MISS MARGASON PRESENTED IN DRAMATIC RECITAL MAY 26

At 8:30 o'clock Monday evening, May 26, Miss Lina Greathouse presented Miss Buena Selma Margason, of 2917 Fifty-ninth street S. E., in dramatic recital at the assembly room of the Hotel Portland. Miss Margason is a versatile reader, her roles ranging from the serious exhortation, through the narrative, and the foreign dialect impersonations, to the ridiculous in the small-boy story. Miss Margason held her audience to the end, and at times led them to an intense pitch of suspense. She has a charming stage personality, which, appearing before a stage setting of profusions of beautiful flowers, gave a most delightful impression. Miss Margason was assisted at the recital by Miss Dorothy Louise Bliss, violinist, and Miss Margaret Notz, pianist. She left Thursday of last week with the three other members of the Multnomah quartette for Seattle, en route for Moosejaw, Canada, where the girls will appear in the first program of their series of Ellison-White chautauqua engagements. Miss Margason is the daughter of Dr. E. G. Margason, of Tremont station.

The evening sing at the Millard Avenue church was most unique in that Prof. P. Waldo Davis, chimes artist, assisted. Prof. Davis gave several solo numbers including "Palma," "Where is My Wandering Boy Tonight?" "The Holy City," "Star of the East," "A Perfect Day" (offertory), and "The Star Spangled Banner." Prof. Davis is solitary in his musical accomplishment and to those who have not heard it his music would be a veritable treat.
