MY LIL' OLD OPINION IS THAT THERE AINT NO EXCUSE FOR BUYIN' STUFF OUTA TOWN WITH A GOOD LIVE BUNCH OF BUSINESS MEN LIKE WE GOT OFFERIN' BARGAINS IN EVERY ISSUE OF THIS HERE NEWSPAPER!

ADDITIONAL LOCAL

The last meeting of the Woodmere Parent-Teacher association for the year was held Tuesday afternoon, June 10, with Mrs. Peters, the newly-elected president, presiding. Annual reports were read, and the business for the year closed.

Mrs. T. Y. Cadwell returned Saturday from her extended eastern trip, which took her as far as New York. She was accompanied home by her sister-in-law, Mrs. W. H. Cadwell, and daughter Gertrude, of Rockford, Ill. They enjoyed the Rose Festival this week.

Little Miss Marie Rust entertained a number of friends, both grown-up and children, at her home, 9220 Fifty-third avenue, last Thursday, June 5, in honor of her seventh birthday. She received many beautiful birthday gifts and a happy afternoon was spent. Refreshments were served at four o'clock.

The various teachers of Lents school took their pupils out for picnics this week. Miss Meagher to the city park; Miss Chapman to Council Crest; Miss Anderson to Mt. Scott and Miss Menzies to the Oaks.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Tompkins, formerly of Seobey, Mont., are now occupying the Hedge property on Ninety-second street.

Multnomah County Council, Parent-Teacher association, will meet an all-day session at Gilbert school house, district 45, on Saturday, June 21. The speakers have not as yet been selected but will be announced next week. Dinner will be served at noon.

Dr. McSloy, Geo. Spring, Art Geisler and Tom McSloy returned Sunday evening from a four-day fishing trip on the Deschutes river. They report an abundance of good fishing and brought home a good catch, although it is said the flavor was not extra good, the fish evidently having been feeding in the sweet clover fields of the vicinity.

John R. Jones, of Hankinson, N. D., an old acquaintance of Mrs. Olive Forte, 8912 Sixty-sixth avenue, visited her Saturday evening. He came from the east to meet his daughter, who is a missionary returning from China. The boat he expected her on will not arrive until the 16th and he is taking advantage of the wait to visit friends. Mr. Jones is very favorably impressed with Oregon and expects to spend the summer at Roseburg.

MEETING OF GILBERT P. T. A. IS POSTPONED TO JUNE 21

The meeting of the Parent-Teacher association of district 45 which was erroneously announced to be held last Friday should have read June 13. However, the meeting for the 13th has been postponed to Saturday, June 21, when the county association will hold an all-day session at Gilbert school. Miss Calkins, county club organizer, will be present and discuss club work and the exhibits to be made at the county fair this fall.

CHURCHES

The ladies of the Fourth United Brethren church held a bazaar in a business building at the corner of 59th Ave. and 72d St., Thursday and Friday, June 5 and 6. The ladies had a very nice display of wearables, especially children's things. They had a delectable lunch counter, cafeteria style, and an ice cream booth. During each evening a home talent program was given, on Friday evening the participants being Eva Bowen, Edna Smith, Thelma Othot, Jean Leonard, and Evelyn Shultz. A unique feature of Thelma Othot's recitations was that two of them were of her own composition. On Thursday evening Alfred Guthrie and Ellis Lake sang to a mandolin accompaniment, and Mrs. Smith and Edna Smith appeared together in a Southern "bylow" song. One other, who appeared in a separate number, was Ruth Maken. Each evening the program included the singing of patriotic songs by the audience. The gross receipts were about $70.00. This church will observe children's day the 23d of June, when special attention will be paid to decorations. Next Sunday morning Mrs. C. P. Blanchard, pastor, will speak on "The Federation of the Churches," and in the evening on "Loyalty to the Church."

