

TAKES CLASS TO MT. TABOR PARK PICNICING SATURDAY

Mrs. Syra Chick, teacher of the 6th B at the Woodmere school took her class out to Mt. Tabor park for a picnic last Saturday afternoon, the 7th.

Mrs. Thomas, a loyal and enthusiastic friend of the Woodmere school, entertained Mrs. A. Alexander, principal of the Woodmere school, last Tuesday at a midday luncheon.

The crafts for girls at the Woodmere school have been in charge of Miss Martha Hart during the past year. Once a week she has conducted manual arts; twice a week, cooking, and sewing. A unique feature of her work was the boys' classes in sewing and cooking. In the former the instruction included those things which a boy camper and scout needs to know about handling a needle and thread. In the latter the work was in camp cooking, a most fitting close to the term's work being a breakfast out in the woods directed by Miss Hart. The boys baked potatoes in the coals, made hot cakes from prepared flour, roasted weinies on sticks and made chocolate. The boys who have been most interested and most adept in the art are Ellsworth Gittus, Robert Stoner and Benson Griffith.

At the first of the year the girls made a great number of property bags, one hundred and eight in number, for the soldiers; and also, for them, a great number of bedside bags; beside quantities of flu masks and a number of school bags. This term the girls were allowed to do their own sewing. For the manual arts work the girls were taught to make black oilcloth bags with flower and fruit motifs in felt sewed on with the blanket stitch. They also were shown the art of fashioning little bags for carrying trifles, made of Aida canvas, decorated with cross stitch. The designs used in all this manual art work are made by the children themselves. The classes of the fifth, sixth and seventh grades made designs and then worked them out in towels. The supervisors came out once a month to start plans for the motifs and to teach the children how to plan their designs on paper.

In cooking the 6-A class began with the necessary and fundamental principles of house cleaning—including laundering, ironing, woodwork cleaning and personal hygiene. The seventh grade made the greatest evident improvement, at the close of the term being able to work quickly and together.

The 8-A girls have been Miss Hart's most dependable assistants in the lunch room. Last year they canned most of the tomatoes from the school garden, enough for all the winter's soups. In all there were over a hundred jars of tomatoes and every one kept. Before the lunch hour the girls helped Miss Hart arrange the tables and assisted her in making the soup or chili con carne, with which she varied her menu. During the lunch hour they helped serve the children and at the conclusion of the meal washed up the dishes and cleaned up the kitchen thus getting valuable practical experience. A novel and most valuable feature of the Woodmere cooking school was the bringing of the ingredients from home, the cooking of them at school and the taking of the finished viands back home for family use. Among the 8-A girls those who did exceptionally fine work in cookery were Myrtea Flier, Eva Spooner, Velela Lehman, and Theodora Klock. That the practical element of Miss Hart's work has been appreciated has been shown by the fact that already children have volunteered as helpers for next year's work. In spite of the "high cost of living," the making of a different soup every two weeks and a change to chili con carne, and the minimum charge of fifteen cents a week for each child for a serving five times a week, the cooking department netted $70.00. This money will go to local school uses, the garden, the kitchen, etc.

The following are the graduates from the Joseph Kellogg school, having completed their public school work under the efficient principalship of Prof. B. A. Thaxter:

Beatrice Beckman, Angelo Carletto, Ernest Carletto, Albert Davis, Gordon Doane, Elizabeth Donahue, Olga Eichman, Maybelle Erickson, Lynn Forrest, Anna Hamilton, Clara Harmon, Holden Le Roy, Cuba Lutz, Bernice Monish, Alice Murden, Helen Rider, Grace Root, Thelma Eenor, Dorothy Snider, Harold, Harold Shaw, Fay Ward. All with but one exception, expect to enter some one of the high schools.

F. MOORE HAS BOTH OF HIS LEGS CUT OFF

Frank Moore, aged 61 years, of 103rd street and 57th avenue S. E., was seriously injured when he was run down by a switch engine in the Albina yards last Friday. While engaged as a switchman in the yards his foot became wedged between the ties and he was unable to extricate himself in time, one foot being cut off and the other so terribly mangled that amputation was necessary. He was taken to St. Vincent's hospital and is resting as comfortably as possible under the conditions.

An interesting program has been arranged and the little folks rendering it will have a rich feast in store for all who may be present. Children's Day is always looked forward to with much interest because of its entertaining features and its education for benevolence. This time the school pledged a liberal offering for the cause of missions, and you should have seen their eyes dance when they pledge their contributions. They will not only go to the top, but over it. Look out!

AID PLEDGED TO ARMENIAN SUFFERERS BY CHILDREN

Last Sunday was Bible lands sufferers' aid day at the Evangelical Sunday school. Their aim was $200 in cash and subscriptions. At the close of the Sunday school the amount was almost reached, and they will, as last Christmas, go much over the top of their aim. And why not? Jesus said "As much as ye have done it unto one of the least of these, ye have done it unto me."

ARLETA BOY SCOUTS WIN SEVENTH PLACE

Arleta Boy Scouts, troop 21, got seventh place in the scout stunt contest at Vaughn Park, Saturday the 31st. And there are about sixty troops in Portland!

At the Pow-wow of Scouts at Kellogg school June 6, Mr. A. G. Jackson of the United States Forestry Service gave a talk illustrated with slides of the Portland Boy Scout clubhouse at Wahtum Lake. This forest lodge, reached either by scenic Eagle creek trail or by Herman trail, is located in the Oregon National Forest reserve, and therefore the trails are supervised and guarded by the national rangers. The lodge is about 50x100 with a large stone fireplace at one end, kitchen and office room, and general headquarters all in one. The lake on which the lodge is situated is about half a mile long and a quarter of a mile wide and is of the bluest blue, said even to rival that of Crater Lake.

The pow-wow was chairmanned by Scoutmaster Geo. Chilson of the South Mt. Tabor Community club.

BABY GIRL ARRIVES AT THE J. SANGER FOX HOME JUNE 10

Although most everybody was sure he would do differently, Mr. Stork at his recent visit Tuesday, June 10, to the home of J. Sanger Fox, 6228 Ninety-second street S. E., left another girl, making number three. She is another black-haired, dark-eyed baby, like Joyce, the oldest. She weighed 8½ pounds, is roly-poly fat, and her name is Thelma Makepeace, the first name for her maternal grandmother and the latter a time-honored name of much prestige in Quaker circles. Mrs. Fox is doing as well as anybody could under the efficient care of Nurse Marth Isler.

J. O. Kadoch and family accompanied by Mrs. Helen Worden and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Holmes, of St. Johns, motored to Springbrook last Sunday.

Taylor instead held the sacrament of the holy baptism, there being one candidate, little Stella Beth Geisler, the two-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Geisler. Baby Geisler was very sweet and daintily dressed in white and was held by her mother. The sponsors were Mrs. Guy Robinson and Mrs. S. J. Allen, who stood for Mrs. Geisler's sister, Mrs. Hyde, of Hillsboro, who was unable to attend. The altar and church were beautifully decorated and the ladies of the Guild deserve much commendation for their efforts.

On June 8 Bishop Sumner made his annual visitation and confirmed the class, the members of which were Mrs. Larsen and daughter Mildred, and the Misses Lorena and Louella Nelson. Bishop Sumner preached an excellent sermon on the gospel of Whit Sunday and commended the rector for his faithful service at St. Paul's mission, where he has been the past nine years.
