

News Items of Arleta- Kern Park Neighborhood

In a baseball game last week Woodmere beat Creston 36 to 2. Woodmere baseball team played Lents yesterday at 3:30 on Woodmere diamond.

The Woodmere store was slightly damaged by fire last Thursday afternoon, caused by a defective flue. Born, on April 12, an eight-pound baby boy to Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Barton, of Fifty-seventh avenue S. E. Miss Ruth Ashley and her mother, Mrs. Reed, have gone east for an extended visit with friends and relatives.

Robin Reed is in the hospital convalescing from an operation. He is getting along nicely and glad to see his friends.

For the past week the Laurelwood M. E. church has been having special pre-Easter services. The singing has been in charge of Mr. and Mrs. Dunsmore.

Mrs. O. H. Gilbert, 4928 Seventy-first street, S. E., returned last Monday night from Grants Pass, where she has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Minerva Holcomb.

At the Millard Avenue Presbyterian church "the famous Mrs. Jarley" with her wax portraits will give a very entertaining program Wednesday evening.

Besides those already mentioned as participants in the South Mt. Tabor Community club function last Friday evening, were Messrs. Chas. Fullman, J. J. Murray and Mr. Stanfield.

Mrs. Geo. G. Root, president of the Franklin High Parent-Teacher Association, as a member of the Franklin Parent-Teacher visiting committee, visited Kern Park school last Tuesday afternoon.

Messrs. Russel and Miller, two G. A. R. men, gave entertaining addresses in the assembly hall of the Woodmere school last Wednesday which were greatly appreciated by the teachers and pupils.

Mrs. O. H. Gilbert and sister, Mrs. Minerva Holcomb, and little daughter, have returned from eastern Oregon where they have been closing up business affairs prior to Mrs. Holcomb's making Portland her new home.

Mrs. R. B. Culver, of Seattle, visited at the home of her sister, Mrs. G. E. Lewellen, of 5806 Seventy-seventh street, during the past week. Mrs. Culver was the guest last Friday of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Walter Culver, in Montavilla.

The intermediate society of Endeavorers of the Millard Avenue Presbyterian church will have a party Saturday evening, April 19, at the home of Miss Eva Spooner, on Eighty-second street. All members and friends invited.

Mrs. C. P. Blanchard, pastor of the Fourth United Brethren church, spoke last Tuesday afternoon in room A at the Central Library in the interests of the Victory loan. The address was made under the auspices of the Christian Science club.

The lawn social given by the Junior Endeavorers of the Third United Brethren church last Friday afternoon was a success financially and the funds will be used for local purposes. W. H. Smith is director of this branch of the church work.

Since April 6 the Nazarene church, Sixty-seventh street and Sixty-fifth avenue, S. E., has been holding special services under the leadership of the Matthew and Lewis Band. These meetings have had good results so far, and they will continue till Easter.

At the Laurelwood M. E. church next Sunday morning the Easter program will be in three divisions, primary, intermediate and senior. The senior division of the Easter program will be composed of missionary selections and one of the leading attractions will be a violin solo by Miss Pearl Gerlach.

At the Fourth United Brethren church next Sunday morning there will be an Easter program under the auspices of the Sunday school, chaired by the superintendent. In the evening there will be a program by the Christian Endeavor, of which Alfred Frey, president of the Endeavor, will have charge.

FRANKLIN P.-T. TO GIVE PROGRAM TO PATRONS TUESDAY

Debate and Address Are to Be Features of Afternoon Event.

Next Tuesday afternoon, April 22, the Franklin High Parent-Teacher association, under the capable leadership of Mrs. Geo. G. Root, will present to its patrons a very interesting program. The opening number will be a piano selection by Mrs. Allan Smith, from Chicago, who is in her eighty-second year. Mrs. Smith recently entertained, from memory, the Willamette Chapter of the D. A. R. with a 22-page variation of "Ben Bolt." She is the daughter of Mrs. Robt. Wright of North Mt. Tabor.

There will be a debate by members of the Franklin High on "Resolved, That the United States should advocate international police for the league of nations." The affirmative will be represented by Leonard Roberts and Edward Joy, the negative by Evelyn Smith and Ruth Sevan.

Other interesting features will be the address by Mrs. A. J. Marsh on "Nurses' Training for Girls," and a piano solo by little Miss Barbara Chilson.

The president, Mrs. Geo. G. Root, is anxious that the patrons of the school should attend this most promising program.

Miss Neva Burns Passed Away Monday Morning

Miss Neva Burns, 4920 Seventieth street, S. E., died at her home early Monday morning. The funeral service was held Tuesday afternoon. Miss Burns recently underwent a serious operation as the result of influenza complications.

