DON'T DISAPPOINT THEM

Many a returning American tourist, standing on the deck of a steamer entering one of our harbors, has been overcome by an emotion that made him cry. The sight which brought his tears was not that of Boston Light or of the New York skyline. Either brings joy to one who comes back home. The ecstasy on the steamer's deck among those who never saw America before was the real feature of an Atlantic voyage westward. Men fell on their knees. Women raised their babies aloft in exultation. Hymns were chanted in strange tongues. Dr. Henry Jackson, of the federal bureau of education, has taken as the slogan for a movement to teach the alien the true meaning of American democracy, "Make him see America as he dreamed of it before he left Europe." There is but one answer which those who have been here longer can make to this love of "immigrants" for their adopted land. We must make their dreams come true, says the Boston Globe. "We must support every movement to make America fit for those who once looked upon these states as a new haven."

A tightwad is a being unto himself. No two tightwads are alike and few tightwads reach their estate from the same reason. No man is a tightwad because he wants to be. He can't help it. The dictionary says a tightwad is "a penurious person," but as the term is employed in this day this is not a good definition. A tightwad of the present is a normally conservative person grown more cautious by close application to the principle of "safety first." The disease is highly contagious. A person with no inclination to tightness, after associating with a company of tightwads for a time, will soon become tight. It is not a condition easily shaken off and it works practically all the time.

CRAMPED

Visitor—How did you feel sleeping in the upper berth on the railroad train?
Willie (aged five)—I felt like I was in the top bureau drawer.

TOO QUIET

"This is certainly a nice, quiet spot we picked out for our honeymoon."
"It's too quiet. I haven't seen a nice-looking fellow since we arrived."

BELLROSE-GILBERT

Mrs. Wammick, of Klamath Falls, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Stevens, on Gilbert road.

Iona Graham gave a party last Thursday afternoon to a number of her little friends, the occasion being her ninth birthday.

James Reed has just returned from Germany, where he has been in service under Old Glory. His name is among the first on the honor roll at Ninety-second and Foster road. His many loyal friends here extend to him their hearty greeting. Oh, that words could pay the tribute we owe to our soldier boys. May their lives be lengthened and brightened by the love kept, and living in the hearts of their friends.

LENTS FRIENDS CHURCH

The pastor, Miss Terrell, has recently commenced a series of sermons on the "Faith of Our Father," using Sunday mornings for this service. Two weeks ago her subject was "Authenticity of the Scripture," last week "The Personality of the Trinity," and next Sunday morning "The Creation and Fall of Man." The public is cordially invited to attend this series of services.

We are pleased to have Mrs. Phoebe Hammer and daughter Margaret with us again. Their membership is in the local church, although they have been living at Klamath Falls several years.
