MISS JOHNSON AND HOMER CARLTON MARRIED SUNDAY

Last Sunday evening after the Easter service had been concluded at the Laurelwood M. E. church and the congregation had dispersed, a quiet wedding ceremony was solemnized in the presence of immediate relatives and a few friends. The bride was Miss Pearl Johnson, native of Cayce, Ky., and the groom was Homer L. Carlton, originally from Texas. The officiating clergyman was Rev. A. C. Brackenbury, pastor of the Laurelwood M. E. church. On account of the recent death of Miss Johnson's sister, Mrs. John Zimmerman, the number of those present at the wedding was limited to the following: Mr. and Mrs. Luby Hargrove, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Sexton and Mrs. Diel.

Mr. and Mrs. Carlton will be at home to their friends after April 30 at their residence at 7219 Fifty-fourth avenue S. E.

MILLARD AVE. LADIES GAVE PROGRAM 16th

The ladies of the Millard Avenue Presbyterian church gave an entertainment Wednesday evening, April 16, at the church. The famous Madame Jarley presented four living photographs of four of the presidents' wives, the living likenesses being Mrs. Harry Usher, and the Misses Mary L. Forbes, Myrtle Brock and Tyler. An interesting program was also given consisting of the following:

Piano solo, Mrs. Lewelyn.
Recitation, little Pauline Jones.
Vocal solo, Harry Frass.
Orchestration by Arlington Crum, Roy Bowen and Francis Kenworthy, accompanied by Gladys Crum.
Vocal solo, Miss Fern Mahan.
Reading, Mrs. Meta Snider.
Following the program the ladies served ice cream and cake in the basement dining room of the church.

Special Easter Services At Millard Ave. Church

At the Sunday morning service at the Millard Avenue church the Easter events which were observed included the rite of baptism; the sacrament of the Lord's supper; the reordination of an elder, James Wiseman, and the reception of new members. The pastor, Rev. W. Lee Gray, spoke in keeping with the great thoughts of the day, and the choir, directed by Prof. J. A. Hollingworth, sang an alleluia number.

Mrs. Lina Jasper, of Lents, who is studying with Prof. Hollingworth, sang "I Know That My Redeemer Liveth," from the Messiah.

New Books Recommended by Librarian at Arleta

Miss Wil Hutchinson, librarian at the Arleta branch, recommends these books, with comments:

"On the Battle Front of Engineering." This is a fairy tale of science featuring actual triumphs of American engineering. A. Russell Bond is the author.

"The Desert of Hate," by Zane Grey, is a vivid story of the wheat country and through it all runs a splendid romance.

Joseph Hergesheimer has written "The Java Head," which is a novel of the American merchant marine. It is laid in Salem when the city was still a port rich with the traffic of the East Indies.

John Hastings Turner has written "Simple Souls," a story of action. Things happen from the prompt start to the extraordinary finish.

Woman's Purse Stolen At Arleta Postoffice

Last Saturday afternoon Mrs. Sarah Cauthorn, 4816 Sixty-fourth street S. E., was the victim of a petty theft. She had absent-mindedly left her purse on the writing shelf at the Arleta postoffice, and when, having remembered the place where she had the purse last, she went back to the office, she was told that a small boy had described the purse, representing it as the property of his aunt and had been given the purse. The change in the purse amounted to a little less than $2.

At the Easter exercises at the Laurelwood M. E. church last Sunday evening the class of Mrs. C. O. Sexton, a group of little girls, gave one of the most satisfactory numbers on the program.

PROGRAM TUESDAY UNDER AUSPICES OF FRANKLIN P.-T.

At the Franklin High Parent-Teacher meeting last Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Allan Smith, a delightfully and entertainingly alert lady of 82 years, gave a piano solo. There was an address on "Nurses' Training Course in the High School for Girls" by Mrs. R. J. Marsh, herself a trained nurse; a short Liberty loan talk by Mrs. C. W. Hayhurst; a song, "Annie Laurie," by little Miss Barbara Chilson, and a debate on the question, "Resolved, That the United States should advocate international police for the league of nations," by Leonard Roberts and Edward Joy for the affirmative and the Misses Evelyn Smith and Ruth Sevan for the negative. At this meeting the nomination of officers for the coming year was made. The meeting was under the chairmanship of the capable and enthusiastic president of the Franklin Parent-Teacher association, Mrs. Geo. G. Root.

