

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Clyde Sager and family moved on Tuesday to Grandma Sager's property at 6227 Ninety-sixth street.

Mrs. G. Balensifer came down from Wallace, Idaho, to attend the funeral of her brother, F. W. Gillman, Monday.

John Eggiman has vastly improved his residence by putting in hardwood floors and giving the house a new coat of paint.

Mrs. Helen Banton has moved out from the city to 8836 Fifty-sixth avenue S. E. She has bought the property and is repairing the house.

Mrs. G. W. Hartung and son, of Missoula, Mont., are visiting Mrs. Hartung's father, J. H. Meyer, and sister, Dorris Meyer, at Lents Junction.

A. Fochlinger, of Sellwood, who owns property on Sixth avenue, was in town Tuesday. He is thinking of locating here with his family in the near future.

John Whitlock arrived in Lents from France Monday, and spent the day at the McGrew and Lent homes. Chester McGrew took him to his home at Silverton.

Mrs. Elvina Sager is expected to arrive home soon from Hutton, Calgary, Canada, where she has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Kemp, for the past year.

Mr. and Mrs. K. Wilcox, of Myrtle Park, are newcomers in Lents. They have bought the Page property at 8982 Fifty-sixth avenue and are now nicely located there.

I. P. Fossler, of Ninety-second street, was taken to Good Samaritan hospital last Friday and underwent an operation on Saturday. He is still in a critical condition.

Mrs. Blackburn, of Grays Crossing, suggests that those who have a yard should plant a few extra flower seeds to grow blossoms to hand to some one who has no place to plant.

Cyril Spinney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Spinney, of Fifty-sixth avenue and Eighty-ninth street, arrived home last week. Mr. Spinney has been in the aviation service of the army.

Arnold Eggiman has installed an electric range in his home, put in gas water heater, hardwood floors, painted his new garage and otherwise remodeling and improving his property.

John and Arnold Eggiman and families and F. Ehrlich and family motored to Silverton Sunday and spent the day with Reuben and Albert Eggiman, and their sister, Mrs. Kaser, on the old home ranch.

Mr. Bernal, of Eightieth street, reports having seen a white bird with dove-colored flecks on the sides of its neck, and in size and shape resembling our common robin. Information about this bird will be appreciated.

W. Aubrey Wilson is home for a day of two. He preached to large audiences last Sunday at Aumsville, Marion county. He will leave again this week-end to preach and lecture for the First Christian church at Independence, Polk county.

The Woodmere Band of Mercy suggests it is time to place water where the birds can get it. The more birds we coax to our premises the fewer insects we will have to contend with. The gartersnake is also valuable as an insect destroyer.

Mrs. Fred Hodge is now assisting Mrs. Gulliks in the millinery store. Ladies have found Mrs. Gulliks' store to be one of the best stocked and best managed in the district, and a real convenience in that they can secure what they want right at home without a tiresome trip to town.

Little Mary Murphy, whose parents live on Eighty-fourth street, started out to see the world Wednesday morning. She got as far as the hall in the Yott building where Mrs. McSloy found her and took her in and cared for her till her mother could be located.

District 45 Parent-Teacher association will meet Friday, April 11, at the Gilbert school house. A song, "I Sing Because I Love to Sing," and a play by the health crusaders will be given by the pupils of Miss Davis room. Child welfare will be discussed by Mrs. A. F. Fligel. Everybody come.

Mrs. Edith L. Russell passed away at the family home, 5336 Eighty-seventh street S. E. Wednesday, March 26, after suffering intensely for many weeks from cancer of the liver. The last sad rites were held at Kenworthy's chapel and she was buried at Multnomah cemetery. She is survived by her husband and a daughter living at Boise, Idaho.

ANNOUNCEMENT

J. P. Ritter, successor to Walter Blackburn at Grays Crossing, wishes to assure the former patrons of this store that their wants will be carefully attended and their patronage will be greatly appreciated.

Next Sunday the Friends Christian Endeavorers will meet with the Evangelical C. E.'s in a union meeting.

The fellowship meeting last Friday night proved to be a very pleasant evening. The church was transformed into a pleasant parlor with rugs and chairs, tables, potted plants and a piano. A pleasant, friendly half hour was spent getting acquainted with each other, after which a program of about one hour's duration followed, consisting of songs, readings and piano music, Mrs. Kinney and her pupils furnishing most of the music. After the program cocoa and cake were served and everybody went home happy and tired.

The following Sunday school officers are to be installed next Sunday: Superintendent, C. C. Barker; assistant superintendent, E. R. Tamplin; secretary, Bertha Barker; treasurer, Murry Hunt; primary teachers, Wilda Mann, Gladys Bass; intermediate, Dorris Mann, Pearl Baldwin, Martha Isler; juniors, Florence Erskine; high school class, J. Allen Dunbar; ladies' class, Anzonette Dunbar; men's class, Alvin Thomas.

Those shadow brim hats of lace, net, jet and braid at the millinery store on Ninety-second street are wonders. Ask Mrs. Gulliks about them.

Dr. Lyons, well known dentist of the South Mt Tabor district was buried at Cornelius, Washington county. A number of residents of this district attended the funeral.

Mrs. Blanchard, of 6713 Powell Valley road, entertained the Ladies Aid of the Tremont United Brethren church Wednesday afternoon.

The United Aroisians will give a dance at the Grange hall on Ninety-second street, Wednesday evening, April 9th. The public is cordially invited.

W. C. T. U. NOTES

Mt. Scott W. C. T. U. meets next Tuesday, 2 p. m., at the home of Mrs. R. N. Shinn, 9503 Fifty-ninth avenue. This will be a meeting of importance, hence all members are urged to be present.

By means of "loss of employment" propaganda, opponents of national prohibition are endeavoring to arouse among the workmen of America a feeling of dissatisfaction with and antagonism to the 18th amendment. By holding before them the fear of unemployment, they hope to cause a labor panic.

The number of men engaged in the business of manufacturing and selling alcoholic beverages has been rapidly decreasing during the last few years and is now not large in comparison with the great army of workmen. In 32 out of the 48 states, as well as in large sections of the remaining 16 states, the drink trade is outlawed and no man earns his living thereby.

Reports from every section of the country indicate that the breweries and saloons have no intention of going out of business; they are simply readjusting their plants and buildings for legitimate purposes. These new enterprises in which they are about to engage will need the services of the men who have heretofore been employed, and in some cases will require even a larger number. Saloons which are being transformed into soft drink emporiums or restaurants will find places for their bartenders as waiters; breweries which are being changed into packing houses or dehydrating plants will desire the services of the men they have formerly employed.

Epworth League Rally

Members of the Epworth League should be sure to make plans to attend the great Epworth League rally at the First M. E. church, Portland, Saturday, April 5, 3:45 to 9 p. m. Fine inspirational speeches will be delivered and the entire Epworth League centenary program discussed.

A reconstruction rally will be held at the Tremont United Brethren church Sunday night. The rally will take the combined time of church and Christian Endeavor. The speakers of the evening will be Dana Hendrickson, Mrs. Gains, Charles Guthrie, Alfred Guthrie and Alfred Frey. Special musical numbers will be given by the choir.
