The Ladies' Aid society will meet with Mrs. O. B. Guisness for work on Thursday, May 1.

A young cyclone swept through the Midland acre tract, on East Gilbert road, last Saturday afternoon, uprooting trees on Mr. Julius Heidt's place and demolishing a barn on the old Hood place. The barn was picked up and carried over the fence into the adjoining field before being wrecked. No other damage was done in the neighborhood so far as could be learned.

The Ladies' Aid of Bennet Chapel M. E. church held a 10-cent tea at Mrs. J. L. Johnson's home on Lenox avenue last Thursday. A fine time was had and the afternoon passed all too quickly. There were about 17 present.

Charles Chambreau, of Portland, has bought the old school building on Buckley avenue and Gilbert road and is remodeling it for a residence. He expects to occupy it as soon as the remodeling is completed.

Mrs. Chambreau, of Portland, visited with Mrs. Will Gilbert and Mrs. Donald Fury last week.

W. C. T. U.

The meeting Tuesday was full of interest, some being present who are not often seen there. Opening devotions were led by Miss Terrell. The evil effect of cigarette smoking on growing boys was discussed. With so strong a state law as we have in Oregon, why is it so hard to keep cigarettes away from the little fellows in school? It is the children we are working for. Why not have our good law enforced still better?

Mrs. S. E. Cook, 1002 Oswego street, county superintendent of temperance work in the Sunday schools, was present. She brought a plan for uniting all the Sunday schools of the community in temperance and anti-narcotic instruction. Mrs. Dunbar was appointed to carry this forward as far as possible among the Sunday schools of Lents.

Work on the million-dollar drive will not be pushed during the Victory loan drive. We are getting ready, however, to do our bit.

The million-dollar jubilee fund of the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union will work for woman in the making (child welfare); woman who toils (woman in industry); woman of foreign birth (Americanization); woman everywhere (world prohibition).

Mrs. Fox and daughter, Mrs. A. Peterson, started to Prineville last Thursday morning after several weeks' stay in Lents. Mrs. Peterson was here for treatment. She is going home much improved in health, and glad to get back to her husband and little folks.

Four young ladies from Newberg spent the week-end in Lents, two of them visiting home folks. One of the visitors was the guest of Violet Littlefield and the other was the guest of Theodora Dunbar.

A pleasant little party spent the evening Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Littlefield.
