, grand;
The woe of the greenward
That's the work of God's hand.
A herald of spring, with blossoms fair,
The first flowers to greet Lents' thornfare.
They wait their perfume on the breeze,
Under gnarled limbs of old fruit trees,
That are biding their time to lend their beauty
To take part in the law of natural duty.
They stand as if on guard
O'er all that grows within this yard.
