

News Items from Arleta-- Kern Park Neighborhood

Miss Jeannette Pound, of 4928 Seventy-first street S. E., is visiting her mother, Mrs. E. M. Pound, of Salem.

Next Friday evening, June 20, the Arleta Baptist married men's baseball team will play the single men's team on the Arleta grounds.

The South Mt. Tabor Community club will give a program at the Kellogg school Friday evening, the 20th, under the chairmanship of Mrs. F. A. Smith.

Miss Edna Hine, 7229 Fifty-fifth avenue S. E., who has been confined to her home for several days by an attack of walking la grippe, is gradually convalescing.

Mrs. George E. Stoner, 7411 Fifty-ninth avenue S. E., who was seriously injured several weeks ago, is now able to get about the house with the aid of a crutch and a cane.

Mr. and Mrs. Glaze have moved into their house at 7313 Fifty-fifth avenue S. E., the former occupants, Mr. and Mrs. Kendricks, having previously gone to California.

The house formerly occupied by the Matthews family at 7105 Fifty-seventh avenue S. E., has been rented to Perry L. Witbeck, of 5609 Sixty-fifth street S. E.

Among the pastors of the Mt. Scott district who attended the ministerial lay conference at the Y. M. C. A. last Monday evening, were Revs. A. C. Brackenbury, Mrs. J. J. Handsaker and W. Lee Gray, and C. C. Smith, a layman.

The regular meeting of the Women of Woodcraft was held at Woodmen hall, Arleta, Wednesday evening, June 11, Mrs. Katie Samain presiding. Next Thursday evening, June 26, there will be a joint entertainment by the orders of Woodcraft and Woodmen at the hall.

Dr. E. G. Margason, of Tremont, has received word that his daughter, Miss Buena, has been giving successful readings on her Ellison-White chautauqua trip. Although Miss Margason has been troubled with an infection on one of her feet, she has appeared with the rest of the quartette just as scheduled.

The little son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Peterson, of 5615 Seventy-second street S. E., was injured by an automobile last Sunday afternoon. The Peterson family was crossing Fifty-eighth avenue at Seventy-second street when the car came down the avenue and knocked the little chap under it. Dr. E. G. Margason, of Tremont, was summoned. The boy is convalescing quite rapidly, as healthy lads usually do.

Mesdames Effie Campbell, of 6827 Fifty-fifth avenue S. E., Ella Leabo, of 5621 Seventy-first street S. E., and E. P. Evans, of 6715 Fifty-eighth avenue S. E., were made the happy recipients of wires from their soldier sons, Glenn, Carl and Ted, last Monday. The young men arrived in New York with the 148th field artillery last Sunday, having enlisted together and served together in the same company. They are expected home about the 25th of this month.

Mrs. M. Frances Swope, 5327 Seventieth street S. E., has been entertaining house guests for a week or so and new arrivals are added from time to time, among the latest being Mrs. S. S. Dallas of Corvallis, and Miss Hilda Rice of Milton. Mrs. Dallas, who is Mrs. Swope's aunt, will make a visit of about two weeks, and Miss Rice, a niece, is stopping on her way home from O. A. C. to attend the Christian Endeavor convention held at First Presbyterian church this week.

Last Sunday morning at the Laurelwood Congregational church a pleasing ceremony marked the advent of new song books. The money for the books had been raised by the Intermediate Endeavor society, and the presentation speech was made by Miss Pauline Pratten, president of the organization. The response of acceptance was made by the pastor, Mrs. J. J. Handsaker, and the books were then distributed. The getting of these books is one of the things which the congregation has had in mind as a necessary refurbishing, and as the "chest of joy," which was introduced some time ago, is gradually filled, other improvements will be made.

Last Monday evening at a dinner and discussion meeting at the Y. M. C. A. dining parlor, over 200 ministers and laymen decided to have a suggested constitution for a basis of church federation presented to each of the Portland congregations for consideration. The immediate purpose is moral betterment of the city in general and of definite localities in particular. The federation will also afford an organized means for concerted action on any moral issue which may come before the public. The meeting was called by the ministerial association, virtually all denominations being represented. The leading speakers were Bishop Sumner, Episcopal; Dr. Hinson, Baptist; Dr. Constant, Congregational, and Mr. Seeley, Presbyterian.

Miss Wil Hutchinson, librarian of the Arleta branch library, recommends the following reading material: "The Dark People," Ernest Poole. Mr. Poole, who has recently returned from Russia, seeks in this book to discover the constructive forces at work in building a nation. "Sonya," Stephen McKenna. Sonya does for the British school and university life and for the British governing classes what Mr. Britling did for the British middle classes. "The Time Spirit," J. C. Snaith. It is a story of Mary, a little foundling, misnamed Mary Plantagenet because of her royal bearing. "Our Trees and How to Know Them," Arthur I. Emerson and Florence M. Weed. About 20 pages of new material have been added to the new edition of this standard work on the trees of America. There are 11 extra illustrations, making 149 in all.

Mrs. O. H. Gilbert, 4928 Seventy-first street S. E., has been entertaining out-of-town visitors. Among them was George W. Manning, a soldier returned from France, who was a guest of several days and who left for his home in Alameda, Cal., Friday evening, June 13. After visiting his home folks for a time Mr. Manning will return to make his home in this city, where he lived before he went overseas. Another guest was J. C. Gibson, former real estate dealer, who has recently purchased a farm near Lebanon. Last Tuesday Mrs. Gilbert and her sister, Mrs. A. C. Holcomb entertained at luncheon Mrs. L. F. Roat and her two daughters, Marguerite and Dorothea, of Grants Pass. Mrs. Roat was in the city "doing" the carnival.