Easter Exercises at Kern Park Christian Church Given by the Little Folks

The Easter exercises at the Kern Park Christian church last Sunday were given by the members of the junior congregation under the direction of Junior Superintendent Mrs. M. Francis Swope. Some of the leading features were a recitation by little Miss Lillah Ivie; a very pretty drill by the junior congregation as a whole; an exercise including Olive Dickinson, Mildred Fishburn, Elizabeth Ball, Ellen Smith, Ralph Elle, and Doris Gordon; and a dialogue by a number of the littlest folks. The pianists were Helen Woodward and Kathryn Ball. At the close of the program the pastor, Rev. Rupert A. Moon, gave a short talk, and then administered the rite of baptism to several candidates for membership. A noticeable feature in the church decorations were the beautiful crepe-paper lilies made by Mesdames M. Francis Swope, Joe Shick, Will Ivie and L. H. Fishburn.

Kellogg School Scouts Plan Outing Saturday

The boy scouts of Kellogg school, troop 32, went to the Lincoln High pow-wow last Saturday evening under the supervision of Scoutmaster Geo. W. Chilson. This pow-wow was held in the interests of the Victory loan, in which all scouts will take an active part. As a volunteer organization, the scouts have done more than any other in getting subscriptions in the government drives. This may be the more readily understood when it is realized that there are half a million scouts in the country. Troop 32 is planning to go on a hike to the Clackamas next Saturday, and its general plans include a baseball team. The scouts of this troop are rapidly passing the tenderfoot tests and so are getting their suits. They are counting on having a second-class scout troop before the summer is over.

Arleta School Faculty Entertained in Honor of Newly-wed Teacher

The Arleta school faculty entertained in honor of one of their number, Miss Emma Reuter, whose wedding was a recent event. The luncheon was served in the sewing room of the school, the color scheme carrying out a yellow motif. Miss Louise Jones drew the lucky cut of cake which contained the ring, Miss Reagan the cut with a coin, and Mrs. Pruden the cut with the tumbler. Mr. Speirs made the presentation speech when Miss Reuter was presented a set of silver spoons as a token of esteem from her fellow workers of the school. Miss Reuter married Alexander C. Shives, of Timber, Ore., and they will make their home at that place.

Mrs. Geo. G. Root, representing the Franklin High; Mrs. W. H. Buxton, of Glencoe school; Mrs. Jack Flecher, of Couch school, and Mrs. Ed. Palmer, of Montavilla, were visitors at the Couch school Parent-Teacher meeting on Wednesday, April 16, and at Sunnyside on Thursday. The ladies, who have been exchanging visits with the members of the parent-teacher organizations of the various schools are, according to Mrs. Root, finding their outlook widened and their interest in school work stimulated.

Woodmere Girl Married at Hillsboro on Monday

Miss Ethel Knowlton, daughter of Mrs. Milbank, of 8020 Sixty-second avenue, and Melvin Haynes were married at Hillsboro last Monday, where they will probably reside. Mr. Haynes is a returned soldier, having served in France for the past year.

Mr. and Mrs. Quam moved last Saturday from 5607 Seventy-first street S. E. to a new home which they have purchased at Firland.

The loyal workers of the Christian church met for their regular sewing session at the church last Tuesday afternoon.

The Arleta Parent-Teacher association will hold its regular election of officers the second Friday in May. Mrs. Myra Zehring, the president, is hoping for a good attendance at this very important meeting.

HIS WAY OF LOOKING

The Preacher—I suppose you consider gambling debts debts of honor?
The Gambler—That depends. When they are due me I certainly think they are debts of honor.

WHO SHE WAS

She—Go is me?
He—Oo's my 'little snow-white dove'.

PROPER VEHICLE

Bangs—It's a fine day for riding—overhead.
Wangs—Yes. We ought to have an airship.

PROPER MAXIM

"Yes, I'm going on the stage. I hope to play Juliet."
"Well, think twice before you act mee."

Try a Tricorn.
Stop to think how often a certain clerk in the bakery department of a certain downtown store helps you to decide on a round marshmallow cake or a square chocolate in preference to a three-cornered devil's food.
"Look at the tricornes left again," snickered the white-aproned diplomat.
"Never catch me routin' for tris; too hard to wrap."—Indianapolis News.