The Seventh Day Adventists are holding a two-weeks' camp meeting at Creston. They have a veritable tent city on the ground between 50th and 51st streets and between the Mt. Scott car line and the street north of it. Last Sunday the congregation subscribed about $8,000 in response to a drive instituted by the leaders of the meeting.

Last Sunday was Children's Day at the Laurelwood Congregational church, the subject of the cantata being "June Roses," flowers playing a large part in a number of exercises. The missionary story feature by Mrs. T. W. Davis was especially fine, her anecdotes being very well chosen. The money received in the collection will be used for the extension of Sunday school work in slums and out-of-the-way places. Every class had a part in the program, each with its own particular individuality.

As an accessory to the children's program in this church the congregation took a unanimous, standing vote against letting up on the whisky proposition. This was done in answer to the S. O. S. call from the Anti-Saloon League to the churches.

The Arleta Baptist church celebrated Children's Day last Sunday morning. In the evening the rite of baptism was administered to seven or eight candidates for admission into the church. In the morning in connection with the children's exercises, a campaign was launched to acquire funds for a new addition to the church, which addition will contain some much needed and greatly welcomed classrooms for Sunday school work.

The intermediate young people of this church are planning for a picnic to be held next Tuesday evening, the 17th, at The Oaks.

Next Sunday morning at the Millard Avenue Presbyterian church the pastor, Rev. W. Lee Gray, will preach on the subject "The Glorious Church"; on Sunday evening he will give a sermonette on "Why Be a Christian," in connection with the congregational sing conducted by Prof. J. A. Hollingsworth.

The junior boys and girls of the Kern Park Christian church are getting ready for their part of the program to be given at the state convention of Christian Endeavor at the First Presbyterian church next week. Next Sunday evening at this church the Young People's meeting will be held by Mr. Oscar Hollett.

FRIENDS CHURCH

Both services last Sunday were of an unusual nature. At the morning service Rev. John Riley, pastor of the Friends church at Entiat, Wash., formerly pastor at the local church, was present and gave a most inspiring message. His presence was a great blessing to all his old friends. He was in Portland in attendance at the Portland quarterly meeting of Friends, which was held last Friday, Saturday and Sunday at the First Church. He preached at the Woodmere Home in the afternoon, and then attended the services at the First church.

At the evening services the congregation was glad to hear the pastor, Miss Lurana M. Terrell, once again. She has been absent some weeks in California, having been called to the death-bed of a near relative. She returned full of praise and thankfulness and the service was a most inspiring one.

There will be no preaching services at the local church next Sunday, the only service being the Sunday school at the usual hour of 9:45, the Christian Endeavor being dismissed as well. All the members and attenders are urged to spend that day at Newberg in attendance at the yearly meeting, which commenced the 11th and will continue until the 17th. Rev. Joseph H. Smith, the great Bible teacher and preacher, will be in attendance at the yearly meeting this year and it is anticipated that most of the local people will take this opportunity to go and hear him.

BAPTIST CHURCH

The children gave a very entertaining program last Sunday, which was Children's Day. Great credit is due Mrs. Silver, Mrs. Henderson, Mrs. Barker and Mrs. Smith, who worked so faithfully to make the program a success.

Sunday school will meet at 9:45 a. m. Mrs. Rosa Silver, superintendent. Morning service at 11 a. m. "Christ's Supreme Request" will be the theme.

Young people's meeting at 7 p. m. Preaching at 8 o'clock. Subject, "A Modern Tragedy."

Next Sunday morning at the Third United Brethren church, Mr. E. O. Shepherd, pastor, will speak on "What Do You Know?" and in the evening on "Sins So Ugly Paint and Powder Will Not Beautify Them."

Dort owners and others should send for the "War Memorial Number" of our periodical, DORT DOINGS, published January 15. It tells a graphic story, mostly in pictures, of this company's activities during the war and will prove a valuable souvenir to those interested in the big part played by the automobile industry in the great conflict. Yours for the asking.