Monday of this week the family of Rev. W. Lee Gray, pastor of the Millard Avenue Presbyterian church, moved from 7520 Sixty-third avenue to 6930 Millard (Fifty-fifth) avenue. The house vacated by Mr. Gray will be immediately taken possession of by Prof. T. D. Kirkpatrick, city club leader of boys' and girls' agricultural work.

Good Friday Program at the Kellogg School

At the Kellogg school this afternoon, the 18th, there will be a Good Friday entertainment under the direction of Mrs. Charles Fullman. Among some of the good things to be presented are the following:

Harp solo, Harriet Tryon.
Solos from "The Crucifixion," including "He Made Himself of No Reputation," by Geo. W. Chilson.

An interpretation of the Easter Lily, by Edna May Root.
Piano solo, Clyde Fox.
Piano duet, Louise Davis and Barbara Chilson.

Pantomime presentation of "Jesus Lover of My Soul," by Mrs. A. V. Driscoll, accompanied by a quartet.

At the Fourth United Brethren church this afternoon, the 18th, there will be an Easter egg hunt for the little folks. Each child is to bring an egg or two and then is to hide them in nests here and there about the premises. The kiddie who finds the most eggs will receive a little prize. Mrs. C. P. Blanchard is chief instigator and promoter of the pretty plan.

At the Third United Brethren church next Sunday morning the Easter exercises will be in charge of the Sunday school. There will be a short address on "Risen Indeed" by the pastor, Rev. E. O. Shepherd, at the close of the program. In the evening the pastor will speak on "None Other Name."

The Fourth United Brethren church, Tremont, has been in the hands of a refurbishing committee, under the chairmanship of Mrs. C. P. Blanchard, which cleaned, kalsomined, painted and varnished. A new rostrum has been added to the front of the church auditorium, and a new organ to the choir equipment.

Miss Nonette Younger spent the week-end with her cousin, Marian Usher, 7819 Fifty-seventh avenue.

Why go to town and wear yourself out looking for hats when Mrs. Guliks has just what you want right here at home at about half the price you pay down town?

Subscribe for the Herald, $1.50.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Ray Page, of East Moreland, spent the day last Sunday with friends in Lents.

Lloyd and Victor Johnson, of Stuart station, visited friends in Lents Sunday.

Mrs. R. J. McCollum and Mr. and Mrs. P. O. Daniels visited Mrs. Mary McDowell last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hildreth, of Kern Park, spent Monday evening at the Tillman home.

Mrs. Mary McDowell, 9024 Foster road, is able to be out after an illness of eight weeks.

Dr. Emma M. Wickstrom visited at the home of Mrs. McDougall on Ninetieth street last Sunday.

H. E. Bloyd, formerly cashier of the Multnomah State Bank, was calling on friends in Lents Tuesday.

The United Artisans will give a dance at the Grange hall on Ninety-second street on Wednesday evening, April 23.

C. Calvert and family moved from East Gilbert road Tuesday of this week to a 20-acre ranch which they have purchased near Hillsboro.

Mrs. T. Y. Cadwell left Sunday for the east to attend a family reunion in Boston and to visit relatives and friends in Chicago and vicinity.

The baby boy of Robert Chapman, of Ninety-second street, was taken to a hospital last week for an operation. He is still in a critical condition.

Mrs. P. L. Wadley and Mrs. C. M. Morse, of Anabel station, took luncheon with Mrs. A. E. Kenworthy, of 8911 Fifty-third avenue S. E. Wednesday.

Mrs. Ruby Campbell, of Watertown, S. D., is visiting her aunt, Mrs. McDowell. Mrs. Campbell is contemplating settling in the Portland district.

A reckless automobile driver ran into the fence in front of A. Wright's place at Sixty-fifth avenue and Eighty-second street this week, badly wrecking the fence.

Mr. and Mrs. Greves attended the dance given by the Myrtle club last Monday evening. Mr. Greves is manager of the Staples jewelry store on Morrison street.

Mrs. Maude Johnson has returned to Wheeler. She visited her mother at the time of the death of her sister, Mrs. Essie McCollum. Mrs. McDowell was ill in bed at the time.

Gresham chapter of Eastern Star put on the degree work for Mt. Scott chapter Thursday evening. After the business of the evening refreshments were served and a social hour enjoyed.

Dr. and Mrs. McCloy entertained members of the "Nut" club at a midnight lunch Saturday night. The guests declare that all the good things in the world to eat were served them.

The dance given by the Myrtle club of the Lents grange Monday evening was a most enjoyable affair. They will give another dance on Monday evening, April 28.

Sergeant Harry M. Burnham spent a 15-day furlough in Lents, and to his surprise saw his picture at the Peoples theater commanding a balloon company for some official exhibition at Arcadia balloon school.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Tillman, 6221 Ninetieth street, entertained Lyma Tillman and wife, of Portland, and Miss Evelyn Carnes, of Sixty-third street, at dinner Thursday, April 10, in honor of Clarence Tillman's birthday.

