Mrs. Moll was born in Los Angeles, Cal., May 22, 1892, where she lived till December, 1907, when she came to Lents with her mother, Mrs. Theckla Bright, and sister, Elsie. A bounteous banquet was served by the Royal Neighbor ladies. The soldiers present were Sergeant W. A. Bailey, 11th regiment U. S. marines; J. D. Bailey, 834th U. S. aerial squadron; W. A. FOURTH CELEBRATED WITH FINE PROGRAM AT ST. PETERS PARISH

The Fourth of July was celebrated by St. Peter's parish in a highly elaborate manner. The literary and musical program was of very excellent quality. The Declaration of Independence was read by Miss Mary McGinty. Solos were rendered by Mrs. E. Holway and Miss Catherine O'Brien. Musical selections were given by Leo Delaney on the violin, accompanied by Miss O'Brien. The singing of Mrs. E. Holway was vociferously applauded.

The dinner served at noon was toothsome and well managed under the direction of Miss Mary McGinty, assisted by the ladies of the parish.

The amusements staged in St. Peter's hall were kept up until late at night. These celebrations gain momentum each year and show the general good will and patriotism of the people.

Mrs. Vardy and Mrs. Letcher were most active in getting votes for the cake donated by Mrs. Vardy. B. McGinty, John McGinty and John Labo assisted down stairs while the palm garden was managed by D. Letcher in the hall. Others who worked diligently for the success of the undertaking were Mrs. E. Holway, Mrs. Grassnes and Mrs. Nauda. E. T. Keelan and wife were visitors at St. Peter's parish Sunday, having just returned from their honeymoon trip.

Shiloh Circle, ladies of G. A. R., enjoyed a very profitable meeting last Saturday evening, although the president, Mrs. Alice Woodworth, was absent. The chair was filled by the senior vice-president, Mrs. Tussy. New members are being added to the order and they are soon in hopes to have the largest membership of all the Circles in Portland. Comrade Baker was reported to be slightly improved.

Mrs. I. Abram, 5320 Eighty-ninth street, is at home from a six-weeks' visit with relatives and old schoolmates in London and Seaford, Ontario, Canada. On May 24 she witnessed a very pathetic sight when the 18 remaining members of the 19th battalion, which consisted of 900 soldiers, returned home to London after four years service in France. She says the temperature ranged from 85 to 100 most of the time she was there. She spent one day sightseeing in Chicago en route home. There were 30 soldiers returning home on the train she traveled on from Chicago and they, as well as the Canadian soldiers, give great praise to the Salvation Army lassies and the Red Cross.

They left Monday morning for Timber and the Nehalem river. Mrs. Woodworth reports good fishing on the Nehalem, having landed a good catch, after which they motored to Forest Grove and stopped for the night. Mr. and Mrs. J. Ballinger, of Okaloosa, Iowa, and Mrs. J. M. Shaw, of Lincoln, Neb., are visiting at the homes of Mrs. E. K. Shaw and her son and family, Elton Shaw. Mrs. J. M. Shaw is a sister of Mrs. E. K. Shaw and Mr. Ballinger is a nephew of Mrs. Shaw. The Ballingers, after completing their visit in Portland, will continue their trip to Seattle where they will visit with the parents of Mrs. Ballinger until about the first of September. While they are greatly pleased with the beautiful roses and parks of Portland and the delightful climate of this portion of the state, they say they prefer to live in the land of yellow corn and big fat hogs. The party stopped at Denver and Salt Lake on their way to the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Tussey and daughter Annie, Mr. and Mrs. Duane Wheeler, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bailey Sr. and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bailey Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Charles Warde and son and daughter, Glen and Ruth, and Mr. and Mrs. Williams comprised a jolly camping party which went to Trout Creek Villa, on the Mollala river Thursday, July 3, returning Sunday evening.

MT. SCOTT PEOPLE MADE TRIP TO MT. HOOD ON FOURTH

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Sanders, 5323 Seventy-second street S. E., with their daughter Zoe, and Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Clarke, accompanied by their two children, Orville and Baby Hazel, motored to Mt. Hood the Fourth in the Clarke's Maxwell. The party left early Friday morning. The ladies ventured as far as Cloud Cap Inn but the gentlemen went on up the glacier beyond the timber line. Mrs. Sanders reported that there was lots of snow at the snow line, and the wind was cold. The scenery, however, waterfalls and wonderful timber, etc., was very beautiful. The first night they camped out in the open at Lost Water, but the second they took shelter in a shed on account of the threatening clouds. Although the party were witnesses of two auto accidents, one in which a woman's arm was broken, and another in which a Chevrolet and a "bug" went over the embankment to "smithereens," they themselves escaped without any trouble whatsoever. Their ascent up Mt. Hood being on the east side they made the trip over the Columbia River Highway.

Dr. and Mrs. McSloy Returned From Coast

Dr. and Mrs. McSloy and Mr. and Mrs. Mackey and little son Irwin, of 9633 Foster road, arrived home from a most pleasant camping trip Monday evening. Their first stop was at McMinville in a park where a cookstove, water and other conveniences for autoists have been placed by thoughtful citizens. From there they went to Tillamook and made camp, and from there returned by way of the coast resorts at Bar View, Cannon Beach and Seaside.

G. A. R. QUARTET MUCH ENJOYED IN 4TH PROGRAM

One of the leading attractions at the celebration at the Mt. Scott Park on the Fourth was the G. A. R. quartet, composed of Messrs. Joseph Henwood, J. S. Hamilton, J. E. Chambers and F. Varner. Mrs. J. S. Hamilton accompanied them at the piano.

In the afternoon they sang "The Little Brown Church in the Vale" and "The Boys in Blue Are Growing Old." In the evening their selections were "Wave on, Old Glory," "Old Black Joe" and "Unfurl the Flag."

The presence of this quartet was a much appreciated link between the time when our nation's freedom from slavery and her preservation to democracy was defended. No Fourth of July is complete without the presence of these men of the civil war.

Mr. Hamilton was a cavalryman in a southern division; Mr. Varner was with Sherman's army; Mr. Chambers was one of the army led by General Thomas, of Chattanooga fame.

LADIES AND BUSI- NESS FIRMS GAVE REFRESHMENTS

The ladies of the Millard Avenue Neighborhood Unit, under the leadership of Mrs. S. J. Merry, secured the free lemonade and coffee for the celebration at the Mt. Scott Park on the Fourth. In addition to the lemons and coffee (and coffee accessories) the ladies furnished 12 loaves of bread and made them into sandwiches for distribution. They were assisted by the Millard Avenue Feed & Fuel Co., which donated 100 pounds of ice; by the Ideal Coffee Co., which gave three pounds of coffee; by the firm of Crum & Chambers, which discounted 20 per cent of the bill for lemons, bread, etc., and by Roy Armstrong of the Millard Avenue Drug Co., who contributed a subscription. A collection was taken in the evening to defray the expenses of the occasion and the committee offered to reimburse the ladies, but Mrs. Merry refused the money, saying that the coffee and lemonade had been advertised as free and that free it should be. Mrs. Merry says she prefers to keep the confidence of the public in the veracity of the Millard Avenue Neighborhood Unit. These loyal ladies willingly gave their time and money in the interests of the celebration.