Laurelwood Congregational

Next Sunday morning at the Laurelwood Congregational church the pastor, Mrs. J. J. Handsaker, will speak on "Federation of Churches." Mrs. Handsaker is very enthusiastic about the possibilities of such an organization.

Millard Ave. Presbyterian

At the Millard Avenue Presbyterian church next Sunday morning the pastor, Rev. W. Lee Gray, will speak in the interests of the church federation movement. His subject will be "The Single Front Line." In the evening the services will be discontinued this week that all who can may attend the C. E. convention meeting at the auditorium.

Kern Park Christian

Next Sunday morning at the Kern Park Christian church the pastor, Dr. R. A. Moon, will speak on the subject, "Revealing Jesus Christ." In the evening this church will join in the C. E. convention service at the auditorium.

EVANGELICAL CHURCH

The regular services will be held at the Evangelical church next Sunday. The pastor, N. Shupp, will preach his third sermon on the Church of Jesus Christ. "Organization" will be the subject at 11 a. m. Preaching services also at 8 p. m.

Sunday school 9:45 a. m.
Boys and girls meeting 6 p. m.
No. Y. P. A. at 7.
Prayer meeting at 8 p. m. Thursday evening.

BAPTIST CHURCH

Sunday school at 9:45 a. m. Good music, good classes.
Preaching at 11 a. m. Theme, "Some Mountain-top Lessons."
Young people's meeting at 7 p. m. Preaching at 8 o'clock. Subject, "The Supreme Moment."
Prayer meeting Thursday evening at 8 o'clock.

Next Sunday morning at the Third United Brethren church, corner of Thirty-second avenue and Sixty-seventh street, the pastor, Rev. E. O. Shepherd, will speak on "Thou Art the Man," and in the evening he will preach from the subject, "The First Outcast." Last Sunday was a banner Sunday at this church, greater interest being shown by the nearly doubled attendance.

BELLROSE-GILBERT

Mrs. March and son, of Seattle, are visiting Mrs. A. F. Swanson.

Mrs. Rindle left Tuesday evening for Merrimac and Farnum, Wis., where she will spend the summer visiting her sisters, Mrs. S. C. Ranson and Mrs. R. Fennimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Furey last week entertained Mrs. Jordan, of Waitsburg, and her sister, of Enterprise; Mrs. Jordan, of Portland, and F. H. Clark, of Roosevelt, Ore.

Mrs. Julius Heidt entertained last Monday afternoon in honor of the fifth birthday anniversary of her little son Freddy. A large number were present and a happy afternoon was spent playing games. A delicious lunch was served which was much enjoyed.

At the school meeting at Gilbert school Monday evening Mr. Hinebaugh was elected clerk and William R. McCulloch director. Carl Bowman was elected to the principalship and the former teachers were re-elected to their positions. They are Miss Arendt, Miss McNeil, Miss Davis and Mrs. Strech.

William H. Nutter died Sunday, June 8, at his late residence, 6412 Sixty-seventh street, at the age of 70 years. He had been in poor health for a year and died from a stroke of paralysis and heart trouble. Mr. Nutter leaves a wife and five children, among them being Mrs. Nellie Van Blaricum, of Park drive and Lenox avenue. Mr. Nutter died peacefully, trusting in Christ and his salvation.

Hazel and Helen Hobson entertained a number of their little girl friends at a joint birthday party last Saturday afternoon, June 14. Helen's birthday occurs on June 7 and Hazel's is June 27, so in order to celebrate both birthdays with one party a date midway between was chosen. A jolly time was had playing games and dainty refreshments were served.

On Saturday, June 14, the old Unexpected club awoke and surprised Mrs. A. Rindle, of Wilson Hill. Every one spent the evening pleasantly. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson were out from the city, and others present were R. Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. Field, Mr. and Mrs. Casey, Mrs. England of Bellrose, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson of Gilbert. Regrets were expressed that the old members, Mrs. Bateman and her sister, Mrs. Smith, were detained on account of Mrs. Smith's illness, as was also Mrs. Henderson. Refreshments were served and a social program given until the "wee sma" hours.

Gary Motor Trucks

For the Farm, City or Interurban

A GARY TRUCK IS THE TRUCK TO BUY because there is a size for every requirement, and because every truck represents the highest degree of perfection as exemplified by the best balanced truck built, composed of units of the highest order obtainable.

GARY MOTOR TRUCKS are made in six models: Model F 1-ton, G 1½-ton, H 2-ton, HU 2½-ton, K 3½-ton, V 5-ton, and all are equipped with the war-famed Buda Motors. The motor adopted for government work in France. The HU or YU with the force feed lubricating system through a drilled crankshaft in all large sizes.

THE SHELDON WORM DRIVE AXLE is another important feature of construction of Gary Motor Trucks. It is the costliest, the oldest and highest priced worm drive axle built. All Gary trucks use Sheldon axles.

THE SPRINGS—THE TUTHILL SPRINGS—titanic fronts—and banded rears. The rear springs, which carry the load, are guaranteed for the life of the truck against breakage in the center.

THE BUILT UP CAST TANK RADIATOR. The Gary built up cast tank radiator with oval tubular core, finned for radiation, is the last word in radiator construction. It is invincible in strength, oversize in capacity and 100 per cent in cooling efficiency.

GARY MOTOR TRUCKS are of the same high class in every other unit and detail of construction and are warranted for one full year.

FOR GARY TRUCK FACTORY INFORMATION for the northwest territory call on or address the Portland Agency, and secure our terms to dealers and agents if considering a line of trucks or desiring a selling agency.

DRIVERS WITH DEMONSTRATORS will cover the territory and call on interested parties.