At 7 p. m. next Sunday the Epworth League will be led by Edwin Norvone, lately returned from France. Following this service the pastor will give stereopticon views of India, accompanied by members of the congregation dressed in native costume.

Mrs. W. Aubrey Wilson, of Eighty-seventh street, has been ailing for some time. We regret to learn her condition is such that Mr. Wilson has had to cancel several important lecture dates and evangelistic engagements at distant points from the city.

About 40 members and officers of the various Artisan assemblies of the city attended the meeting of the Lents Artisans Wednesday evening and put on the degree work. Six new members were initiated. They were treated to a very fine banquet and the rest of the evening was spent in a social way.

Lents grange met Saturday, April 12, with an unusually large attendance. The third and fourth degree work was put on in the morning and the drill team did especially good work. Dinner was served at noon and a very interesting program was given in the afternoon under the direction of the lecturer, Miss Myrtle McNeil.

A stork shower was given Mrs. P. A. Bristow, of 1204 East Harrison street, last Wednesday. She was the recipient of many beautiful and useful presents. Ladies from Lents attending were Mrs. A. E. Eggiman, Mrs. John Eggiman, Mrs. McNeil, Mrs. J. C. Bristow and Mrs. Erlich. Other ladies from the Hawthorne district were Mrs. Dan Green, Mrs. R. Dye, Mrs. Geo. Green, Miss Leona Frye and Mrs. Wm. Eggiman.

Ed Boyd, of the Lents Mercantile company, brought to the Herald office two gold coin potatoes, each weighing 3 1/2 pounds. When cut into two equal parts the hollow in them made the hole in a doughnut look like 30 cents. The potatoes were grown in Idaho by Mrs. Viola Marks, formerly a clerk for the company. Mrs. Marks should experiment in filling the inside of the potato, and if successful the spuds ought to average about nine pounds each and surely would be a fortune for her.

HAPPY VALLEY

Hanna Becker is improving very nicely.

Pearl Rebstock, of Portland, spent Sunday at home.

Royal Zinser, of Dallas, visited his parents Sunday, April 13.

Eather Rebstock comes out from Portland every Sunday to visit home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Zinser returned home Saturday from an extended visit in California.

MILLARD AVENUE

Mrs. G. W. Bethers passed away April 10 at the family residence, 5411 Seventieth street S. E. The body was taken to California for burial, where funeral services were held Tuesday, April 15.

On Wednesday morning, April 16, a fine nine-pound baby girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. George Hamill, who reside at Sixty-seventh street and Fifty-fifth avenue.

Dr. I. N. Woodie has moved from 5417 Seventy-second street to the new home he has purchased at 7203 Fifty-fourth avenue.

The United Artisans have discontinued the dancing parties they have been giving at Myrtle Park hall for the season.

TREMONT

Guy Kimble is enlarging his store building at the corner of Seventy-second street and Sixty-fifth avenue.

Multnomah county has extended the macadamizing of Seventy-second street from Sixty-fifth avenue north to Tremont station in the last week.

Mrs. Joe Brierly, of 5264 Sixty-ninth street, entertained the Friday Afternoon 500 club April 11. Mrs. Mary Lockwood won first prize, a hand-painted bon-bon dish, and Mrs. Litzel, second prize, a Nipon china dish.

WOODMERE

Mr. Tucker, father of Mrs. Elbon, of Eightieth street and Sixty-first avenue, who has been in the hospital for an operation on his eye, is at home again and able to be out.

E. O. Jones, of 7412 Sixty-second avenue, underwent a very serious operation at Good Samaritan hospital Tuesday, April 15.

Rev. Lee Gray, of the Millard Avenue Presbyterian church, has moved from Woodmere to a more convenient location near his church at 6930 Fifty-fifth avenue.

Mrs. M. K. Haynes has moved from 5643 Eighty-third street to her new residence at 268 East Thirty-fifth street.

Cortez Valentine returned from France Wednesday evening, laden with souvenirs of all descriptions. His complete was as urprise to his mother and friends.

Under New Management

I have purchased the Meyer's Garage and Machine Works where I will be pleased to meet all of the old patrons as well as new ones, as I am prepared to do all kinds of repairing on the shortest notice possible.

Will test Generators and Storage Batteries by a New Method once a month for $10.00 per year.

ELECTRIC WIRING AND IGNITION FIRST-CLASS

Day and Night Service. Autos for Hire---Storage

MEYER'S GARAGE AND MACHINE WORKS

J. OLLMAN, Proprietor

Foster Road and Darrin Ave.

BET. LENTS AND LENTS JUNCTION

Phone Tabor 3109

Lents, Portland, Oregon

